One Day At A Time

One day at a time, Sweet Jesus! I'm only human, I'm just a woman. Help me believe in what I could be and all that I am. Show me the stairway, I have to climb; Lord, for my sake, teach me to take one day at a time. One day at a time, Sweet Jesus, that's all I'm asking from you. Just give me the strength to do every day what I have to do. Yesterday's gone, Sweet Jesus, and tomorrow may never be mine. Lord, help me today, show me the way one day at a time. Do you remember when you walked among men? Well, Jesus, you know if you're looking below, it's worse now than then. Pushin' and shovin', crowding my mind, so for my sake, teach me to take one day at a time. One day at a time, Sweet Jesus, that's all I'm asking from you. Just give me the strength to do every day what I have to do. Yesterday's gone, Sweet Jesus, and tomorrow may never be mine. Lord help me today, show me the way one day at a time.

SENIORS

History Of The Class Of 1978

The Class of 1978 entered HHS in 1974. Our freshman year began in the old high school building. There were 40 of us and we were the largest class in school at that time.

The seniors had about 4 weeks to try to tame us through initiation. The initiation party was in the gym. It was entitled "New Zoo Review" and we did all sorts of things, from eating caramel-covered onions to shaving water balloons. That was the last real initiation party.

Money-making projects our first year were bake sales, and we had a skating party.

The freshman class officers were; Randy Fee, president; Allen Simmons, vice-president; Joy Koelliker, secretary; Mary Cole, treasurer; Paul Blythe, sgt. at arms; and Yvette Cruse, STUCO.

Money-making projects that year were a Blue Rock Shoot, a Sadie Hawkins dance, bake sales, a fish fry, a car wash, and cake chances at games.

Many students left during or after that year. They were: Sandy Davis, Vinson Cruse, John Gumula, Debbie Hawkins, Robert Keller, Robert Manson, Terry Simpson, and Raymond Thomas.

Finally juniors! We had so much to do! Class officers were: JoAnn Blevins, president; David Cluck, vice president; Jane Twombly, secretary; Randy Fee, treasurer; Cathy Blevins and Tim Rush, STUCO representatives. Laura Fuhrman transferred from Midway at the beginning of the year.

To make more money we had another Blue Rock Shoot, a bake sale, a fish fry, sold Bluestreak hats, and had the concession stand at games.

During that year we lost Terri Hopper, Susan Potter, and Sharon Langley.

"Crystal Blue Persuasion" was the theme we chose for the 1977 Junior-Senior Prom held on May 7th. We rented the "Skylark" Drive-in for after the Prom. The movie was the "Seven-Ups."

We chose yellow and blue for class colors and the yellow tea rose for class flower. Our class motto was "Make Life Go In Your Direction."

The class officers of the mighty 1978 seniors are: JoAnn Blevins, president; Yvette Cruse, vice president; Tim Rush, treasurer; Randy Koelliker, secretary; and Mary Potter and Michelle Matthias, STUCO representatives.

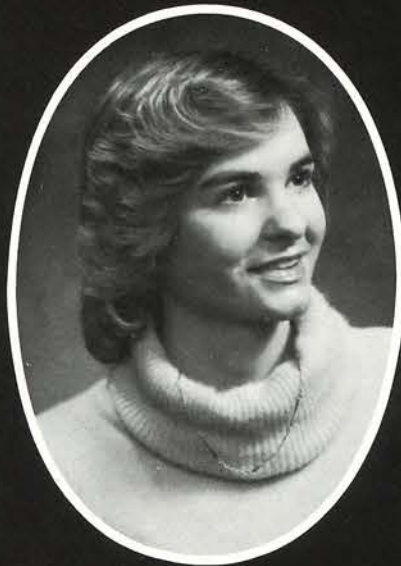

Money-making projects were selling magazines, more Streak hats, and Bluestreak mugs.

For our senior trip we went to the Ozarks. We returned home from our trip to enjoy the Junior-Senior Prom and Banquet on April 29th. The juniors put on a great Prom. The theme was "The Journey Onward." We really enjoyed the band "Liquid Fire."

Our senior sponsors, Millie Gettler and Wayne Cromwell, accompanied us on Senior Sneak.

