"I thought we had a decent season. We played as a team and always played with heart. I will miss being a part of the Lady Trojan Basketball team," said senior Tanner Weishaar.

"We greatly improved from last year and it was a great learning experience and a lot of fun," said junior Caleb Winkel.

"For being such a young team, we did very well. With hard work and effort we will come back and kick butt next year," said freshman Lauren Wigger.

"It definitely wasn't the season we all had hoped for, but we look forward to next season. It should be good," said sophomore Collin Jasper.

Many teams showed great accomplishments. The varsity basketball girls took second in the Hiawatha tournament.

The softball and baseball teams both made it past the first round of regionals.

Several students excelled in different sports, receiving All-League honors. The following received the Kpreps All-District 1st Team: Jake Ross, receiver; Chris Tharman, lineman; Jay Whetstine, linebacker; Nathan Gaarder, punter. The following received Honorable Mention: Daniel Cordonnier, offensive and defensive line; Preston Foley, defensive back; Colton Masters, running back; Nathan Gaarder, defensive end.

Chris Tharman and Jay Whetstine were named to the Topeka Capital Journal All-State Football Team.

Seniors Reece Simpson, Paige Fenley, and Kelli Marriott were chosen to play in the All-Star basketball game, while senior Tanner Weishaar was chosen to play in the volleyball All-Star game.

"This year we grew even more as a team and as young men. Next year will be the year all the hard work pays off."

Head Coach
Ronnie Shelton

Assistant Coach
Jeremy Prudden

"The season didn't go as well as we would've liked, but many positives can be taken from the situation."

The Trojan football team's head coach, Ronnie Shelton, returned to coach. The team started the season with a loss against ACCHS of 6-7.

The team played Maur Hill but ended up losing 7-34.

They couldn't seem to catch a break with yet another loss versus Horton, falling 12-30.

Troy headed into the game against Riverside with a good feeling. They took a stand and held Riverside until the fourth quarter when they fell 0-6.

For Homecoming, Troy played the Jackson Heights Cobras. The Trojans' hard work paid off, giving them an 8-6 victory.

The Trojans faced Valley Heights and lost with a final score of 6-39.

They then went up against Centralia. The team played hard but lost 0-55. Troy bounced back from their losses and won 44-20 against Immaculata.

To end their season, the team played a rivalry team, the Doniphan West Mustangs. They lost 6-22 and finished the season with a record of 2-7.

Chris Tharman, senior, was honored with Honorable Mention Lineman and Jay Whetstine, sophomore, Honorable Mention Linebacker. Whetstine also received the Tom Keller Award for most tackles. Chris Tharman, Daniel Cordonnier, Preston Foley, Colton Masters, Jay Whetstine, Nathan Gaarder, and Jake Ross received All-League honors.

"Our team showed a lot of growth this year. We played some really close games and took a lot of them to three sets. We had a good building year. I wish this year's seniors were still going to be here next year. We will miss them."

Volleyball Coach
Matt Allison

Cross Country
Coach Douglas
Fisher

"In cross country you have to get lost in running in order for it to be awesome."

The volleyball team was coached by Mr. Matt Allison, assisted by Mrs. Julie Werner, for the second year. This volleyball season had its ups and downs, but the team finished with an overall record of 6-25. For the season the team had 361 kills, 218 serving aces, 177 total blocks, 617 digs, 348 assists, 850 successful serve receives.

"I liked the season, because Coach Allison has been the best volleyball coach out of all the coaches we've had," said senior Carmen Turpin.

The cross country team was under a new coach, Mr. Douglas Fisher. Unlike recent years, the team was a pretty decent size. There were enough girls to run as a team, and the boys were only one person short of having a team.

At regionals the girls got to run as a team and ended up being only a few seconds away from going to state.

"Everyone improved through the season because we all pushed ourselves harder every day no matter how hard the meets or practices were," said junior Alex Stanton.

"Our season was once again filled with plenty of ups and downs, but, reflecting back, I believe it was successful and a step in the right direction."

Head Coach
Derek Jasper

Assistant Coach
Kevin McNorton

"The JV team did a great job this year, winning all but one game. I really enjoyed my last year of coaching with this group of girls."

