Dear Ms. Hiles:

My name is Grace Loveall Jeschke. Your request was handed to me by one of the staff at the Troy Kansas Library.

I volunteer for research there and also do it professionally from my home at a fee of $10.00 an hour plus expenses.

The library staff have been very busy with flood problems etc. (we lost a library at Elwood, KS. and you know the paper work required for that) and that is the reason your request was passed on to me. They are understaffed and overworked as this is a rural area and our resources are not great! We have many advantages because of this but there are disadvantages also. This is one of them.

RE David H. Bays

I am the historian for my church the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints at a little spot on Highway 36 called Fanning. David H. Bays did much preaching in this area before the church at Fanning began. He preached at White Cloud Kansas and worked in this area a great deal. I see in the census (which was transcribed by John & Enid Ostertag, retired insurance people from St Joseph, MO) that they weren't sure if the name was Bays or Boys. As you can tell from reading it, if you are related, it is indeed the Bays Family.

From some old North East Kansas District Records of our church I have D. H. Bays was born 5 March 1839 in Colorado County Texas.. was baptized in Pottowatomie Co. Iowa and was a member of the Wolf River Branch of the NE KS District of the RLDS Church.

Elizabeth Bays was b 6 Sept 1843 in Madison Co Illinois and baptized at Harrison Co. IA and also a member of the Wolf River Branch of the NE KS District of the RLDS Church.

In searching through the major church history books from Independence, MO., I found that David H. Bays spent much time working in Iowa and other places for the church.

We are members of the Fanning Congregation which is still in existence..a little country church. My husband's people came to this area in 1906 so we are relatively "new" to the area. Wolf River Branch is no longer in existence. Neither is a congregation at White Cloud..however, the old river town of White Cloud, KS is becoming relatively well known for historic restoration and their annual flea markets which are held twice a year. Wolf River Branch was the forerunner of the Fanning Congregation where we attend.

If you would like for me to do more research, I can but will have to charge a fee. The RLDS Archives at Independence, Mo may be of great help depending on what it is that you want to know. David H. Bays was clerk for many conferences and I'm sure they have a lot of information about him.

Their address is:

History Commission

Telephone: 816-833-1000

The cost for the enclosed copies due the library is $1.50.
Send to Library District #1, Troy, KS 66087

Best wishes from

and Library Board Member

Dear Ms. Jeschke,

I thank you, your information was interesting. What I had called the library about was to see what graveyard records they might have. My great grandparents had gone to Kansas somewhere. She and two of her sons died there in 1871. I am trying to locate where they are buried. My grandfather and four other children came back to Ky. The courthouse in Kansas was later burnt with his I O U's for his land. Also his pocket was picked in Cincinnati so he arrived home broke with four small children. He was

George Washington Bays
His wife Nancy Morgan Anglin Bays
B. 25 Nov. 1838
D. 3 AUG. 1871

Children Joseph Anglin Bays
B. 27 NOV 1870
D. 3 JAN 1871

Charles Bays
B. 3 MAY 1862
D. 31 JULY 1871

I hope to get to aRLDS library in Cincinnati soon. Maybe I can find something there.

In 1985 I spent a night in Hiawatha and the next day went on to Hannibal Missouri. I drove #36 all the way through Kansas. I had lost my husband to cancer a few months before and hadn't been driving because of arthritis but told my daughter we were going to the Black Hills <sup>(where we use to camp)</sup> if we only made fifty miles a day. We made it to Amana Iowa the first day. Wouldn't it be strange if we had stayed near where my grandmother is buried.

Many years ago we spent a week camped near and touring Salt Lake City. I have a beautiful picture of the statue of Jesus that is there. Someone told me later some vandals had damaged it. My husband liked to talk to people and while there had met an older man he was talking to. The man gave my husband one of The Book of Mormon that were for sale. Later we saw a picture and thought this man might have been your President. Am enclosing some stamps for your time and expense. Did enjoy reading of the Church history and David Bays. My Bays came from Virginia to Carter Co Ky. Wonder if they were related since one of David's children is George W. Thank you again.
