THE STREAK

PUBLISHED BY YEARBOOK STAFF OF THE

CLASS OF "76"
TO A GREAT LADY

There is silence now on her hilltop high,
Where she stood so proudly against the sky.

Her colors now faded, which were bright blue and white;
Her walls now are empty, with memories held tight.
Gutted by smoke, where flames whipped her side.
Yet, those who have known her still love her with pride.

Some day I know, with our faith, we will find —
She will live once again with the past all behind.
For nothing's too great for those who have will,
And again she will stand on her proud high top hill.

By Melva Blakley
HIGH.
AT THE SKY.
BRIGHT BLUE AND WHITE.
MORRIS HELD TIGHT.
HIPPED HER SIDE.
WE WILL FIND —
PAST ALL BEHIND.
WHO HAVE WILL.
PROUD HIGH TOP HILL.
BY MELVA BLAKLEY

Sunrise,...symbol of a new beginning.

One sunrise can mark the beginning of a new day, a new season, even a new era. The sky is bright, the sun is shining, and life begins anew. It is the beginning of a new era for the nation, of a new era for the world.

First, let us consider the dawn of a new era for the world. Second, let us consider the dawn of a new era for our society.

With the dawn of August, 1929, everything changes.

We must pledge in our hearts and minds to make the best of this new era. We must do everything in our power to make this the beginning of something good.

Yellow snow—yum, yum.

Hope they got the hair fixed.

You're goofy today!

1976 SENIORS' CLASS WILL

I. PATTI BATCHELDER, will my soft-spoken personality to Ruth Caudill, my innocent look to Kevin Collins, my GREAT time on Sneed to all the "single" girls of "77", and to Mr. Bros, I will a pair of Mickey Mouse ears to pick up all the gossip.

II. VANETTA JAYNE BLEVINS, will to my dear sister, John, my place on the honor roll, to Bob McCuddy, I will my dear sister, John. To Anita Collins, I will my haircuts, to keep her hair out of her eyes during basketball games, and to Ted Taylor I will everything I have that is purple and white with the letter K, S, R, platterd on them.

III. CAROL COLE, will my ability to shop brick, practice and still be able to keep up with the other girls to the underclassmen, a pair of peep shoes and tint cap for steam in Mrs. Ferguson when she has her stingling attack, and to Rocky Stu Redeck, a heavy-duty strong-hold siper so he can practice what he preaches and shut-up! And, to Mrs. Cotter, all the students in her first hour classes to come in late with confused excuses, and last but least, I will my ability to go on Sneed and have a great time and stay out of trouble to all the underclassmen.

IV. KENNETH BAY COLLY, will my ability to go with someone I'm not supposed to, to Jamie Scott and Robert Jeffers, my basketball skills to Anita Collins and Ruth Caudill and my basketball ability toTammi Coller, Candy Walton, and Chris Collins.

V. JAMES COLLINS, will my ability to get along with the coaches to the 1975-76 running, since they have a large store of "Brandale Point", I will my ability to get out of school early to Randy Fee and Tim Rush, and my ability to settle down with mom, gone to most of the girls in the 1976 graduating class.

VI. LARRY DIVELEY, will my ability to use up a pad of ordinary sheets to Mr. Cauth and Mr. Terry, and to Mr. Bros a book of knowledge, so he definitely will have everything.

VII. AUVIN DRAKE, will all my intelligence and my charming way with the girls to my cousin, and give my ability to control my emotions behind the steering wheel to Paul Rush and Dan Whistler.

VIII. MIKE HOET, will my ability to eat without gaining weight to the many high school girls who can't, my athletic abilities to Bamhler, a CRASH course in basketball driving to Mr. McCue, and a pair of flopping shoes to Mr. Huntschraft to stay out of high water.

IX. LISA GIMORE, will Jennifer Hallows my outstanding ability to cook and to Rocky Redeck, my kitchen to all living things both large and small. To Patti Peters, I will my ever enduring patience with Mr. McCue.

X. MELODY HOPPER, will my ability to keep out of trouble during school to Terri Hopper, all my times with Mrs. Trent to Ruth Caudill; to Randy Ivory and Randy Simpson I will my ability to barely pass Mr. Bros' tests.

XI. PAT HOWERTON, will my ugly finder to Mr. McCue for obvious reasons, and my cool, collected, sophisticated personality to Tim Hake, Rocky Redeck and Mr. Collins, and last, but least, I will Tim Rush absolutely nothing.

XII. BUCKY JESCHKE, being of partially sound mind, do hereby will my red hair to Mr. McCue to give him the more "complete look", my ability not to wear to Rocky Redeck and all the batting in the world to Tim Rush so he can keep out of trouble.

XIII. VICTOR FEE, will Renita Caudle a cork, Tim Hake my spot on Hubbard's Square and to Mr. Bros I will a new set of durable pockets and my ability to play pool.

XIV. BONNIE JONES, will my hopping abilities to Renita Caudle, and a cork gun for rabbit season. I will my Office Practice abilities to Barbara Caudle and with her luck, she'll need it. To Mrs. Bason, I will my carpet garden for in Room 600, class and last of all I leave a summer recuperation period to Mr. Glynn after driving him crazy the year around.

XV. GEORGE WAYNE KARN, will my ability to achieve 4 years of football practices with Mr. Bros to Dean Chane and Kenny Swarr, my senior basketball season with Mr. Cowens to anyone with bad knees, and to all 1966 students my ability to make it 4 bad years with the faculty.

