What ARE you doing?

Ain't I sweet?

Rob my back and win my heart.

The Mars Brothers.

Britt's best side.

I am a baby.

Facelifts are really great!

This foreign class gets me.

Is this pose OK?

Leigh Ann's idea of style.

See what they put me in here with?

Think you'd want to eat here?
See what they put me in here with?

All for one, and one for all.

Think you'd want to eat here?

We want some girls!

Now class pay attention!

Volleyball

Highland High School participated in Volleyball this year for the first time. The season was one of learning for everyone involved, and although the team won no matches, several observers and participants commented that the HHS girls were the best first-year players they had seen.

Coach Janet Rudder felt the girls worked hard and built a good foundation for future volleyball season.

Mr. Morlock's a fidgety, nervous, grouchy old goat who doesn't like anything but money, won't let his family do anything; always gripes about his pains and aches, feeds with everyone and he won't let daughter Mary, 20, become engaged to Joe Lannon because Joe's papa is poor. So when Joe's papa, Luigi, comes over to plead his son's case, he's practically booted out of the house. Right here the two old fellows start a feud that puts the Hattfield-McCoy fracas to shame. Because of his bad heart, Luigi keks out. The feud appears over. All is lost.

But whoa up! Hold the phone! Luigi gets permission to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock until he gives his permission for the wedding. Poor Mr. Morlock. Can't eat; can't sleep. His family thinks he's nuts. He takes to many sleeping pills, then he too kicks the bucket. Lucifer, the roundeye of lost souls from "down-below" drops in-pitchfork and all-to take Mr. Morlock to the lower regions. He watches things at home. Nothing has changed. No one misses him. Mary prepares for her wedding; daughter Jessica, 13, prepares to start her wrestling career; Mother Morlock is smiling again and family doctor Brown, holds her hand and hints at matrimony. Mr. Morlock realizes what a heel he's been. The maid, Mildred, awakens him. It was all a dream.
"Oh, no you don't. I've seen guys like you."

"Mr. Morlock, sir, I'm Luigi Lancomi."

"I said he ain't seein' nobody."

"My Joe ainna norta passin'."

That who doesn't like anything but business about his pains and aches, feeds his passion. He's been to Joe Lancomi because he's over to plead his son's case, he's in to appeal. He's over to say that he's too old for the job. The feud is too strong to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock. Poor Mr. Morlock. Can't eat; can't sleep; they're all. Then he too kicks the dust depression. It takes in pitchfork and aches and pains and toil. Nothing has happened since she was last seen. Daughter Jessica, 13, is smiling again and family doctor. Morlock realizes what a fool he's been.

Kayette Mother-Daughter Tea

Over The Rainbow

On May 4 the Highland Sophomore Kayettes presented the annual Mother-Daughter Tea. This year's theme was "Over the Rainbow." The evening's entertainment included vocal and instrumental music, dramatic interpretation, and, of course, the latest fashions. Under Mrs. Bauer's guidance, the 1982 Mother-Daughter Tea was an enjoyable voyage "down the Yellow Brick Road."

Judy and Kelly play "Tea for Two."

The welcome ... and the response.

Tina Scott, Highland's Jr. Miss candidate, becomes Eliza Doolittle.

Leigh Ann sings a song from "Pistin's Rainbow."

... and more fashionable.

Senior Sneak

Early on May 9 a bedraggled group of 30 seniors left for Kaltran Lodge at Osage Beach, Missouri. While they were at Osage Beach the seniors swam, went skiing, saw the Ozark Opry, rode go-carts, bumper cars, and the sky slide, and totally enjoyed the sunny 80 degree weather. They were sponsored by Millie Gettler and Janet Rodder, and Gary Kooliker drove the bus.

When the group returned on May 12 they were tired, happy, and very sunburned, but all had lots of memories of a great Senior Sneak!
There they go!

Get 'em, Julie!

Those are Seniors?

Hard to be serious

Even watching bumper cars is fun!

Thrilling!

Where's the starter?

Highland takes over the pool, too.

Get 'em, Dana!

What's the matter, Lisa?

"How do you there?"

And he drove the bus!

Smile, Curt.

Kim!

Hello!

Where's the starter?

Hard to be serious, is it?

Hey ... decent!

Careful, Ronnie!