Wills

I, Curt Beaman, will all my good times to my sister to raise as much heck as I did. I will Dorothy, Terry Whitsell, a pair of boxing gloves for every time he gets in a fight with Terry Mooney. I will Angie Keller two more years of good luck with the boys.

I David Blakley, will God's gift of eternal life to anyone who wants it. To Jim Coffey, I will his own coffey corporation, and to Jan Dittmore I will George Brett to have and to hold.

I, Cathy Blevins, will my nickname "Peter" to Kathryn Neibling. I will my infected kidneys to David Alfrey since he drank his away. And to Terry Whitsell, I will the kiss he's been waiting for.

I, JoAnn Blevins, will Mr. Bruns the ability to let anyone out of class without asking why, Mr. McGee a lesson on running the machines in the office without doing something wrong, Kelly Beaman and Joni Davis the ability to sew one seam without asking how every time, and to Mrs. Trant another good Office Practice class next year so they can have more parties.

I, Don Boos, will my car and my good times to Jim Boos and Kelly Beaman, and also the ability to go out and have a good time and not get stopped by the cops to Julie Rush. Pam Dunn to keep her mouth closed, and to Mrs. Trant an extra supply of Brownies for her next year's accounting class.

I, Chris L. Clark, will my ability not to skip school to Jim Coffey. I will a muzzle to Pam Dunn to keep her mouth closed, and to Mrs. Trant a good class of accounting students next year.

I, Gordon Clary, will an extra large and heavy dirty clothe spin to Pam Dunn to keep her mouth shut awhile. To Mrs. Trant another couple of brownies for her next year's accounting class. And to Grant, I will my ability to be 4 years in high school without getting into trouble once.

I, David Cluck, will Joey Blevins my ability to cause trouble but not get into trouble, walking off the bench to anyone who gets suckered out of a starting position in basketball, and to Angie, my ability to not go to school half of the time my senior year.

I, Jerry Coffey, will my book on how to avoid flunking class to the school library titled "Do Exactly As I Didn't Do," my ability to spit tobacco juice 18 ft. to Theodore Hutchcraft. And to Reverend Blakley, my ability to cuss like a mule skinner in tight situations. Lastly, all my fine luck to David Alfrey — it's the only vengeance I can think of.

I, Mary Cole, hereby will my ability to pass Constitution to any sucker that has to take it. I will my ability to have a good time to anyone who can live up to it. And last, but not least, I will Tami Colley the patience to survive one more year in school.

I, Yvette Cruse, will all my fun during high school to Beccy, Ellie, and Rhonda. To Mr. Bruns and the next year's basketball team, I will a great season with fewer rip-offs, and to all the teachers, I will another student like me who can be a little onery and also get some work done at the same time.

I, Vernon "Lil' Abner" Dickerson, being of sound mind and whatever, do bequeath the following: To Bob Harvill, I leave my elbows so next year he can be the terror of the courts; to Mr. McGee, I leave a bit of hair to help cover the wide open space on the top of his head; to next year's Cross Country team, I will my running abilities and a van to get to meets ... and whatever. And Halloween night to all debt payers.

I, Karen Dively, will my ability to be in high school four years and grow $\frac{1}{4}$ of an inch to Barbie Karn, Dean Diveley, and Gordon Clary, and my experiences in accounting to David and Wayne Diveley in hopes they will have a better year than I did.

I, Lana Elrod, being of sound mind and staggering walk, will my ability to drink ... milk to Deb, Bunzy, and to my cousin Doug. Also to Yvette, Sally, Laura, and Debbie, I will my mystical talent to make the moon shine whenever I want it to. I will my ability to stay home more than at school and still pass to all the underclassmen. To Mr. Bruns, I will somebody just like me next year so he'll have someone who'll yell back. To Mr. Hutchcraft, I will another pair of hands since his own don't seem to be enough. And last, to Tami, a life of happiness.

