The Staff

Each of you by your possession of a 1973 STREAK shows your pride and interest in your school and the activities and personalities associated with it. The enjoyment you now experience would not be possible without the STAFF who have worked hard for many hours to prepare this book of memories.

Rhonda Elrod, the editor, and her staff have produced a fine yearbook. Each has worked willingly and carefully. All work was done on their own time, and the only reward they will receive is your appreciation. Join me in saying to them, "Thank you".

Randy's fast "brake".

Mike lobs one up.

That's Frank!!

Clip puts up two.

Hey, Walter, did you see that?

The freshman won the K-36 League Freshman Basketball Championship at Wathena by defeating Troy, 47-32. In the other tourney games Highland defeated Midway, 62-28 and Elwood, 49-39. The freshmen ended the season with a very successful record of 12 wins and only 4 losses.

History

The class of "73" entered the halls of H. H. S. with 43 members. Our officers for the year were: Randy Snyder, Pres.; Curtis Blevins, Vice-Pres.; Debbie Simpson, Secretary; Mike McPheeters, Treasurer; and Rick Matthias, Sgt.-at-Arms. Our sponsors were Mrs. Williams and Mrs. Baumstimler. We were initiated into H. H. S. on Sept. 29, 1969, by carrying books, yelling upon command, pushing pencils on the floor with our noses, and anything else the seniors could think of. A dance was held in our honor by the seniors that evening. To raise money we held a Bake Sale. Our first class party was a trip to St. Joe to see the movies, "Eldorado and True Grit". Our class lost three members at the close of the year, Randy Collins, Joyce Popejoy, and Mary Hamilton.

Our Sophomore year began by selecting Randy Snyder, Pres.; Virginia Twombly, Vice-Pres.; Dorothy Loyd, Treasurer; Walter Neibling, Secretary and Curtis Blevins, Sgt.-at-Arms. Class sponsors were Mrs. Gormley and Mr. Baumstimler. Money making projects were: picking up corn, a carwash, and selling tool kits. We went to St. Joe for our class party to eat at the pizza hut and see the movie "Love Story". During our Sophomore year Diane Price transferred to Troy High School, and Robert Frayer, Sue Lock, and Cindy Tilton dropped, but we gained Debbie Farley.

Our busy junior year began by electing Dorothy Loyd, Pres.; Curtis Blevins, Vice-Pres.; Walter Neibling, Secretary; Rhonda Elrod, Treasurer; and Mike Blevins, Sgt.-at-Arms. Our sponsors were Mrs. Stoebener, Mr. Orton, Mr. Patterson, and Miss Strahn. Zelda Whitaker came to join us during the year. Our money-raising projects which included picking up corn, a bake sale, and selling calendars, were all in preparation for hosting the junior-senior prom held April 29. Theme of the banquet and dance was "An Old Fashioned Love Song". We selected white roses as our flower and american beauty and orchid for our colors. Sally Simpson and Jody Weiland dropped at the end of the year.

To begin our reign as the mighty seniors of "73" we elected Lester Gibson, Pres.; Virginia Twombly, Vice Pres.; Linda Howerton, Treasurer; Janet Dillon, Secretary and Martin Fee, Sgt.-at-Arms. Mr. McGee and Mr. Bartels were the sponsors. We added Roger Lefebvre to our class at the beginning of the year. Money was made by selling magazines, Tom Watt kits, and cakes at basketball games. The theme of the initiation dance we held for the Freshman was "Ding-a-Ling." Our senior trip was taken April 23-27 at the Ozarks. We were honored by the Juniors, April 28, at the Junior-Senior Prom. As the year comes to a rapid close, we will as our motto says, "Consider the Future and Put the Past Behind".

Will

I, JOYCE DIVELEY, will my canoeing ability to Mr. McGee and the Navy, my Raggedy Ann and Andy dolls to anyone who wants a job.

I, ZELDA WHITAKER, will all my worries of finishing school to my sister, Linda.

I, RHONDA ELROD, will my little body to Brenda Davis and JoAnn Tilton, and my little brother to the Experimental Laboratory for Foreign Objects.

I, ROGER LEFEBVRE, will nothing because I have nothing to will.

I, RANDY ROSENBERGER, will my athletic ability to Tim Collins and Bobby Batchelder, and my ability to get away from Mr. McGee and the night watchman on sneak to anyone who wants to have fun and miss a night's sleep.

I, DEBBIE FARLEY, will my little feet to Charles Forney, and my short dresses to Debbie Seller.

I, RAYMOND RUHNKE, will my wine barrels to Virginia Twombly, Joyce Diveley and Darlene Whetstine, and my coyote hounds and dog box to Mike Swoyer.

I, GARY NEIBLING, will my ability to get out of 8th hours to Sandy Waggoner and Margo Nuzum, and the high school lunches to the Biological Research Laboratory.

