RESULTS OF THE NATION’S RECENT ELECTION

It’s a clean sweep!!!! The Democrats have elected the President, a large majority in the lower house of Congress and after the 4th of March they will have a majority in the Senate. There will be nothing in their way to prevent their carrying out everything they have pledged themselves to do. Will they do it, or will they be afraid to fulfill their pledges?

They can repeal the McKinley Bill, and what they call the reciprocity humbug, and establish free trade, or what call a tariff for revenue only. They can take the tax off of whiskey and tobacco, and place it where it will raise the most revenue, which will be on articles most largely consumed by the masses of the people, such as sugar, coffee and tea.

They can repeal the 10 percent tax on State bank issues, and again place the country at risk and at the mercy of wild-cat banks, from which it has been free ever since the Republican party came to power.

They can repeal the dependent pension bill, and stop the robbery of the Treasury by the old soldiers.

NOTICE for DIVORCE:
Theresa H. Hawxhurst vs James F. W. Hawxhurst, by Atty F. M. Keith, Aug. 1, 1872.
ADMINISTRATION NOTICE:
Estate of William D. Yaryan, deceased, Sarah A. Yaryan, Adm.

Joseph D. Price, living on Rock creek, three miles from Doniphan, met with a terrible death last Monday. He owned a large blooded bull, for which he had paid a large sum of money. On Monday the bull attacked Mr. Price’s son, when the father got into the lot to save the boy, then the bull caught him against a bank, where he gored him until he was badly hurt that he died shortly after. Mr. Price was a prominent farmer and a highly respected citizen, a cousin of Judge Price of this place. He leaves a wife and several children.

As we advised, CHARLEY STEWART has taken warning from his many accidents, and reformed. Although not yet restored to his right mind from his recent bump, he got drunk Tuesday, threatened to kill his father, who is probably on his death-bed, and also threatened to murder his wife and baby, causing them to flee from home for safety.

OUR NOTE: The following article was written over 100 years ago and it is just important in 1995 as it was in 1891, perhaps moreso when one considers the importance of our children's education, therefore we included it. Feel free to use in your local papers. The item:

DUTIES OF PARENTS TO SCHOOLS

Beside visiting the school, and co-operating and sympathizing with the teacher, parents can do much for its improvement and success by manifesting, at all proper places, an interest in its exercises, thus showing to their children, in a convincing manner that the duties of the school are not to be regarded as of little consequence.

Parents should encourage children to be studious, by taking an interest in their lessons, and should encourage them to respect and obey the rules and requirements of the school. And they

October 5, 1891. Dying on January 4, 1892, age 2y 11m 25d. The funeral service was held at # 72 School House, buried in the Overland Trail Cemetery.

DIED:

On December 22, 1891, EMMA, daughter of THEODORE AND LENA MEECKE, age 1y 11m 3d.

MARRIED:

At the Catholic church in Troy, Kansas, January 12, 1892, Mr. WILLIAM A. BUSSENBARRICK, of near Leona, and Miss MARY A KIR-WIN, of near Troy, were married by Rev. P. McKEEVER, O.S.B. of Atchison, Kansas. A large reception followed by their friends and relatives. The happy couple will make their future home near Leona.

Obit:

Mr. ISAAC FRENCH was born in Providence, Rhode Island, on April 19th, 1814, and died at his home near Highland Station on January 13, 1892, aged 77 years. He lived in Providence until 1854 when he came west with the tide of emigrants to the Territory of Kansas, and resided here the remainder of his life.

He became a professor of religion at the age of 19, uniting with the United Brethren church at Providence. After coming west, and finding no organization of his own denomination, he united with the Christian, or Disciple church.

He and Miss ELIZABETH MALLOWS were united in marriage, November 11, 1857. Nine children were born to them, 6 sons and 3 daughters, of whom 6 are still living and his widow mourns his passing.

Memories of an Old School Teacher

Pedegogy of 1864 in the Old Petersburgh District Gives Reminiscences of Early Days in the Crude Schoolhouse Made of Rough Lumber—Seats for the Pupils Were Made from the First Surf Cut From the Log, and Had No Backs—Desks Placed Were on the Side of the House With the Scholars Facing the Wall—No Ceiling and No Plaster—Huge Stove Was Largest Piece of Furniture in the Room.