I, Randy Fee, will my before-the-game tradition to David Blakley so he'll have a reason for his turned-up nose. And I will my life-time guaranteed football shoes to David Alfrey so he'll at least have a little speedF

I, Laura Fuhrman, will to my little brother, Matthew, my ability to do very little and get a lot of rewards. To my cousin, Joni, a life-time supply of confidence for basketball. An last, but not least, to Amy Crabtree, alias "Snodgrass," another person to bug her as I did. To Mrs. Trant, another accounting class with only five in it. And to "Doc," a lifetime assistant for his lab.

I, Kenny Jenkins, will to Mrs. Gettler a set of false teeth so she can chew other people out, to Mark Gilmore, my ability not to make out with the women of Highland, to Cromwell, I will my ability to catch all the big fish, and to Terry Mooney, I will my ability not to get caught by the cops.

I, Debbie Karn, will a great season to next year's basketball team, and to Mrs. Gettler and Mrs. Trant, a year's supply of bulletin boards. To Sally, I will my ability to meet someone on Sneak who I am able to see again when I come back home.

I, Joy Koelliker, will Tami Colley a pair of sneakers for her continued getting by with sneaking around, and even better times in her white cougar. To Curt Beaman, my ability to drive or even ride in a car without wrecking it, and to Jamie Scott the ability to get in on time and not get grounded for it. To Mrs. Trant, to have an office practice class next year as good as this year's class.

I, Randy Koelliker, do hereby will James Allen Pto-mey my life size Farrah Fawcett blow-up doll. And to my dear friend, Dexter Collins, my amazing ability to run but keep my hair neat. To Randy Fee, a bottle of scratch remover for his new car when "do-do" starts to drive it to the 1st grade.

I, Michelle Matthias, of the Great Class of '78," will to my sister, Sheryl, my sound disposition and basketball ability. To DAD (Mr. Bruns), I will four more daughters to take with him to games, and to Julie Rush ... Mr. Bruns. Also I will next year's basketball team lots-o-luck.

I, Patti Jo Olivetti, do hereby bequeath the following: To Shelly Delanty, the big mouth award; my hair styles to Amy Crabtree; and my kind heart to the Junior Class girls. I leave my ability to make people laugh to Jamie Scott, I will Chris Collins the man of her dreams, and a blow-out to Penny Rhodd. To Cindy Simpson, a year's supply of Rubber Duckies, and a set of bug eyes to Joy Jeffers ... One last thing, I want to thank you all.

I, Mary Potter, will a belt to David "Morton" Alfrey so we don't have to look at his face all the time. I also will a bottle of aspirin to the next year's Yearbook staff, and if they're smart, they will take them all at once.

I, Terry Reyer, of decent mind, will Alan my ability to leave school and not get in trouble.

I, Tim Rush, hereby will my nickname "Froglips" to no one, and I will my friends and enemies absolutely nothing. The reason I didn't will anybody anything is because I'm too young to give up anything.

Tony Schneider's Will of Ages: I will Mooney someone to beat up, Whitsell a brain, Mr. McGee, a lock-et of my hair, Bunzy and Sheryl, all my empty bottles of Canadian Mist, and Jim Bob Ward, my ability to get tickets.

I, Allen Simmons, will all my memories of the old International, and my position on the football team to Steve Peters, to Steve Twombly, my great ability to drive, since Steve can't see over the steering wheel, and to anyone, all the times that Dave Cluck and I have skipped school.

I, Danny Simmons, will to Mr. McGee a lifetime supply of rubbing compound for his head so he'll never have another dull moment, to Mr. Cromwell, a how-to-coach-basketball book so maybe he might have a winning season one of these years, my ability to make it through four years of high school without any brownie points to my sister, Judy, Doug Johnson, and Jim Ptomey, and to Khris Stahl, a storeroom to use when a certain Senior comes back to school to visit.

I, Jane Twombly, will to Elizabeth Farley my nickname "Farrah Fawcett" in hopes that she can live up to it as I did, my ability to tolerate a whole year of accounting to anyone dumb enough to take it, and my ability to have fun and not cause trouble to Steve Twombly and Matt Fuhrman.

I, Kenny Tilton, being a member of the Great Class of '78, will Toney Davis and Shelly Delanty a volume of dirty joke books so they can argue with each other again next year, to Mrs. Gettler, I will a steel cage to put around her desk so nobody will bother her things, my ability to be normal to Terry Whitsell, to Mr. Graeff a used Stanley tape measure since his always seems to be flying apart, and finally to Mr. Bruns, I will all the Supreme Court cases because he knows what he can do with them.

