

In Appreciation.....

On behalf of the families we serve,
we thank you for the love and support
you have shown them by your presence at the visitation and funeral ceremonies.

At the time of grief, it is important for families to be reassured that people care about them.

There is great value in your support.

TO THOSE I LOVE AND THOSE WHO LOVED ME

*When I am gone, release me. Let me go-
I have so many things to see and do.
You mustn't tie yourself to me with tears,
Be happy that we had so many years.*

*I gave to you my love. You can only guess
How much you gave to me in happiness.
I thank you for the love you each have shown
But now it's time I traveled on alone.*

*So grieve a while for me, if grieve you must
Then let your grief be comforted by trust.
It's only for a while that we must part
So bless the memories within your heart.*

*I won't be far away, for life goes on.
So if you need me, call and I will come.
Though you can't see or touch me, I'll be near-
And if you listen with your heart, you'll hear
All of my love around you soft and clear.
And then, when you must come this way alone,
I'll greet you with a smile, and "Welcome Home"*

Tina,

Norma Nyberg forwarded your recent message to me and I do have info about the Paris Sapp you mentioned, but no one else. Paris Sapp was born to John Harrison Sapp and Nancy Ann Perkins 14 Apr 1876 in Wilton, Boone co, MO. I have info on his grandparents etc, too. I have a grandfather named John Harrison Sapp born about the same time as Paris' father but not the same person. As you indicate, Paris md. (1) Mary Jane Ramsdell (b. 17 May 1879) on 3 Feb 1899 in Boone Co. [recorded in Boone Co. Marriage Bk 7, p. 11]. They were granted a divorce from the Boone co Circuit Court on 17 Feb 1902. He married (2) Lura V. Rybolt on 24 Mar 1912. He was buried at Bonds Chapel Methodist Church near Ashland, MO.

As you indicate, Paris did kill a man and spent 9 yrs in prison for it. There is a series of articles in the Columbia Missouri Herald beginning 25 May 1900 describing it that you should get. He killed a George Dennis, his step-father, on 17 May. They got in an argument and as George walked away, Paris picked up a log of firewood and hit him over the head as he walked down the street of the small town. When Paris' father became ill and died, Paris was still in prison and could not do anything but express his feelings in a heart rending letter home that has also been published. I have info on Paris' brothers and sisters, etc.

Paris' story and much more are told in a book I published several years on the history of Wilton - you might find it interesting. It includes the specific newspaper references. The newspapers can be found at the State Historical Society of Missouri at Ellis Library Building on the University of Missouri campus in Columbia. If you are interested in the Wilton book, please advise and we'll tell you how to order.

If you have any more specific questions about Paris or his family, let me know.

Regards,

David Sapp

Hi Tina,

WELL, I DESCENDED FROM SAMUEL SEATONS SON, ROBERT WEAVER ADKINS.

SAMUELS FATHER WAS: JOHN M. ADKINS B. 1806 IN RUSSELL, VIRGINIA
MD. SARAH ADKINS AUG 14,
1823 IN PIKEVILLE, PIKE, KY

SAMUEL S. ADKINS B. OCT. 1, 1838 IN REDWINE, MORGAN, KY
D. DEC 22, 1883
MD. JUNE 23, 1867

WIFE ABIGAIL BARKER born 1841
parents of Abigail where William Barker b. 1809 in North Carolina and Jane Fraley b. 1816 in Morgan co. Ky - Married Nov. 1832 in Morgan, Ky

Father of William Barker was Solomon Barker.

>From what I have heard from someone else Samuel was the only son between John M Adkins and Sarah because she remarried someone else and had children by them also.

I do have a marriage entry for Samuel and Abigail's son: Samuel Tildon Adkins born June 16, 1877 in Morgan co, Ky- Died March 26 1966 married April 9, 1911 to Laura Ellen Pennington in Indianapolis, Marion, Indiana
she died Nov 20, 1975
Laura Ellens fathers name was Elijah Pennington, mothers name Nancy J. Barker

I hope this helps some, as I do have copies of records to back up my dates and names. however any handwritten entries are subject to mistakes as I believe the "butler" "barker" record states. It was submitted by a relative named "Alva Butler". I think she used her own name possibly by accident on the record.

Tina..

Sounds like you have the same problem I have with your Samuel?I can not find anything else on mine.I have seen more than one in Morgan and Elliott Co Ky.I have made a dozen trips up there.Most of the Adkins there tell me the same thing there are four or five clans and none of them related to the other's.I believe the came out of Wv.I have census for Wayne Co Wv.That lists some of the same people in Morgan Co.One I found in Morgan Co.Samuel Adkins b.1828 f.John m.Sarah.Siblings Sarah,Sylvester ,Virginia,Gueenie,Carlene,Amanda,&James.I also found two listed in a Roster I have of the orphan Brigade 5th.Div.from Morgan Co.I also saw several Samuel S.in diff articles in the Elliott Co.history book.When I go up there again I will look for your Sam.My Sam had a bro.David and a sis Celia I can not find anything on.If I run into your Samuel or John I will let you know.Minnie Anderson
(Ohio) ps.Elliott was once in Morgan
Co.There are more Adkins in Elliott.

