WE CONSIDER THE FUTURE AND LEAVE THE PAST BEHIND

*PRODUCED BY
THE YEARBOOK STAFF OF 1979
HIGHLAND, KANSAS*

When I die
 Give what's left of me away
 To children
 And old men that wait to die.
 And if you need to cry,
 Cry for your brother
 Walking the street beside you.
 And when you need me,
 Put your arms
 Around anyone
 And give them
 What you need to give to me.
 I want to leave you something,
 Something better
 Than words
 Or sounds.
 Look for me
 In the people I've known
 Or loved,
 And if you cannot give me away,
 At least let me live on your eyes
 And not on your mind.
 You can love me most
 By letting
 Hands touch hands,
 By letting
 Bodies touch bodies,
 And by letting go
 Of children
 That need to be free.
 Love doesn't die,
 People do.
 So, when all that's left of me
 Is love,
 Give me away.

CLASS HISTORY

In the Fall of 1975, 30 bright-eyed Freshmen prepared to enter Highland High, but were delayed a week when the school house burned down. As a result, they missed out on being initiated.

Our officers for our first year were: Mike Rush, President; P.J. Cribbs, Vice-President; Wayne Diveley, Treasurer; Jeff Renkel, Secretary; Jewell Meloway, Sergeant-At-Arms; Kevin Collins and Angie Koelliker, Stuco.

Our first money-making projects were: Picking up corn, a bake sale, and washed and waxed combines. Our Freshman class parties were going to a movie, and having a roller skating party. In that first year we gained Sherry Higgins in February, lost Lela Davis in November, and Renee Clark entered and left in January.

We began our Sophomore year with Mark Lackey as President; Tami Colley, Vice-President; Terry Whitsell, Treasurer; Angie Koelliker, Secretary; Kevin Collins, Sergeant-at-Arms; Candy Walton and Steven McKay, Stuco.

To enrich our treasury department we held a bake sale; a turkey raffle; we picked up rocks from a field; sold aluminum cans; and held the car wash for Prom.

For our Sophomore class parties we again went to a movie and we sponsored a school-wide roller skating party.

That year we bid farewells to Sherry Higgins, P.J. Cribbs, and Arlene Rhyne, and welcomed Mary Harmon, Randy Gildersleeve, and Cindy Simpson.

To begin a very busy Junior year, we selected our class officers. They were: Angie Koelliker, President; Jeff Renkel, Vice-President; Mark Lackey, Treasurer; Veronica Sisk, Secretary; Mary Harmon and Chris Collins, Stuco.

We were very anxious to select and receive our class rings which made us official Juniors. To raise money for Prom we ran the concession stand at the ballgames, sold Bluestreak booster tags and had a bake sale and car wash.

Our biggest event of the year was the Junior-Senior Prom which we held on April 29th. We chose "The Journey Onward" as our theme. We decorated in yellow and blue in honor of the Seniors. The banquet was held at the Maple Leaf in Hiawatha. We were honored to be the first class to put on the Prom in the new school. Everyone enjoyed the band "Liquid Fire". The movie "Semi-Tough" was held at the "Skylark" Drive-in after Prom.

The red rose was selected as our class flower along with red and white as our colors.

During our Junior year Pam Hamilton and Veronica Sisk left, and Vince Reser entered. In the Fall of '78, we finally became Seniors. We elected Jeff Renkel, President; Chris Collins, Vice-President; Candy Walton, Treasurer; Jamie Scott, Secretary; Tami Colley and Kevin Collins, Stuco.

We let the Freshmen know who was "Boss" during the first week of school and held an initiation dance for them at the high school. They were very definitely well initiated.

Our money making projects to go on sneak consisted of selling Bluestreak booster tags, selling magazines, records, and tapes. We also had the Senior play, "Arsenic and Old Lace".

