SENIORS
SENIOR MEMORIES

Our first year in high school was the last for walking down the big hill to the trailers. Every step was filled with fear. Although we were unfamiliar with our new surroundings, we quickly adjusted. Of course the Seniors tried to help by initiating us as a welcome. Our Freshman class welcomed Karen Beck, Matt Fuhrman, Nancy Simmons, and Doug Elrod, and bid farewell to Scott Davis, Darle Watson, Barry Sampson, and Teresa Rhyme. Our class officers were Mark Twombly, president; Matt Fuhrman, vice-president; Nanette Taylor, treasurer; and Joy Jeffer, secretary. Janet Cluck and Steve Twombly were representatives. Selling M&M’s and a bake sale were our money making projects.

Our Sophomore year was in the new high school. We elected Steve Twombly, president; Janet Cluck, vice-president; Pam Dunn, secretary; and Mark Twombly, treasurer. Our stuco representatives were Julie Rusk and Matt Fuhrman. Sheryl Matthias was sergeant-at-arms. We said “Hello” to Doug Johnson, Shelly Delanty, Larry Baker, Bob Harvill, Rodney Peters, and Kim Simpson. We said “Goodbye” to Larry Baker, Shelly Delanty, and Dean McVicker. Money making projects included cleaning up and painting around Doug Miller’s, a bake sale, shoveling snow, and selling Tom Watt kits. Our car wash for Prom was rained out.

We were excited our Junior year with thoughts of Prom and class rings. We elected David Ukena, president and Matt Fuhrman, vice-president. France Hamilton was our secretary, and Barbie Karn was treasurer. Mark Twombly and Shelly Gomula were stuco representatives. Steve Peters was sergeant-at-arms. Our class gained Bill Woodruff, and lost Scott Sisk, David Alfrey, Bob Harvill, Steve Peters, and Doug Johnson. Our money making projects were taking care of the concession stand during ball games and a school play. We hosted the 1979 Junior-Senior Prom. We picked “Save A Space for Rainbows and Dreams” for our theme. We decorated the Hiawatha Elks Club in red and white for the banquet. We chose rainbow colors for the dance at the high school. Everyone enjoyed the music played by “Liquid Fire.” We selected blue and silver for our class colors with the blue carnation as our class flower. Our motto is, “From Dreams We Carve Our Destiny.”

We finally made it to our Senior year. We had one eventful week of initiating the Freshmen. On Friday, September 31, we held the Initiation Dance and Yearbook Signing Party. Jim Ptoomey did a good job providing music. Our president, Janet Cluck, was the announcer for the dance. Nanette Taylor was vice-president; Mark Twombly was secretary; and Joyce Dickerson was treasurer. Dianna Bell and Doug Elrod were stuco representatives. We welcomed Sheila Shat second semester. We sold magazine and music subscriptions and had a turkey raffle to raise money. The Juniors hosted us for the 1980 Junior-Senior Prom on May 3. Their theme was “From Dreams We Carve Our Destiny.” We left the next week on the 8th for Senior Sneak at the Ozarks and returned home on the 15th. We wish to leave HHS with the hope of memories such as we have had.
looking down the big hill to the north we were unfamiliar with our names. The Seniors tried to help by welcoming Karen Beck, Matt Smith and bid farewell to Scott Davis, and Fred Smith. Our class officers were Mark Twombly, president; Nanette Taylor, treasurer; and Steve Twombly were representatives from the money making projects.

We elected Steve Twombly, vice president, and Mark Twombly, secretary; and Mark Twombly, Mike Rush and Matt Fuhrman. We had “Hello” to Doug Johnson, James Peters, and Kim Simpson. We selected a painting around Doug Million’s house on “Watt kris. Our car wash for admission to Prom and class rings. We elected Jim Brown, vice president, France Cottman, secretary, and Mark Twombly as treasurer. Mark Twombly was sous-chef. Scott Sisk, David Alfrey, Bob Groff and money making projects were games and a school play. We chose the dance at the high school. We selected blue and white as our class colors. Our motto was “Save A Space for Rainbows”.

An eventful week of initiating the Initiation Dance and the good job providing music. Our dance was a success. Joyce Dickerson was treasurer, representatives. We welcomed new names and music subscriptions and hosted us for the 1960 Junior-Junior Proms. We Carve Our Destiny into the Ozarks and HS with the hope of memories.

DREAMER

Hello, there.
Hey, thinker!
Hey, Dreamer!
What's happening?
What do you see
In your mind,
In your imaginary world?
Is it the same as you hoped
It would be?
Is it different?
Hey, do you hear me?
Are you listening?
Or are you too deep
In your imaginary world,
That you can't understand
What the real world
Is telling you?