Tina,

You are very welcome. My parents enjoyed helping. The cemetery is easy to find. Just get an Indiana map and locate State Road 213 which is in Tipton County and runs north and south. I you see Windfall, follow 213 south to the Tipton-Hamilton County Line. SR 213 makes a curve to the left and you are now driving on the Hamilton County side of the road. At the next intersection, SR 213 now curves to the right. You will notice a cemetery on your left or the Tipton County side of the road right before you get to the curve. That is the Hobbs Cemetery. Mom said most of the tombstones they found for your family were on the east side of the cemetery and were located along the gravel road (I think it is CR400East. If you are coming from Frankfort, take SR 28 all the way through Tipton and go about 5 miles to SR 213. It shouldn't be hard to find.

Tina,

My mom and dad went to the Hobbs Cemetery this past weekend and called me with the following information:

Found headstone for Z. Keith Hobbs 1853-1903, also found one for DeWitt C. Hobbs, 1831 to 1926.

It thing this info will be more to your liking. Found a large tombstone that said "Mom & Dad" Didama Adkins, b 10-7-1845 and d. 9-27-1917. Isaac F. Adkins b. 12-24-1841 d. 7-28-1891.

Also found one that had Mary E. Adkins 1876-1943 and John W. Adkins 1869-1956.

They also found a tombstone in very poor condition that said Saloma, son of F. & D. Miller (date could not be read) Ernest C. Miller, son of F. & D. Miller, April 14, 1881 was 11 months and 14 days old when died.

Also "Infant daughters JW & ME Adkins, Sept 8, 1890, born and died same date."

Hope that helps.

Adkins Reunion

The annual Adkins reunion was held June 16th 2002 at the Wathena Community Building. All but one of the fourteen children of Frank and Maude (Randall) Adkins were able to come. Brother Sam could not attend due to illness.

I shall not want.
 He maketh me to lie down in green pastures:
 He leadeth me beside the still waters.
 He restoreth my soul: He leadeth me in the paths of righteousness for His name's sake.
 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil:
 for Thou art with me;
 Thy rod and Thy staff they comfort me.
 Thou preparest a table before me
 in the presence of mine enemies:
 Thou anointest my head with oil;
 my cup runneth over.
 Surely goodness and mercy shall follow me
 all the days of my life:
 and I will dwell in the house of the Lord
 forever.

Teen promotes seat-belt safety, remembers sister

You know the scenario. You get in the car with a bunch of friends, you crank up the radio and everyone's laughing and talking.

You've heard the lectures a hundred times, and sure, you'll be fine, maybe a few minutes after the car has started moving. It could be too late.

Ashleigh Adkins, a sophomore at Wathena (Kan.) High School, learned this the hard way when Malorie Adkins, her 13-year-old sister, died Oct. 2.

Her parents drove Malorie and her friends to Wathena from a basketball tournament in Everest, Kan. Minutes after leaving a parking lot in Hiawatha, Kan., the car rolled onto the shoulder and Malorie overcorrected, losing control. Malorie was thrown from the car.

"I think with kids, they get so excited talking," Ashleigh says. "They just forget to. I've always buckled up, but I haven't made sure everyone else has."

Now she does. Ashleigh has made it her duty to educate others about the importance of buckling up.

On a Christmas tree next to Malorie's grave, about 70 angel ornaments hung, each with a message Ashleigh had scrawled in black ink: "Buckle up for Mal."

In front of the tree sat a sign: "As Christmas approaches many of us forget the true meaning of Christmas. This holiday is to give to others. We know that Malorie would have given her last toy to a child without. In remembrance of our angel: those of you who come to visit Malorie take an angel from her tree and hang it in your home to help keep Mal's spirit alive."

Just before noon a few weeks ago, Megan Barger, a junior at Wathena High School, walked toward Malorie's grave with her mother, Pam Barger, and Frisco, her black Labrador.

"I came up here and they were all gone," Megan says as she stands with Ashleigh and her mother, Natalie Adkins. The four stood for a while, looking at the tree, talking.

"... She was always so hyper and always laughing and talking about boys nonstop..." Megan says.

Maybe the wreck has impacted Megan, and maybe she will never forget Malorie or the importance of buckling up.

If the message and safety belt clicks with one person and if that person remembers Malorie, an outgoing Christian, Ashleigh will feel that she has accomplished her goal.

And it seems she has. Students have hung the ornaments on their rearview mirrors as a reminder, sports teams have added Malorie's initials to their sweatshirts and students have written in a journal near Malorie's grave.

BUCKLE UP FOR A SCHOLARSHIP

■ Natalie and Bryan Adkins, Malorie's parents, are offering two $300 college scholarships in memory of their daughter. Applicants must have attended Wathena High School, maintain a 2.5 or better high school grade point average, participate in a sport and write an essay about the importance of buckling up. For more information, e-mail Mrs. Adkins at natalie.adkins@sjsd.k12.mo.us.