The difference between present school accommodations and those of the early days of Dunlap County, as pronounced it is deplorable. If modern children would turn about and look at the discomforts suffered by their parents. Nowadays school children must have steam heat and warmed desks, polished chairs, and all manner of toilet incidents. The wonder is what they would do in the old log school house with rough slabs of logs were noted for their liberality, paid me $4 per month, or $41 per day —manifest sum, indeed. After attending three years in Ohio, I decided to go West and follow the advice of Horace Greeley, then commonly quoted by every school boy: "Young man, go West, and grow up with the country." On August 15, 1864, I arrived at St. Joseph, which was then merely a struggling trading post, and crossed the river in a ferryboat, landing in Esto teach in the Petersburgh district. The school board engaged me to teach there, agreeing to pay me $45 per month. The wages were far below the rate then, and in order to appreciate the surroundings, I will fully describe my school. The Petersburgh district was a new house, about 24 feet in dimensions. It was constructed of cowtown and sycamore lumber, fresh from the sawmill in Petersburgh. The shingles were cowtown, made with a two. The floor was of cowtown planked with long slats between the log, and the walls were faced in them, or, rather supports, were made. The stoves had no backs. The writing desks were just as crude, he being fastened perpendicularly against the side of the house, so that when the scholar was writing, his back was toward the teacher.

The store was an old-time box shop, with a large round drum on it. It was the most pretentious piece of furni-for seats, no ceiling to the room, and the walls all unplastered. I shall en-davor to give a description of early-time school conditions in Dunlap County and other places where I have had experience.

I was born in the Old Petersburgh school, fourteen miles southeast of Troy, and in other Dunlap County schools afterward.

My very first experience in teaching was in the state of Ohio. I received the payment of $20 per month for two weeks, and was consider the average prices those days. The next year, a board whose memsilhouettes was very much of a town at that time, and far ahead of her time. She was sent to St. Joseph, where she did not take away any difference. I was in the county about eight or ten miles south of St. Joseph. I have lived in the county ever since. That was my first visit to Kansas, and I can vividly recall the strangeness of the scenes and the difference to the present day.

After the necessary preliminaries were over, such as making merrily-

The walls of the boards were weather-beaten with native cowtown lumber, but there was no plaster anywhere. The school house was situated between two bluffs, one on the east, and the other on the west, both covered with a dense growth of large forest timber. This feat made it appear as though the sun could not break through the trees in the early days I would have to discuss school days I would have to have a light furnished with lighting facilities of any kind.

I lost no time in starting, and everything was set running smoothly. At the end of two weeks, I had satisfied the board and the community, and was, from five to twenty-one years old. We had all sorts of textbooks. Some had been used in different states, and one or two had been drawn from a foreign country. Imagine a modern teacher's charge at such a proposition! After I had been employed two weeks, I notified the school board to come on Monday morning and look over the school and see how I was progressing.

They were on hand very early. Some of the board members thought I had been troubling with some of the older scholars, but such was not the case. Everyone was very pleasant. The superintendent had been called upon before, except in cases of trouble. He simply wanted them to see that the children were learning, and that relations between myself and my pupils were harmonious. The board was evidently satisfied, as they in-pressed my pay from $40 to $50 per month. Then I hired a young man to Several coffins were seen going down the river in its recent rise. It was not known whether there were corpses in them, but the supposition is they may have been washed out of some grave yard near the river bank.

April 7, 1884:
Obituary: Died at her home in Willis, Brown county, March 28, in her 96th year, Mrs. THURA JASPER, wife of C. C. JASPER. Her maiden name was THURA HAINES, born in Somerset, Pulaski County, Kentucky October 16, 1812, where she lived until her marriage August 27, 1831. She moved with her husband to Pike County, Missouri, then to Holmes County, Mississippi and after ten years came back to Missouri, settling in Holt County in 1844. They came to Doniphian County in 1856. After the outbreak of the war they moved to Andrew County, Missouri. In 1868 they came back to Doniphian County. She leaves four daughters and two sons and a husband. Burial at Highland.

