Mrs. Sarah K. Gurwell, relict of the late Wm. Gurwell, of Painesville died at her home Saturday Dec. 7, 1984 at 8:20 p.m. Her death was expected. For a week or more she had been confined to bed, suffering from emphysema. She was taken back in the house where she expired in about twenty minutes. She was a woman greatly attached to her family ready to help the needy and hospitable to all. In her death the whole community suffers a loss. Ten children survive her. They were all at the funeral but one, a daughter in Chicago, whom illness prevented attending. She was born at Baysport, Ohio, April 8, 1840.
—Misses Sophia and Ruthina Gurwell started, with their brother Abe, for Denver, Colorado, Friday. They will homestead in that part.

GURWELL, Wm. [1878] 26 Feb 1903

Engaged in business at Panning. He was appointed postmaster in 1870 and held the office till the time of his death. An upright, honorable man, his death will be mourned by a host of friends throughout the community. The funeral services will be held at the E.P. church, at Panning, Sunday afternoon at 1 o'clock. —The Troy Times.—
