Joseph Hannum
Died Oct 25, 1878

Arrived at Americus City 1854
Settled on the Hannum Farm

Married Hulda Allen in 1841
Daughter May Frank Stewart was my grandmother

1846-7 elected to KS State legislature

Married Elizabeth Allbrook in 1870
Moved to Soldier in late 1880's
Lived in Soldier until death on what is known as the "Hagen" development section.

Hannum family plot near Rose Hill School 1/2 mi S of Soldier

Chuck Allen
HANNU - looking business W 1/2 Soldier
1/2 between Seneca, Holton
Rose Hill =

Verna Marlene Van Denge Holton KS
913-364-2785

Dale Star - lives 6 mi. S. of Soldier
5 mi. S. of Soldier, County Cemetery
45 mi. 5 mi. S. of Soldier
1 house so
2 mi. east on west side
called Olive Hill

Marvin Star
lives 5 mi. S. of Soldier 1/2 block go east - 1st house on mobile home
south side

wrote Col. Char Allen
Aug 9 - 1991
Dear Grace,

Thanks for the info shots and the old photos. It is hard to believe that somewhere like this could just fade away.

I've enclosed some info on my great-grandfather. I still need to get back into the old records and find the location of the Rosehill School.

Thanks for your help on the tour. We're still working on that issue.

Best regards,

Chuck
I've enclosed some info on my great grandfather. I still need to get back into the old records and find the location of the Rosehill school.

Thanks for your help on the tour. We're still working the issue.

Best regards,

Chuck
Joseph Hanna 27 Apr 1900
Soldier
Possible home of Joseph Hannum 1902 nogu addition