The girls' basketball team was coached by Derek Jasper and assisted by Coach Kevin McNorton.

Overall the team finished with an 11-10 record and a 7-5 DVL record. All together they scored a total of 846 points.

Senior Paige Fenley received the first-team DVL award, and senior Kelli Marriott received an Honorable Mention DVL award.

"We made some major improvements. I was proud of our team, how we got second in the Hiawatha tournament, and that we won our first post-season game in four years. It was really fun for me and I made some great memories," said senior Paige Fenley.

The team finished with a winning record. They brought home the second-place trophy from the Hiawatha tournament. The team won their first sub-state game since 2009.

The JV team finished with a 14-1 overall record and a 10-1 DVL record.

"Our seniors can be proud of these accomplishments. Our junior varsity concluded with a 14-1 record. So we better have a bright future ahead of us," said Coach Jasper.

The team managers were Mikaela Campbell and Blair Weishaar. Campbell recorded the games while Weishaar kept stats and filled water bottles.

"I felt this was a good year. We doubled our win total despite having three key injuries to starters and our JV went 13-3. These young men were a joy to coach and watch mature throughout the year."

Head Coach
Dallas Keller

Assistant Coach
Roger Purdy

"I thought we had a tough season. We had a relatively inexperienced team and a senior returning from a knee injury. There was great deal of improvement and it was nice to see underclassmen step up into leadership roles."

The boys' basketball team was coached by Dallas Keller with assistant Roger Purdy.

The team finished with a 9-11 record and a 5-7 DVL record. Overall the team scored a total of 1034 points. Collin Jasper had the most with 249 points, and Jake Ross had 216 points.

Jasper and Ross both received second-team DVL honors. Reece Simpson received an Honorable Mention DVL honor.

"We had a good season and improved a lot from last year. I had a lot of fun with the team," said senior Reece Simpson.

The JV team finished with a record of 13-3. Altogether the JV team finished with a total of 761 points. The player with the most points was Luke Smith, who finished with 146. Following him was Colton Masters with 114.

"I thought this season went well. I'm going to miss playing with the seniors," said freshman Luke Smith.

The team managers were Mikaela Campbell, Reid Greaser, Reid Jasper, and Tate Smith. Campbell recorded the games and the rest helped keep stats and filled water bottles.

"I want to thank all the cheerleaders and dancers for a wonderful fun-filled year! I am so proud of each and everyone of you. I love you, ladies, and always 'bleed blue!'"

Cheer and Dance Sponsor Janel Anderson

Senior Dancer Tanner Weishaar

"Dance was amazing this year! Janel was a great sponsor who really pushed us to be our best. From 'wowing' people to making them cry; all the time and dedication was worth it. I will greatly miss it and all of the amazing girls who made my senior year of dance very memorable!"

Both the cheer squad and dance team were sponsored by Mrs. Janel Anderson. The cheerleaders' responsibility was to cheer at the boys' football games and varsity boys' and girls' basketball games. They also cheered at pep rallies, Homecoming, and Queen Of Courts.

"I enjoyed cheer a lot this year. It helped with having a great sponsor and a fun group to be around! I can't wait until senior year of cheering and dance and being with them all for the last time. I thought the dance we did for Breast Cancer Awareness was a lot of fun; everyone enjoyed it," said junior Harley Huss.

The dance team was responsible for putting on halftime performances at the home boys' football and basketball games. They also took part in a kiddie clinic for elementary students. Dancers also performed at pep rallies.

Both cheer and dance participated in the Spirit Spreader at the Highland Wellness Center. There, cheerleaders learned new cheers and stunts to get the crowds involved during games. The dancers learned new dances to perform.

"Dance was a great experience for me this year. It was crazy being in both cheer and dance but it was a lot of fun. My favorite dance was 'Crazy Train' that we performed at late night," said freshman Jacklynn Clary.

"As the season progressed so did our times, jumps, and throws. Everyone got better and made memories along the way. That is what high school is about."

Ron Shelton Douglas Fisher

"Track is for competing against others better than you; the question is can you compete against them and win even though it will be tough?"