I, Sally Ukena, will Mr. Hutchcraft my pair of knee-length boots so he can wear them with his pants and have a complete gaucho outfit, my Mae West imitation to Mrs. Gettler, my sweet little brother, Corny, to anyone who can stand him, and my red and blue striped K.S.U. shirt to anyone who can't decide between K.U. and K-State.

I, Jim Bob Ward, of mentally ill mind, will Terry "Dorothy" Whitsell a new master, Gooney, a punching bag with Mrs. Trant's picture on it, Grizz Schneider, a leash for Gooney and a certain blonde WALNUT, Morton, my great driving ability, Sisk, to love thy neighbor, and the ability not to get caught to Vince, Dean, a cure for muffler burns ... a Muzzle, and to the teachers, all the "L" I gave them and more, to Janet, a front row seat to my funeral, and to Michele, something to holler and yell so I'll be good, sweet, and innocent.

Prophecies

CURT "TUBY" BEAMAN finally spread himself so thin between college and high school that it was beginning to run him down. He tried Geritol, One-A-Day, and Femiron, but no, none of these helped, so he gave it all up and joined a women haters' club. Now Curt sits at home throwing darts at Farrah Fawcett.

DAVID BLAKLEY decided to better himself and joined the service, where he was discovered by a talent scout to be a double for Pruitt on C.P.O. Sharkey.

CATHY BLEVINS, after marrying her high school sweetheart, can be seen driving big trucks to White Cloud with five little ones shifting gears.

JOANN BLEVINS, after unsuccessfully trying to balance Matt Geiger's Chevy pickup upside down, finished school, and like all Great Class Presidents, was exiled to the Round Hole Cabin where she became the President of McCauley Farming Corporation.

DONALD "RUBBER DUCK" BOOS, after completing four years of high school, decided to go on and build a manufacturing plant and manufacture rubber ducks.

CHRIS "GRAPER" CLARK after many wasted days and wasted nights can now be seen riding around in his Daytona Charger with his Weekend sweetheart.

GORDON "STRETCH" CLARY, after many years of trying to decide which girl to settle down with, finally gave it up and moved to Europe to become a monk. Now they call him "Father Clary."

DAVID CLUCK, alis "Daffy Duck," married his HHS sweetheart, and after four years of unsuccessful farming, started a wild duck farm where he raises Kentucky Fried dumb cluckers.

JERRY COFFEY, alias "Spitty," ended his final year of high school realizing that all of his hard studying didn't pay off because he ended up with -37 points in Supreme Courts, and now Jerry can be seen working in Lindy's grocery store in Horton marking baby food prices.

MARY "MODDA" COLE, after four long, years at HHS, finally graduating, her fading echo could be heard through the halls. "Dreba goochy-goochy."

YVETTE "TWEETIE" CRUSE, after being pursued by every guy from HCJC, decided to buy the college and change the name to "Tweet's Junior College," for all tall, dark and handsome men.

VERNON DICKERSON, alias "Lil' Everything Abner," after trying out for the U.S. Olympic team, found out he wasn't quite good enough, so he finally settled down and started his own business, a small donut shop. So now he'd always be sure to have some to take home to the family.

KAREN DIVELEY, after graduating from old HHS, went on to Atchison to receive a degree in accounting. After many years of working with figures, Karen returned to the farm and can now be seen raising midgets.

LANA "BANANA" ELROD, after leaving HHS, moved to Egypt to attend the University there "E.U." She liked it there so much that she stayed. Now she lives in a pyramid, drinking Oasis water.

RANDY FEE, better known as "Moon," after breaking every track record in his dreams woke up only to find himself in his overalls and plowboots out breaking his back to feed the many mouths.

LAURA "FIRM GRIP" FUHRMAN, after graduating from HHS decided to try her stage act at HCJC. She didn't get her act together there so she moved to the Ozarks and can now be seen raising little Goofers on stage.