DIED:
March 30, GEORGE BASKINS, at his residence 2 miles north of Fanning. He was born in Morrow County, Ohio in 1835, came to Holt County, Missouri in 1852, to Doniphian County in 1869. He

It’s a clean sweep!!!! The Democrats have elected the President, a large majority in the lower house of Congress and after the 4th of March they will have a majority in the Senate. There will be nothing in their way to prevent their carrying out everything they have pledged themselves to do. Will they do it, or will they be afraid to fulfill their pledges?

They can repeal the McKinley Bill, and what they call the reciprocity humbug, and establish free trade, or what call a tariff for revenue only. They can take the tax off of whiskey and tobacco, and place it where it will raise the most revenue, which will be on articles most largely consumed by the masses of the people, such as sugar, coffee and tea.

They can repeal the 10 percent tax on State bank issues, and again place the country at risk and at the mercy of wild-cat banks, from which it has been free ever since the Republican party came to power.

They can repeal the dependent pension bill, and stop the robbery of the Treasury by the old soldiers.

NOTICE for DIVORCE:
Theresa H. Hauxhurst vs James F. W. Hauxhurst, by Atty F. M. Keith, Aug. 1, 1872.
ADMINISTRATION NOTICE:
Estate of William D. Yaryan, deceased, Sarah A. Yaryan, Adm.

Joseph D. Price, living on Rock creek, three miles from Doniphan, met with a terrible death last Monday. He owned a large blooded bull, for which he had paid a large sum of money. On Monday the bull attacked Mr. Price's son, when the father got into the lot to save the boy, then the bull caught him against a bank, where he gored him until he was badly hurt that he died shortly after. Mr. Price was a prominent farmer and a highly respected citizen, a cousin of Judge Price of this place. He leaves a wife and several children.

As we advised, CHARLEY STEWART has taken warning from his many accidents, and reformed. Although not yet restored to his right mind from his recent bump, he got drunk Tuesday, threatened to kill his father, who is probably on his death-bed, and also threatened to murder his wife and baby, causing them to flee from home for safety.

ANNE REVILLE, Teacher.

OUR NOTE: The following article was written over 100 years ago and it is just important in 1995 as it was in 1891, perhaps moreso when one considers the importance of our children's education, therefore we included it. Feel free to use in your local papers. The item:

DUTIES OF PARENTS TO SCHOOLS

Beside visiting the school, and co-operating and sympathizing with the teacher, parents can do much for its improvement and success by manifesting, at all proper places, an interest in its exercises, thus showing to their children, in a convincing manner that the duties of the school are not to be regarded as of little consequence.

Parents should encourage children to be studious, by taking an interest in their lessons, and should encourage them to respect and obey the rules and requirements of the school. And they

Webber, Christian

Dec. 2, 1917

Christian Webber was born February 15, 1861, in Jefferson County, Pa., and died at his home in Doniphan County, Kansas, about six miles south of Troy, December 2, 1917. He came to Kansas in 1872, with his parents settling in Doniphan County. On November 27, 1884, he was married to Miss Tillie Leyman. Five children were born to this union, four boys and one girl. This wife died February 14, 1907. Sometime after this he married Mrs. Rachel Smith and three children were born to this union. Besides his own immediate family, of wife and eight children and one step-daughter, he leaves four brothers and two sisters. All of these were present at the funeral. The funeral services were conducted by the Rev. N. J. Adams, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of Troy, in the New Hope church. Mr. Webber's long residence in the county and his large family connection brought an audience to the services that filled the church. After the services in the church, the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery in the churchyard.

New Hope Cemetery
Henry Weber, Jr., died Tuesday evening, Sept. 13, 1909, at his father's home seven miles north of Wathena. He was about 20 years of age and died after a lingering illness of several weeks, which began with malaria and pneumonia and ran into typhoid fever. Everything that was in the power of medical aid was done for him, and his death was much regretted by the entire community. The deceased was a very highly respected young man and was held in the highest esteem by all who knew him.