The track team consisted of 22 members. They were coached by Ron Shelton and Douglas Fisher.

Freshman Holly Whetstine was the only team member to qualify for state competition in Wichita. At regionals, she had a jump of 15'8" sending her to State where she tied at 11th place.

The team started off their season at the Riverside Relays. Lauren Wigger placed 6th in hurdles, and Holly Whetstine placed 2nd in the 100 M dash and 3rd in long jump. The 4x100 M relay team placed 2nd. Jay Whetstine placed 3rd in shotput, Dalton Masters placed 1st in discus and 2nd in shotput, the 4x100 M weightmans's relay placed 4th, the 4x200 M relay placed 3rd, and the 4x800 M relay placed 5th. . The girls ended the meet with 39 points, putting them in 8th place. The boys ended with 36 points and also finished in 8th place.

The next meet was at McLouth. There, Holly Whetstine placed 6th in long jump, and Dalton Masters placed 3rd in shot put and 4th in discus.

Results from other meets were unavailable, but the team also competed at Effingham, Doniphan West, Hiawatha, and again at Effingham for DVL.

"This track season was fun. I enjoyed competing with my friends and meeting new people." said sophomore Bailey Groninger.

"Each year our girls become more successful and work harder. This year was no different; we made tremendous strides defensively, not allowing many runs. We had some really close games against tough teams and the girls never gave up. It was an overall great season."

Softball Coach
Matt Allison

Baseball Coach
Roger Purdy

"Although the season didn't end the way we had hoped, we still had great accomplishments on the baseball field. We had a very successful season, and I know every player left everything on the field!"

The softball and baseball teams both had good seasons, and both made it to the second game of Regionals.

The softball team was coached by Matt Allison, assisted by Abra Rush. This was Mr. Allison's third year of coaching the softball team. The managers were Blair Weishaar and Mikaela Campbell.

The team gained only one freshman, Cailyn Anderson, and had five seniors, Tanner Weishaar, Kelli Marriott, Ravan Kentzler, Tori King, and Paige Fenley.

The girls ended the season with a record of 10-7. "Our season didn't turn out as great as I thought it would, but we never gave up on each other and I'm proud of my team. Our record doesn't show how we fought during games or how we played together," said junior Kaylee Bennett.

The baseball team also had a good season with their final record at 11-7. The baseball team was coached by Roger Purdy, assisted by Jeremy Prudden. Their manager was Reid Greaser. This was Mr. Purdy's second year as head coach and also Mr. Prudden's second year as assistant coach. The baseball team gained four freshmen: Dylan Langford, Chris Winkel, Taylor Scherer, and Tucker Morris. The team had a total of 14 players.

The team had only one senior, Reece Simpson. "It was a really fun year and I enjoyed spending time with the team. I was glad to go out with a winning record," said Simpson.

"It [sophomore speech] helped me develop writing skills and taught me to be a better public speaker," said sophomore Derek Franken.

"It [chemistry] was definitely a challenging class, but in the end I knew I walked out with a new look at the world of science," said junior Katrina Tharman.

"I enjoyed reenacting the different plays for our theater survey class. It was very fun," said junior William Boeh.

"I enjoy working in the lab during biology class, because it makes time go by faster," said sophomore Brea Smith.

Students continued to excel in all the classes. There were many changes to classes, as teachers were supposed to get the students to learn to work cooperatively and to use different critical thinking techniques. This was the last year of state assessments related to No Child Left Behind.

Senior release was different this year. Even if a student had the grades to be eligible, he or she had to give a presentation as to why senior release would be appropriate. For senior release, it was a requirement that a student either had to be taking a college class or going to work. Olivia Robinson was able to take senior release.

Like 2011-2012, only seniors were allowed to serve as teacher aides. College courses were again offered. These classes included college algebra and English composition 1 and 2.

Spanish/History

New faces were seen in the Spanish and the American government classes.

Ms. Rosa Dolven, who is originally from Atchison, came to Troy High School this year to teach the Spanish I class. If students wanted to take Spanish II, they had to do so on the Internet through the program Odysseyware, which is set up like a college class.

