Life is an exact progress, governed by inflexible laws. Infections in the bloodstream destroy our health; poisonous thoughts make mental cases out of us; spiritual mistakes wreck all happiness, and lack of education may destroy us on the top levels of life.

Your opportunity for education gives you advantages over others that do not want or seem to care for future preparations.

The way may be difficult and strict, but it leads to life. That is the way all great ones have arrived. No shortcuts, alibis, or evasions.

J. S. Schmucker, Superintendent.

The Highland Harriers ran in 6 regular season medal meets, placing either 3rd or 4th as a team in each meet. We won our only dual meet. The Blue-streaks placed 4th in the Regional, with Rick Hopp qualifying for State. We were tremendously improved over last year in both the team placings and the individual time. We enthusiastically await next year.

"Off the Book"

Without the knowledge of her family, Mrs. Gilman, for a number of months in writing, during her spare time, "The Art of Ruling Your Household"—most amusing, no doubt. To her amazement, the book was published.

How Mrs. Gilman's rise to fame affected her family, particularly her dear husband, Howard Elliott, was the subject of many laughs. Gilda's romance with handsome Howard, the avocation of Mrs. Willis, wife of Mr. Gilman's best friend, proved to be laughter-filled acts.

"Well this is the biggest surprise of my life."

48
Without the knowledge of her family, Mrs. Gilman had spent a number of months in writing, during her spare time, a book called "The Art of Raising Your Household"—months of wrestled thinking, no doubt. To her amazement, the book was accepted for publication.

How Mrs. Gilman's rise to fame affected her husband; Gilda's proposed operatic training under the gushy vocal teacher, Madame Benziga; Gilda's romance with handsome Howard Elliot; and the arrogance of Mrs. Willis, wife of Mr. Gilman's boss; is told in three laughter-filled acts.

Lee, his Uncle—Ted Collins
Grandmother—Laura Cordey
Helen Johnson, childhood sweetheart—Marilyn White
Student Director—Sue Crabtree

Not realizing his family's sacrifices to make him a doctor, Jimmy has grown away from them. But the threat of an epidemic in his hometown awakens him to the real meaning of the title "Doctor" and to a belated appreciation of his loyal, loving family.

"No greater love hath a man than this that he lay down his life for a friend."

"This isn't home to him anymore. It's just an unpleasant place he thinks it's his duty to come home to."

"Then why did you come back?"

"Just for a moment, please Jim."

"I can't tell you lad, it all comes down to think the duty of a real doctor is."

"The Neighbors"

by Zona Gale

Grandma (Laura Corder) is a very old and wise lady who is living with a distant relative, Diantha Abel (Sue Crabtree). Diantha's daughter Inez (Ellen Miller) is a charming young girl who has a bashful suitor Peter (DeWayne Dunn). Mrs. Moran (Charlene Edie) suffers from many imaginary ailments. Mrs. Trot (Anne Ukena) is a perfect housekeeper. Ezra Williams (Veli Shaffer) is an irascible next-door neighbor. Carrie Elsworth (Jennette Jeschke) is a poor little widow who needs help—and gets it—from her neighbors.

10 students qualified for membership in Quill & Scroll, the International Honorary Society for High School Journalists. The abilities they have displayed promise much for their future whether or not they choose to enter the profession of journalism or writing. The badge of Quill & Scroll Society is symbolic of the painstaking efforts of the scribes of old to record the events and thoughts of their time in permanent form. We of today owe the same duty to posterity. Let the Quill represent in your hands the meticulous care which must be put forth to turn thoughts into proper language; let the Scroll represent the permanent quality of good writing.

FAREWELL

Four years is a long time
—too long to forget.
We look around and ask
—where did it go?
We worked, we played
—but for four years?
Then we look the other way
—into tomorrow.
Suddenly we're not so tall
as we thought we were
And not so smart.
But we find that somehow
We learned a decisive lesson at Highland, something we wouldn't have had without the teachers and administration,
without our fellow students
—a direction into that uncertain tomorrow.
It can never be so dark again
Though the world may change and the times change
and we change.