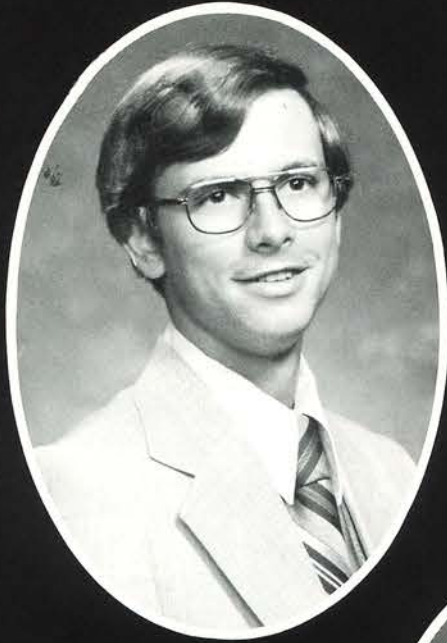

As Seniors, we lost Vince Reser, Jewell Meloway, Randy Gildersleeve, Tony Davis, Mary Harmon, Penny Rhodd, and Terry Whitsell.

On May 5th, we were the guests of honor at the Junior-Senior Banquet held at the Elks in Hiawatha and the Prom held at the high school. Their theme was "Save a place for Rainbows and Dreams" and "Liquid Fire" again provided our music. We want to thank the Juniors for a wonderful night and a job well done.

We left for Sneak on May 7th and returned on May 11th. We stayed at Kalfran Lodge in the Ozarks. We made sure we had plenty of fun, as we realized it would be our last time together as a class. We would like to thank Mr. Hutchcraft and Mr. Terry for being great sponsors for all four years.

Baccalaureate was held May 13th, Class Night May 15th, and Commencement Wednesday, May 16th at the high school.

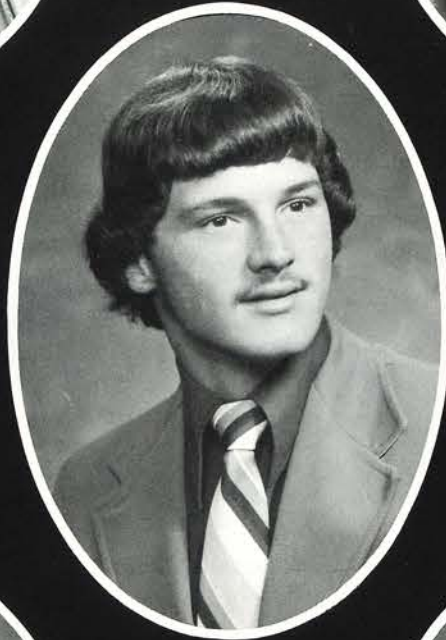

It has been a great four years. We are now looking forward to the future and hope to fulfill our motto: "We consider the future and leave the past behind"

PROPHESES

JIM BOOS, after attending Garden City College, decided to come back and marry his high school sweetheart, and can now be seen riding his and her Kawasakis.

TAMI COLLEY, after finding out the hard way that older men were no good, decided she would go for younger ones. She can now be seen riding in the back of the truck, while Whitsell, Mooney, Ward, and Steve are in the front.

CHRIS COLLINS, after finally convincing Jim P. that she didn't want to go out with him, decided to use reverse psychology and try to convince Doug to go out with her.

KEVIN "DEXTER" COLLINS, after leaving HHS, wanted a new life and started farming. He can now be seen selling "Massey Fergusons," using the slogan, "Farming is fun, so Grimm and bear it."

STEVE COLLINS, after marrying his Corder Hall sweetheart, can now be seen settling other couple's fights, since he's had so much experience.

DAVID DIVELEY, after being the school's punching bag for four years, is now the red siren on top of Sinker's car.

WAYNE DIVELEY, after meeting a certain girl from Wichita on his trip, decided to go see her, and now he can be found in the chemistry lab at Wichita University.

BOBBY EDIE, after making millions from his single hit record, "Bah Bah Bah Bah Bah Be Edie," can now be seen as a drill instructor in the National Guard.

BILLY "BEAVER" FEE, after running out of excuses why he wasn't in school, and buying and selling every horse in the world, finally settled down to his own lumber business. The only problem is, he cuts as many fingers off as he does trees.