In Spanish I, the students learned the basics of Spanish, including their alphabet, numbers, and days of the week. In Spanish II students learned about verb tenses and vocabulary.

The Spanish classes made pinatas and also at times got to bring in Spanish foods to eat with the class.

Returning teacher, Jeremy Prudden switched gears from teaching English to teaching world history, and American history. In geography, students learned about Asia and Europe. World history covered different events that happened throughout the time from human beginnings up to the 1600s.

American history covered the basic history of our country.

Mr. Ben Dugan, a new teacher, taught one of the senior requirements. The seniors learned about the different systems in government from when America was formed to the present. They also learned about political issues. The seniors had to keep political dictionaries for a big part of their grade. They also got to do many activities to learn from a different perspective.

Math/Science

Mrs. Michelle Newkirk taught four math subjects: Algebra I, Algebra II, college algebra, and math fundamentals. Mr. Luke Hall, student teacher, taught with her during the second semester.

In Algebra 1, students built their essay skills. Algebra 2 students built math skills and learned new ones. College algebra students learned math skills that would prepare them for future college classes. In math fundamentals students built on their math skills to prepare for state assessments.

Mr. Douglas Fisher taught Algebra 1, geometry, and pre-algebra. Students in Algebra 1 were split between Mrs. Newkirk and Mr. Fisher. In geometry, students learned dimensions of lines and other details of working with shapes, such as triangles.

Mr. Kevin McNorton taught biology, chemistry, and earth and space science. Freshmen and sophomores took biology. This was a change from previous years, and was put into the schedule so that biology would become a freshman-level course. This would help prepare younger students for state assessments.

In biology, the students learned about cells and animal life. In chemistry students learned about matter and the periodic table. In earth and space science, students learned about how the earth works and interesting things about space.

Mrs. Jene't Brown taught accounting where students learned how to keep track of finances, and about debits and credits.

P.E./Computers

The P.E classes offered were weights and freshman P.E/health, both taught by Coach Derek Jasper.

Freshman P.E/health was a required class that covered basics of exercising and health. This class could help students discover other talents or activities when they aren't interested in traditional competitive sports.

Weights was a class offered for sophomores, juniors, and seniors.

During this class, students completed workouts which targeted different muscles in the body each day of the week. Examples of these workouts are jump rope, box jumps, ladder drills, and cross-court exercises.

Jasper also taught a freshman health class that discussed the dangers of drugs and alcohol and different aspects of the body.

Mrs. Jene't Brown taught desktop publishing, sports and entertainment marketing, and Multimedia I and Multimedia II.

Computer applications was a beginning computer class that gave students the opportunity to work on Microsoft office, Adobe Photoshop, and I-Movie.

The students in desktop publishing/Multimedia I focused on desktop publishing during the first semester and Multimedia I the second semester. They used Adobe Photoshop and Adobe InDesign during desktop publishing, and Adobe Flash and I-Movie for multimedia. The Multimedia I class worked with media, audio, video, and animation.

Sports and entertainment marketing focused on the study of entrepreneurship and how to get into the business side of sports and entertainment marketing.

Ag/Industrial Arts

Students enrolled in agricultural education had many opportunities. All classes were under the direction of Mr. Darrin Arment. He taught animal sciences, ag welding, agriscience, environmental and horticulture research, and agriscience research.

Throughout all classes students participated in many hands-on activities. Animal science students judged livestock as well as making presentations and studying the history of animal production. Ag welding students worked in the shop to increase their knowledge of machines. Agriscience and ag research students often prepared presentations about agriculture for younger students. They also hosted the Ag in Kansas Postcard Contest.

Senior Tanna Meng said, "Being in research in ag class this year has been an adventure. We focused our time on improving our FFA Chapter and involving the grade school students in agricultural education."

On the other side of the hallway, Mr. Gene Velharticky taught industrial arts. Throughout the day he taught Industrial Arts I and II.

Junior Holly Stegall said, "Industrial arts is one of my favorite classes. I like it because the skills are practical. I can also be creative."

Students in wood shop were required to make several projects throughout the year, depending on their skill level and class. Some of these projects included towel racks, stools, book ends, and much more.