CLINTON HAMILTON, after finding out that college football wasn't his game decided to open "Gerlos' Book Store" for great western stories where he made a fortune by selling a novel titled "I'm Not A Girl."

KENNY "JERKINS" JENKINS decided to join brother Mervie in the service after hearing the Army Slogan, Come-On, "Join the Army and drive the transport!"

DEBBIE "ARTHUR" KARN, after many years with the New York Knicks, returned to Highland, where she opened a lonely hearts club. In her spare time she is busy raising her eight little athletes.

JOY KOELLIKER couldn't decide whether she wanted to rush into anything or stretch things out. So after many tearful years she decided to give it up.

RANDY KOELLIKER, after trying out for the Pros, had his plan to butter up the coach backfire, and he returned to Highland to write a book on 'Fifty Ways To Attack Your Lover.' He now advertises the book on his own radio station.

MICHELLE "SLICK" MATTHIAS, after four years of successful basketball, decided that Mr. Bruns wasn't such a good dad after all, and can now be seen as far away from Highland as she can get.

PTTI JO LIVETTI after attending class long enough to graduate, can be seen as a secretary for Lackey and Lackey, Inc.

MARY "HOT ROD" POTTER, after attempting to win the "Knudson 500," decided driving wasn't her bag, and can now be seen modeling the latest fashions at Hiawatha.

TERRY REYER, after sleeping through four years of high school, graduated on the honor roll. Two years later he was kicked out of the North 40 when he was caught in a rush hustling a pizza.

TIM "FROG LIPS" RUSH lost his bet with the guys so he tried to disguise himself. To change his identity, he changed his hair. Protein didn't work; neither did eggs or beer. Alas, his hair was done very nicely with the Beck Cream Rinse.

RONY "GRIZZLY" SCHNEIDER, after graduation, moved to the mountains to follow in the footsteps of his idol "Grizzly Adams," but his Ben has two legs and isn't as gentle.

ALLEN SIMMONS, after four years of successful football became a Pro. He soon tired of that as usual and quit to farm.

DANNY SIMMONS, known as "Bumbler", after ten years finally had an operation for his nervous condition. They found an electric toothbrush. The question is: How did it get there? eeeeeeeouw!

KENNY "SKINHEAD" TILTON, after many wild years, decided to give up farming to join the army, but with one and only one regret. He had to shave his head.

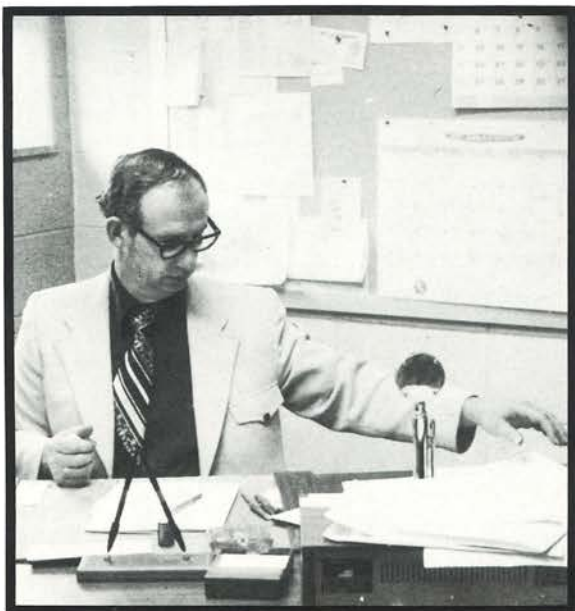

JANE TWOMBLY, the Farrah Fawcett of Highland High, after many successful films, finally retired to marry and raise a family. Now there are many little "Farras" running around.

SALLY UKENA is out for revenge on Eric Clapton because he let out her secret, even so she still keeps up the voice lessons, and now she has decided to try it on her own. Sal came out with her first great hit entitled, "I'm gonna slap your face, Eric."

JIM "JIM BOB" WARD, after several years of getting stuck on Scoon Hill, decided to marry his sweetheart, and can be seen living with Grizz on Scoon Hill.