I, SUSAN CORDER, leave my ability to put up with Freshmen girls to Mrs. Bauer; I leave to Hoppy my ability to go with college boys.

I, MARVIN GREEN, will my ability to cheat in bookkeeping class to anyone who feels destructive, and my ability to get tests to anyone who wants straight A's.

I, DAVID BRYAN, will my ability to letter three years in varsity basketball without ever playing to anyone stupid enough, and my ability to resist Red Man to Randy Hallauer.

I, DEBBIE SIMPSON, will my personal language dictionary to Mr. McGee and my respect for upper classmen to the freshmen girls.

I, MIKE BLEVINS, will football to anyone who can play fullback and not get hurt, and Kim and Vanetta to anyone that can put up with them.

I, DARLENE WHETSTINE, will my giggles to: Sandy Waggoner, Lori Taylor, Dedra Rosenberger, and Sue Hamilton; my "For Brunettes Only" to Barbara Taylor, for the black, natural, beautiful look.

I, RHONDA SIMPSON, will my fun on sneak to Debbie Webber, Marci McGee, Joel Ann Lusk, and my ability to stay friends with people to Sandy Waggoner and JoAnn Tilton.

I, FRANCIS SCHNEIDER, will my ability to do things and not get caught to George Nuzum, and my bounty soft toilet paper to Mr. Bruns, and a lock of my hair to Mr. McGee.

I, CURT SISK, will my boring times in bookkeeping to anyone who likes to hear the phrases "Get busy" or "Shut up", and my trips on the cross-country bus to anyone who wants to get molested.

I, GREG BOOS, will the water tower light to Rick Jeschke, my ability to get kicked out of football and still go out for another sport to Mike McGee.

I, RICK MATTHIAS, will my ability to get out of school after sixth hour, and my job at the grade school to whoever likes pushing mops.

I, JANET DILLON, will my late night entertainment to Mr. McGee, and my "great speed" in typing to Dedra Rosenberger.

I, LESTER GIBSON, will my ability to go to strange towns and not get run out to Randy Rosenberger; to Bobby Batchelder my dread neck disease.

I, DOROTHY LOYD, will my ability to get along with people to Lisa Gilmore, and my ability to get good grades without studying to Tyler Keebler and Bernard Sabbert so that they might graduate.

I, VIRGINIA TWOMBLY, will my ability to not say shut-up all year to a certain English teacher; O.K., good, and my talking in Home Ec. to future students who wish to drive Mrs. Bauer mad.

I, WALTER NEIBLING, will my nickname "Whiple" to anyone who can resist squeezing things, and my ability to write creative paragraphs to teachers and get everyone in hot water but me and still pull a B to George Karn.

I, LINDA HOWERTON, will my ability to sleep through advanced math and physics class and still get A's to next year's class, my ability to act innocent to Kim and Patty.

I, NANCY HOLT, will my unbroken Olympic track record to Mr. Hutchcraft. The honors society to those who can flunk French and Chemistry and still pass, and my ability to go steady with one person without a ring to all the freshmen girls!

I, CLIP BAKER, ain't leaving nothing behind.

I, CURTIS BLEVINS, will my ability to go out for basketball and not quit after the first day to Brad Blevins and Jim Blevins, and my ability to keep calm and cool to Jane Miller.

I, MELVIN NEIBLING, will my ability to get out of trouble in bookkeeping to next year's class, and my ability to run and run and run and never get anywhere to Mike Erdley.

I, EARL TWOMBLY, will my parking space at the girl's dorm to anyone who wants to go with a college girl, and Mr. Bruns to next year's American History class.

I, LESLIE SHELTON, will my ability to grow a full head of hair to Mr. McGee, and my eighteenth birthday party to anyone who likes to have a very large headache.

I, MIKE MCPHEETERS, will my outstanding ability to say something and remember what I said two minutes later to Miss Sherman, and my ability to act like the ideal student in class to Gary Diveley and George Nuzum.

I, RICHARD LUTES, will my intelligence to my cousin Ronita, for something to put under his naturally curly hair, and my position as basketball manager to anyone who can understand Mr. Hutchcraft's way of thinking.

I, MARTIN FEE, will Tory Walton six inches which will allow him to play ball next year, and my creativity and ability to remember things to Miss Sherman.

I, ALISA TAYLOR, will my 5th hour enticements to Anita and my blessing to James and Lorie for more of the same. I will my gorgeous body to Lorie in hopes that she will be able to wear my blouses.

ALONG THE WAY

Many, many bridges to cross,
    Many long roads to travel,
Many a day we must count a loss
    As we watch the years unravel.
Many a day the sun won't shine,
    Many a day of sorrow -
But for those with courage to find the way,
    There will always be tomorrow.