JAMES GARNER, after redoing his truck for one certain girl, decided to please himself, since he knew he wasn't going to get her.

ANGIE KOELIKER, after falling in love with all the new guys that came to Highland, settled down to her latest high school sweetheart, and can now be seen raising little ducklings in Neiblingville.

MARK LACKEY, after taking R.O.T.C. at KU, can now be found playing "grenades" all over the world. Mark is now a Colonel in a mercenary army that fights Communism on every front.

STEVE MCKAY, alias "Gezzer," can now be seen after the Senior plays, driving down behind Simmons' workshop with his favorite companion from Tonganoxie.

TERRY "GOONEY" MOONEY, after one year of football at HCJC, went into the mushroom business. Every spring, he can be found in his new Rolls-Royce, peddling mushrooms across the United States.

JIM PTOMEY, after taking over his dad's grocery store and turning it into "Don's Disco," can now be found at Collier Manor waiting for Julie to get out of school.

JEFF RENKEL, after finally winning the two mile in high school, can now be seen running for KU. His future plans after leaving KU, are to marry his running mate from Hiawatha, and become the first married U.S. couple to win the 1,000 meters in the Olympics.

ALAN REYER, after quitting high school, can now be seen recruiting young boys for the National Guards.

MIKE RUSH, after being in every war there was in high school, can now be found right along with Jim Ptomey at the nursing home, planning their double wedding.

JAMIE SCOTT, after graduating from HHS, went to HCJC and completed her secretarial course. She can now be seen taking over her mother's job to be near Grant. She lost her job when Earl caught her reporting in to Grant every 30 seconds.

CINDY SIMPSON, after marrying her high school sweetheart, "Fingerless Mort," went into the belt business, and made millions.

RANDY "FONZ" SIMPSON, after finally graduating from HHS and Vo Tech, can now be seen as the head man at Dawson Automotive.

CANDY WALTON, after graduating from high school, can still be seen trying to get a date with any Knudson. In the mean time, she can be seen pushing her sister aside for a chance to run cows.

WILLS

I, Jim Boos, will to David Alfrey and Bill Woodruff all my left over credits to divide between them; and to next year's journalism class, an easier way to do things. To Sheryl and Pam, the ability to ride through town without saying a word; and to Julie Rush, an M & M factory.

I, Tami Colley, will to all the freshmen girls my ability to have fun a couple of years before falling in love. To Scott Twombly, my ability to stay in band and for our dream to come true. To Joey Blevins, a short cut to Bendena. To Barbie Karn, a book with all the answers about guys. To Kim Blevins, my ability to know the difference between the Old Mission and the Pizza Hut. To my cousin Khris, that one special guy, and to Pam all my crazy times in HHS. To Michele Peters, to hang on to what she's got and not to blow it again. To Lori Clary, my study habits, and to Diane Reichart, all our great times on basketball trips. To Kelly Blevins, my ability to have, to keep, and to be a true friend. To Julie Rush, my ability to know and to show my feelings toward certain people and to get out of Highland and start having some great times. To Steve, my ability to quit all bad habits and to show as much affection toward me as he did toward Whitsett and Ward on that one certain night. To next years basketball team and cheerleading squad, the best of luck. And last but not least, to Mr. McGee the ability to treat all students the same and not have those special ones.

I, Christina Collins, will my ability of getting along with my cousins, and other people, to Kelly Blevins. To Mrs. B., a new band since she wore out the old one. To Jim Ptomey, the answer to his question when he asks. To Sheryl and Janet, I leave a Burger King, so they can have a whopper anytime they want, and also to Sue Cluck, I leave my position on the basketball bench. And last but not least, to a certain Mike J., I leave the remembrance of all the good times we had on sneak.

