What ARE you doing?

Ain't I sweet?

Rub my back and win my heart.

The Marx Brothers.

Facelifts are really great!

Brian's best side.

I am a baby.

This foreign class gets me.

Is this pose OK?

Leigh Ann's idea of style.

See what they put me in here with?

All for one, and one for all.

Think you'd want to eat here?

We want some girls!

Now class pay attention!

Volleyball

Highland High School participated in Volleyball this year for the first time. The season was one of learning for everyone involved, and although the team won no matches, several observers and participants commented that the HHS girls were the best firstyear players they had seen.

Coach Janet Rudder felt the girls worked hard and built a good foundation for future volleyball season.

"Excusa me plez, I'ma come to talka for Joe."

"Here's a couple of special deliver letters, Mr. Morlock."

Mr. Morlock's a fidgety, nervous, grouchy old goat who doesn't like anything but money, won't let his family do anything; always gripes about his pains and aches, feuds with everyone and he won't let daughter Mary, 20, become engaged to Joe Lanconi because Joe's papa is poor. So when Joe's papa, Luigi, comes over to plead his son's case, he's practically booted out of the house. Right here the two old fellows start a feud that puts the Hatfield-McCoy fracas to shame. Because of his bad heart, Luigi konks out. The feud appears over. All is lost.

But whoa up! Hold the phone! Luigi gets permission to come back and haunt Mr. Morlock until he gives his permission for the wedding. Poor Mr. Morlock. Can't eat; can't sleep. His family thinks he's nuts. He takes to many sleeping pills, then he too kicks the bucket. Lucifer, the rounderupper of lost souls from "down-below" drops in-pitchfork and all-to take Mr. Morlock to the lower regions. He watches things at home. Nothing has changed. No one misses him. Mary prepares for her wedding; daughter Jessica, 13, prepares to start her wrestling career; Mother Morlock is smiling again and family doctor Brown, holds her hand and hints at matrimony. Mr. Morlock realizes what a heel he's been. The maid, Mildred, awakens him. It was all a dream.

"I said he ain't seein' nobody."

"Take that old man."

"Mr. Morlock, sir, I'ma Luigi Lanconi."

"My Joe isa notta pauper."

Kayette Mother-Daughter Tea Over The Rainbow

On May 4 the Highland Sophomore Kayettes presented the annual Mother-Daughter Tea. This year's theme was "Over the Rainbow." The evening's entertainment included vocal and instrumental music, dramatic interpretation, and, of course, the latest fashions. Under Mrs. Bauer's guidance, the 1982 Mother-Daughter Tea was an enjoyable voyage "down the Yellow Brick Road."

The welcome ...

Tina Scott, Highland's Jr. Miss candidate, becomes Eliza Doolittle.

Judy and Kelly play "Tea for Two."

Leigh Ann sings a song from "Finian's Rainbow."

Senior Sneak

Highland's crew takes over the floor.

Early on May 9 a bedraggled group of 30 seniors left for Kalfran Lodge at Osage Beach, Missouri. While they were at Osage Beach the seniors swam, went skiing, saw the Ozark Opry, rode go-carts, bumper cars, and the sky slide, and totally enjoyed the sunny 80 degree weather. They were sponsored by Millie Gettler and Janet Rudder, and Gary Koelliker drove the bus.

When the group returned on May 12 they were tired, happy, and very sunburned, but all had lots of memories of a great Senior Sneak!

"Billy, look at my ouchie!"

Mrs. Gettler counts the chickens.

Pac-Man?

Hi, girls!

Joe doesn't plan on losing this game.

There they go!

Get 'em, Julie!

These are Seniors?

Even watching bumper cars is fun!

Thrilling!

Where's the starter?

Get 'em, Dana!

What's the matter, Lisa?

And he drove the bus?

Smile, Curt.

Kim!

Kim!

Hard to be serious, is it?

Hey ... decent!

Careful, Ronnie!!

Highland takes over the pool, too.

"Ya wanna fight?"

"How do yo get up there?"

Hi, Phyllis!

Smile!

Better Hurry, Chris!