ATHLETICS

The Highland Bluestreaks carried on the tradition in 1977. The streaks won the K-36 league championship with an undefeated record of 6-0. Defense was the strong point of the season with only fifteen points being scored on the streaks by league teams. Highland then made it to the state playoffs for the fourth year in a row. All K-36 honors went to Terry Mooney, Randy Fee, Allen Simmons and Clinton Hamilton. Honorable mention honors were recieved by David Cluck, Mark Twombly, Mike Rush, and Randy Koelliker. Allen Simmons and Randy Fee also received all-area honors.

The 1977 Cross Country season was the most successful in Bluestreak history. The team broke both the total medals won record and the trophies won record. They won 41 medals and 7 trophies.

The team placed 3rd in the state meet; the best state finish ever. Each of the team won at least one medal. Vernon Dickerson became the first 4-year letterman in Cross Country.

This team set some lofty ideals that will be hard to match in future years, not only in medals and trophies won, but in team spirit and dedication to attain their preseason goals.

Sore But Satisfying

The 1977-78 basketball season wasn't what it was expected to be, but Highland's Varsity played better than the record shows. The season ended at 5 wins and 10 losses during regular season play.

Although Highland lost in the league tournament by a score of 40 to 30 to Horton in the first round, it seemed the league tournament turned things around and gave the team the incentive to play. By the time the regional came around, the Bluestreaks were playing well together, although they again fell short with an exciting fourth-quarter comeback to lose 60 to 59 in overtime to Bern in first-round play to end their season.

We Gave It Our Best

After the season is over, one can look back and say, "We gave it our best." That's the way the Highland High School girls' basketball team feels. They set their goals high and achieved many of their hopes and dreams.

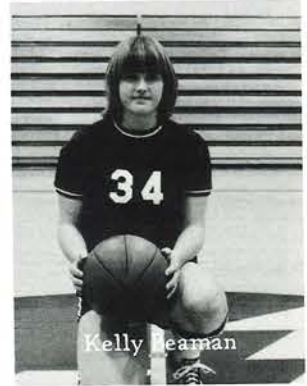

Nanette Taylor

Chris Stahl

Pam Dunn

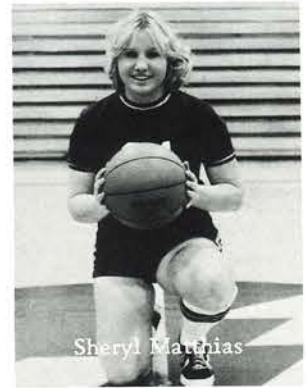

Kelly Beaman

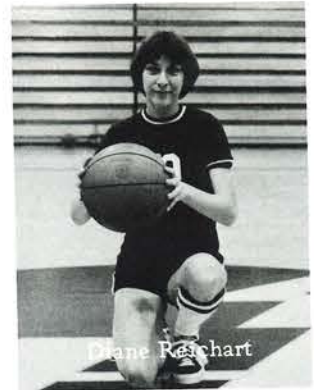

They showed that teamwork and spirit are two main ingredients of a successful season. The girls were second in their league, first in their regional, and runner-ups in sub-state competition. Three girls were chosen for the K-36 All League team. They were Debbie Karn, Michelle Matthias, and Yvette Cruse. Barbie Karn also received honorable mention. We should be proud of these girls and their achievements.

EACH DAY IS A N

Mr. Keith Akins, Director of Kays

On October 27, 1977, the Highland Kayettes hosted the K. A. Y. Regional Conference. The theme of the conference was "Each Day is a New Beginning." Approximately 300 people attended the conference. The day started with a general session, continued with films and lunch, and ended with a recognition program at which each club received their 1,000, 2,000, or 3,000 point award. A lot of preparation and hard work was put into the conference, and it was truly a memorable experience for all.

Junior Miss Debbie Karn

"Oh, Mr. Scarecrow ... I don't need a rainbow land! My life is real and happy in my own land, with real wonderful people. No matter where I go or what I do the most important thing is being MYSELF!"
Being a Junior Miss candidate with all the other girls was an experience I'll never regret. The experience was really fun and I wish every girl had the opportunity to be in the pageant.

Debbie Karn

"I really enjoyed my experience representing Highland as Apple Blossom Candidate. It was good experience and a lot of fun."

Thank you,
