Subject: Wm. Foley information

Library:

Early this morning I received a telephone call from your office giving information as to where Wm. Foley is buried. I sent an e-mail to my brother in Santa Fe., NM...he was so very glad to get the information and I am sure the next time he is in Wichita, he will want to go to Troy and the cemetery. He, too, sends his thanks--appreciated your help very much. He wondered is any of his family is still living?
Thanks.

Subject: RE: Looking for Obituaries in Doniphan County, KS.

To Library Staff

I am looking for obituaries that may have been published in a Newspaper in Doniphan County from 1900 thru 1985.

The persons I would be looking for lived in and around Troy, Highland, Wathena, Severance, Wolf River, Iowa, etc.

Examples:

#1

2nd Lt. Harry James Foley, Jr., died in W.W. II Aug 15 1945, Buried at Mount Olive Cemetery, Troy City, Ks. Burial date unknown.

John V. Mohler, died abt 1909 buried Mount Olive Cemetery, Troy City, Ks.

Need month

#3

Thomas P. Bottiger, died Apr 10 1979 buried at Highland Cemetery, Doniphan Co., KS.

#4

Noma [Norma] C. Lucas, died abt 1941 buried at Highland Cemetery, Doniphan Co., KS.

Need month

I do not know if you can help; If not able to help, is there a recommendation to where I should inquire about this information. I am unable to spend a lot of money on research, but able to spend a small to modest amount of money.

Thank You

Dear Mr. Scarborough,

Sorry for the delay in replying to your genealogy request. I did find an obituary for Thomas Paul Bottiger. It was in the Athena Times April 12, 1979 pg. 1. It goes as follows:

Tom Paul Bottiger, 89, died early Tuesday morning at a Highland nursing home. He was a lifelong resident of Highland Community, member of Highland christian church and Smithland masonic Lodge No. 1, He was preceded in death by his wife Loma Dittimore Bottiger, in 1976.

Survivors include one sone, Joe of LeMars, Iowa; one sister, Barbara Ploeger, Coos bay, Ore., four grandchildren and five great grandchildren.

Services will be Friday morning, 10;30, at Highland Christian Church with burial in Highland cemetery.

I was unable to find an obituary for Harry James Foley. For Norma C Lucas and John Mohler I will need a month and year to be able to look for an obituary.

Good luck with your research.

Sincerely Yours,
Carla Watkins

"Restore Constitution" Committee Speaker On Chan. 2 Sunday Noon

Col. A. E. Roberts, USAF Ret., spokesman for the "Committee to Restore the Constitution," will be featured on Channel 2 tv Sunday noon, April 15. Col. Roberts' 12 noon speech was taped at a recent meeting of the CRC in Hiawatha.

The CRC group is opposing the federal governments regionalism of states with a new branch of governmental authority. CRC members contend states rights are being eroded and taken away by regional branches of the federal government. State and local branches of municipal government are forced to submit to government by regional people not elected by the people, a violation of the constitution.