XVI. GREG KOEHLER, being of sound mind, do hereby will the following to Jewell Hadley, my student director position. To Carmen Chany my good books and investability to girls, because, as we all know he has some of the above mentioned. I will Kent Holder a certain basement with a special blonde-hair creature, to Mr. McCue I will a part of my naturally curlly hair so that when he's fishing, the glare of his forehead won't scare away the fish.

XVII. KEVIN LACKEY, will my last name to Anita Collins, my ability NOT to be used by our Highland girls to these poor, innocent guys that have to go through school being teased. To Doc Collies a student-like punching bag something like David Blakely or Chris Clark to punch on whenever he gets mad instead of demolishing my newly interior decorated mobile homes.

I. MARCI MCGEE, will to those that take Office next year, my ability to throw successful parties. I'll like to will Mr. Bros back to the time of "East of the West" since he learned more from that class than I did, and myself back to the senior trip to a Lodge.

II. TOAD OLIVER-MELLOWAY, will Pollock a "m'charger" to charm his pet in the Hill Top, my pl arong the "White Cloud Clouds" to Mel because he's hitch haku's so BAD! I will Warnock like to Scott "Machine Gun Ruth" to Ring so he will have some in blowing people away and to Mr. Bros a pair of Fly Pockets.

III. JAMET REYNOLDS will David Blakely to Mrs. Troy next year's bookkeeping class, the fun I had on Terri Hopper and Sharon Landley, and to my best friend Terry, I will my ability to pass Mr. Bros class.

IV. DOUG SABBERT, will my ability to get along with Lise Gilmore to Allen Simmons, and my brother to certain hortets, with the best of luck, to Mr. P a new grading pen, since his other one westspat every time weeks, a straight jacket for Mr. Bros to Mr. Cowens as they won't hurt themselves during games, and one for Mr. Collins to wear during class and last but not least to Mary and "Peter" those rides chating chumbeldood on the dead streets of land.

V. DEBBIE SELLEERS, being of sound mind and body hereby will to J. T my charming personality and my ability to stay with only one guy a night, my ability to stay out of trouble and a 3-day vacation to anyone wants it.

and every spring you can see them heading west on wheat harvest with a bit full of cutters.

While the rest of the senior class was enjoying beautiful Lake of the Osages, JAMES COLLINS was found back home with a piece of the Rock.

LARRY DIVELEY, better known as Dibley, has given up his life of crime and devilment and has now turned to a life of passion, he can now be seen chasing a certain gold coon dog down the road.

ALVIN DRAKE after two years of farming in Highland decided that wasn't his bag and returned back to the Osage Cavern where you can see him in the corner counting water drops.

VICTOR "BRAH" FEE after three years of farming, decided to change his occupation and is now sole owner of the Dainis Company. He got tired of the same old drip, drip, drip, as he came back and married his high school sweetheart, "Shirley Ann".

Lisa Gilmore, after mothering a certain young man on harvest for 3 years, decided that wasn’t for her and took a trip back to Wayne County to get off with the cook. After 10 years she was left washing dishes.

Mike "Skinny" Holt is now working in a toothpick factory. He is the chief in charge of the no-gentlemess for a better toothpick.

Ten years after graduation, we find Melody Hopper standing on her front porch at her former school, selling the school.

Patrick "Pot" Knowlton tried to stay in Highland, but started to go limpy so he packed up and headed off to his Arkansas Timber, where she achieved good and became a forest ranger in the Timber Timber.

Bicky Pescge went off to Graceland, where she studied for her degree in ministry, but can now be found in Rome as Pope Paul’s right hand, and has long since forgotten her strip in the C Lazy Caverns.

Bonnie Jones, better known as Bunny Fi, fell deeply in love with a young buck and can now be seen sitting cut on her porch, knitting booties for all her little Bunnies.

George "Corn Cob" Kars, after being Cromwell’s right hand man for 4 years, was torn between the C Lazy Bowling Alley and Sunset Hill, so he decided to just stay in Highland and became a beer-surgeon, and he says—"the business is booming!"

Greg "Pud" Koelkiker, after being chased by a corn husk blonde and her mother, managed to lose them on his hickety-hob to take them into space. And left them there! Even though it was breaking many rules, later Greg and married his 50 year old sweetheart from the mining home.

Kevin "Licky" Lackey after finding out that farming was not for him, took off for K.U., where he stared in his own production of LICKY LACE FOR PRESIDENT. The movie showed, so he moved back to Hawaii where he is seen sweeping the floor of his dream beauty salon.

Tim Lentz after graduation, moved to Sparks and became President and Chief Promoter of Last Rent-a-Car.

long years, decides that stamp selling is what she really wants to do and is now living under the Post Office.

Doug Sareen, alias Bug, after graduation couldn’t decide whether to go to school at K.U. or K.S.U., so instead he can be seen at the White Cloud Historical Station, pumping fish.

Debbie Sellers, after successfully raising a peach orchard in Georgia, moved back to Kansas to advertise her peaches as "Debbie’s Perfect Peaches" and can be seen, with her Peach Bike, on channel 85-549.

Mike Sisk, after making millions on his commercial "Milky Ride Anything", he donates half of his fortune to the historical society and a memorial for Pardner, and investigates with the FBI in the action of searching for Pardner’s killer.