I, Kevin "Dexter" Collins, do hereby will Mrs. Van Gundy common sense; to Doug Johnson, a chance to play his cards right, and a chance to get ahead in the world. To Mr. Bruns, many more years of going out of his way to help Mrs. Trant. To Mrs. Gettler, I will many thanks; and to Rodney Peters and Doug Elrod dates with certain girls from Hiawatha; and to any of Mrs. Trants students, hearing aids. And last but not least, I will to Jim Ptomey an air fresher for his truck.

I, Steve Collins, will my ability to get along with the teachers to Morton and Doug Caudle. To Mark Gilmore, the ability to wear hats all day without getting it taken away. To Angie Keller and Scarlett Trainer, to have fun in the parking lot in a certain car. To Doug Johnson, to get enough sleep in Bruns' class. I will my ability in sports to Steve Boos and Steve Peters, and my ability to settle down with one girl to Mark Gilmore. I will Brownie Points to the girls in the General Business class. And to the Juniors, I will the ability to have a nice school year next year. And to Mrs. Van Gundy for all the help she gave the Seniors, Thank You! HHS, "Have a Happy."

I, David Diveley, will Mr. Bruns' next years American History class more comfortable chairs so they can sleep more peacefully, and also the ability not to have mental fits. To Mr. Hutchcraft, a year of field trips that he wants to go on. Mr. McGee, Vo-Ag teacher, another class of hard-working seniors. To all the underclass people my ability not to take Mrs. Trants Accounting class.

I, Wayne Diveley, do hereby will the following: To Mr. Bruns, three classes with Diveley's in them. To Doc, much success in his gasahol experiments. To Mr. Hutchcraft, the ability and time to go on all the field trips he wants to. To Mrs. Trant, leashes for her pet students and a course on how to assign experience. To Mr. Ron McGee, the ability to get by without a senior class on the judging teams. To American History class an alarm clock so they can wake up after Bruns' lectures. To next years accounting class, a bigger and harder accounting book so they can have more of a challenge.

I, Bobby Edie, will to Kelly Beaman 50 ways to keep her lover. To Bill Woodruff, I will my driving ability, since he can't keep a car without wrecking it. To Sheryl and Pam, I will a way to ride around town in a car at night without hanging their heads out the window screaming at other girls.

I, William Fee, will World War III, to three senior boys, and a cradle to all you cradle-robbers. To Mr. Bruns, I will my ability to keep my nose at home. My GTO to Doug Elrod or the nearest garage. To the junior girls, I will an overgrown cork. To Mrs. Van Gundy, I will a copy of her own personal yearbook. To all those seniors, my ability to keep from losing my class ring.

I, James Garner, being of half sound mind and body, hereby will the following: To Mr. Hutchcraft, all my extra long-legged pants and a field trip to Kennedy Space Center. To Mr. Bruns, my book on How To Make Your Speeches More Exciting, by I. M. Drowsy. To Mr. Heinrich, a new bench lift club, since ours never made it over 150 pounds; to Shombi, Kizer, and Bozo, all of Mark, Mike, and Jeff's toys, so they can stay occupied during class, and to anyone who can handle a beast, I will a picture of my Chevy Six-Banger.

I, Angie Koelliker, leave the following to: Kim Blevins, A U-haul so she can be sure to get all of her clothes home from our house; Brian Windmeyer, I leave my lunch ticket so he can be sure to get enough to eat for himself and the other freshmen boys; Kelly Blevins, I will a movie projector, so instead of telling people about the Old Mission on Saturday nights, she can just show them; Mr. McGee, I will the ability to keep the next year's journalism class out of his urber cement; Joey Blevins, I will the ability to look at a girl without falling in love; and to Janet and Julie, I will the ability to tell time so they can be sure to get in on time.

I, Mark Lackey, will Mr. Hutchcraft a bowling alley, so he can hold his own tournament. To Mrs. Trant, a more advanced accounting book, so next year's class won't be a playground. To Mr. Brownie Bruns, I will the ability not to let Mrs. Trant push him around. To the sophomore boys, I will my machine gun and hand grenades, so they can blow each other up. My Brownies, to anyone who can live up to them. I will all of my problems to Mrs. Gettler. Last but not least, I will my spectacular football talents to Todd Wegener.

