We take pleasure in dedicating this, our 1966 edition of The Eagle, to our principal, Charles F. Short:

Who has given eight devoted years of his teaching career as principal of Midway Rural High School.

Who has given us guidance for the years to come.

Who has been an inspiration for all students who would like to follow his example.

Whose teachings will be with us through the years.

Who has given time and patience to our character development.

We hereby dedicate this 1966 Eagle to Mr. Charles F. Short who will be leaving, although his ideals will long remain.

Principal's Message

The school yearbook is a record of past accomplishments of a school and the individual students. For many years the program of Midway High School has stressed the development of the student in his intellectual, social and physical life. The 1966 "Eagle" has presented an excellent history of each phase of student life at Midway. The 1966 "Eagle" will be a lasting reminder to those who have attended this school. It will also serve as a valuable document in the history of this school.

I wish to congratulate the students and faculty on this fine yearbook.

As the requirements and student activities have increased through the years, it is most gratifying to notice the increasingly high quality of work and accomplishments by the student body. These accomplishments are reflected in this edition of the "Eagle" and this is YOU. We are proud of Midway High School, its faculty and its students.