And, as the trumpet blowing
Chase the dreams of men,
As the dawn glowing
The stars that left unlit.

Scatter it, scatter it!

SUNSET

All the days I thought could never end are gone.
All the days that seemed so far away have passed.
All the loves I thought would last forever
have died.
So many happy moments
are now happy memories.
But . . . I still have tomorrows filled with the hope of things to come,
and although I watch
the sun set now,
i know
it will rise again.

A STORMY THOUGHT

Hearing the storm,
Watching the rain,
Thinking of you,
Feeling the pain.

I was so young,
Unable to think,
Thirsty for love,
And you let me drink.

Trusting in you,
I gave you myself,
Just when I found love,
You found someone else.

My dream: clouded over
By enemies, the storm
The sun kept on falling
And closed out my eyes.

My pride had been hurt
And my heart was scarred.
"But next time," I vowed,
I won't fall so hard,"

STOMPIN' GROUND

On September 28, 1979, Highland played Troy- the big rivalry. The Highland Bluetsreaks had won the big rivalry games for the past ten years. The game, which was played at Troy, was also Troy's Homecoming. This made our football team even more ready to play the Troy Trojans. Even though the newspapers said it was the Regional Game of the Week, it didn't scare the Highland Bluetsreaks. It prepared Highland even more. (People would think with it being Troy's Homecoming, bigger liners, and the home field, it would give Troy the advantage!) But it didn't prove to be. Highland went into the game with victory in their hearts. For the first three quarters, it was a well played defensive game, until in the fourth quarter Bill Peters set up the game's only score. Then our quarterback, John Reichart, rambled over the two yards to score six points for the Bluetsreaks. The extra point conversion attempt by Mark Twombly failed, but Highland went home with a victory! Half of the estimated 1800 people attending the game went home with a victory which was well deserved.

HOLD FAST YOUR DREAMS

Hold fast your dreams
Though your heart may seem to sink.
When hours seem long and days seem short.
When time seems slow and life seems bare.

Hold fast your dreams
Though your soul may seem to freeze.
When coldness seems to freeze your strength.
When winter seems to come on you.

Hold fast your dreams
Though your limbs may seem to fail.
When strength seems to fail and life seems dead.
When hope seems to fade and life seems lost.

Hold fast your dreams
Though your life may seem to end.
When death seems to end and life seems over.
When tears seem to flow and life seems lost.

Let wish and magic work at will on you.
In sorrow blind to sorrow, in silence deaf to silence.
In darkness see the light.
Though we all know that we must die,
Yet you and I
May walk with glee and be Even now at home in immortality.

— Lucile Deitzell
AFTER GLOW

I'd like the memory of me to be a happy one.
I'd like to leave an afterglow of smiles when life is done.

I'd like to leave an echo
   whispering softly down the ways,
Of happy times and laughing times
   and bright and sunny days.

I'd like the tears of those who grieve,
   to dry before the sun
Of happy memories that I leave
   When life is done.

TRY SMILING

When the weather suits you not,
Try smiling.
When your coffee isn't hot,
Try smiling.
When your neighbors don't do right,
Try smiling.
If your relatives all fight,
Try smiling.
It makes 'em think it's right —
Another reason to —
Just smiling.

It won't help in the end,
But it makes them wonder —
Just smiling.
And it's good for your sight.
Brightens up a gloomy place.
Then, it sort of - rette your face —
Just smiling.

AGE DREAMS AGAIN

The sun has hung her golden tubes
Across the western sky;
The flowers fold their petals close
To keep them safe and dry.
The fireflies light their tiny lamps.
The crickets sing with mirth;
As evening shadows softly steal
Across the dreamy earth.
Love lingers in the shadowed lane
And in the sunset’s glow;
Age dreams again of childhood days
And scenes of long ago.

I SHALL NOT PASS THIS WAY AGAIN

Through this toilsome world, alas!
Once and only once I pass;
If a kindness I may show,
If a good deed I may do
To a suffering fellow man.
Let me do it while I can.
No delay, for it is plain
I shall not pass this way again.

THE COUNTRY, FAITH
Here in the country's heart
Where the grass is green,
Life is the simple, sweet life
As it ever hath been.

Trust in God still lives,
And the bell at morn
Peals with a thought of God
Over the rising corn.

God comes down in the rain,
And the crop grows tall —
This is the country faith,
And the best of all.

Miss Highland presented a piano solo entitled “Unsospiro” by Hungarian composer Franz Liszt. As an extra effect, Joy painted scenery and wore a Hungarian gypsy costume of her own design and making. The paintings which surrounded the piano, depicted Hungarian gypsy life.