I, Steve McKay, being of sound mind and body, hereby will Coach Heinrich all the freshmen he needs for next years starting A-team. To next years freshmen I will my total of one brownie to divide between them. To Coach Bruns, I will the ability to get a person's name right when turning it into the paper, and to Scott Twombly, I will a color picture of a full moon over Hiawatha.

I, Terry Mooney, will Steve Peters, my ability to go hand fishing without getting his finger skinned. To Mr. Bruns, I will a muzzle. I will Julie Rush my old alternator in my car so we won't have to walk again. To Mr. McGee, a pair of hedgetrimmers to cut his fingernails.

I, Jim Ptomey, will Mr. McGee my Stetson, so he will have something to wear when the seniors wear theirs next year. To Billy Jensen, I will a joke book, so he will have something to laugh at; and to Candy Walton, a date that she has always wanted. To Frederick J., I will all my soul music so it will make him feel at home, and some money so he can buy his date's dinner instead of her buying it for him. To Joey Blevins, I will a crowbar so he can get certain things undone easily, and also, my great basketball ability so he can start two games instead of one, and then set on the bench the rest of the year. I will all my 82 shirts to the freshmen girls, and my Farrah Fawcett shirt to Mr. Hutchcraft so he can wear it when he's out scooping snow, because it seems he doesn't have a shirt of his own. I will my ability to make a mistake while playing basketball and get taken out to set on the bench to Matt Furhman; and a net to Suzie Kinkead so she can catch her pink butterflies. Last but not least, my ability to keep my class ring for at least five months instead of two weeks, to Dexter.

I, Jeff Renkel, will next year's accounting class a new teacher, so maybe they will have to do something besides sit around all day. To Mr. Hutchcraft, I will some superglue to use on his desk so maybe it will quit sliding across the floor due to his terribly unlevel floors. To Mr. Bruns, I will the ability not to go spastic whenever a student asks him a question. And I will all the sophomore boys the ability to live up to their four senior idols.

I, Alan Reyer, will my nickname "Shorty" to anyone who deserves it; and to Bill Woodruff, a car that will get you there and back. To my sister Kandi, the ability to go out and not get into trouble.

I, Mike Rush, will Mr. Bruns, his own T.V. show so he can inform everyone about what is going on at HHS. To Mr. Hutchcraft's uneven floor, seatbelts for his chairs so that the students won't be sliding out of their chairs. I will my football throwing ability to Matt Furhman, so he can throw the ball instead of pitching it. To the sophomore boys, I give my guns and ammo so they can have something to play with. To certain girls, I will a diary of Kelly Blevins so they can keep up with her life.

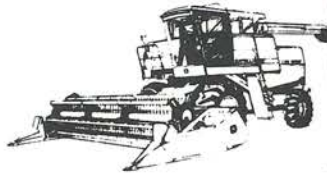

I, Jamie Scott, will to next year's majorette my ability to bite my tongue while leading the band, because nobody listens to you anyway. My ability to not run other people off the road to Wayne Simmons. My ability not to play mother to my brother to Lori Clary. To my sister Tina, I will my ability to have a blast all four years in high school, and my eyes, so she can keep an eye on things. To Grant, I will my history book so he will concentrate on his grades instead of what is going on at the college. And to next year's journalism class, I will a typewriter, so that they don't have to use the one in the office and be accused of eavesdropping.

I, Cindy Simpson, hereby will to Ellie Lentz the ability to sing; and to Bill Woodruff, the ability to drive. I will to Doug Caudle, the ability to shut his big mouth; and to Scarlett Trainer, a room with the number 12 on it. And last but not least, to David Alfrey, the ability to stay in school one whole day.

I, Randy Simpson, will to Jim Coffey, the ability to pass every class he needs to pass.

I, Candy Walton, will Julie Rush the ability of knowing where all of her loved ones are, so they won't all end up at the same place at the same time. To my cousin Suzie Kinkead, I leave a can of vampire repellent; and to Kristee Walton, a certain dark haired guy.