When students had completed these projects, they then drew designs on CAD, and made what they were capable of, such as bookshelves or stage sets.

English and Publications

Ms. Rosa Dolven was a new addition to the Troy staff. Dolven taught English I, II, III, IV, and fundamentals. Dolven also taught Spanish I at the end of the day. Students read several novels in her classes, such as the Scarlett Letter, and they engaged in class discussion time.

Downstairs Mrs. Martha-Jean Rockey taught English I, II, III, IV, and college English. Some of the units in the English classes were modern British literature, poetry, and theatre survey.

Mrs. Rockey also advised the publications staff, which produced the monthly paper, The Trojan Trumpet, and the yearbook, The Trojan. The school's entries were 4th overall in the class 2A KSPA state journalism contest. The results were as follows: Tanna Meng, 1st in editorial writing; Braden Grossman, 3rd in editorial cartoon; Courtney Klaus and Ravan Kentzler, honorable mention in writing captions; Jacob Winkel, honorable mention in feature writing; Baileigh Jenkins and Jessica Guffy, 3rd as a team in theme development; Courtney Klaus, honorable mention in headlines; Tanner Weishaar, honorable mention in layout; and Ravan Kentzler, honorable mention in sports photography. Others who competed at state were Alanie Stock, Destiny O'Donnell, Halli Wigger, Kelli Marriott, Hanna King, and Alex Winder.

"It was an honor and a blessing to serve Troy High School as the Trojan Twirler this year," said junior Halli Wigger.

"Senior trip was fun and eventful. I think it brought some people closer together than what they were before," said senior Chasity Wetmore.

"Being a part of the boys' dance was very interesting. I learned to not cross with Janel," said sophomore Trae Shelton.

"I thought it was a lot more fun having something to do every night during Homecoming week," said senior Kelli Marriott.

Troy High School gained new staff members. These members included Jared Wigger, Ben Dugan, Rosa Dolven, and Douglas Fisher. Wigger served as the principal, Dugan was the government teacher, Dolven taught English and Spanish, and Fisher taught pre-algebra, Algebra 1, geometry, and business math.

Students participated in different class activities, as well as doing desk work too. They were able to do hands-on activities and group work projects in many classes.

Faculty and Staff

Troy High School gained several new faculty and staff members: Rosa Dolven, who taught freshman English, sophomore English, junior/senior English and Spanish; Douglas Fisher, who taught pre-algebra, Algebra I, and geometry; Ben Dugan, who taught middle school social studies and government; and Ryan Ostrander, who helped in special education.

Troy High also had a new principal: Jared Wigger, who came from Chetopa, to take over the job as Don Cash retired after 34 years in the school

If the opportunity doesn't knock, build a door. -
Class Motto

Coming into high school can be very nerve-racking for freshmen. There are new teachers, classrooms, sports teams, upper-classmen to associate with, and different clubs.

Freshmen were required to take English I with Martha-Jean Rocky or Rosa Dolven, biology with Kevin McNorton, computer applications with Jene't Brown, p.e/health with Derek Jasper, and Algebra I/pre-algebra with Douglas Fisher or Michelle Newkirk.

During Spirit Week the freshmen participated in the window-decorating contest, float contest, and hallway-decorating contest. Out of those three contests, the freshmen won the window painting and the hallway decorating. They decorated the lower hallway. The freshmen used streamers, little Trojan heads and blew up many balloons to fill the hallway.

"Freshman year was really fun. My favorite part was basketball season," said Makayla Ross.

The sophomore class had another year of high school under their belt. Sophomores won the best float during Homecoming week with their float, "The Comebacks."

As sophomores, they were required to take English II, biology, and Algebra I or geometry.

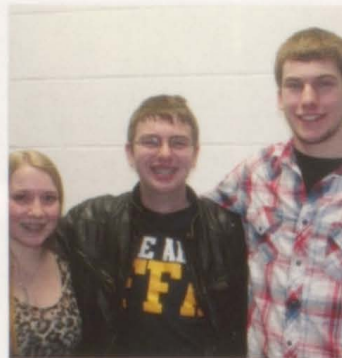

The biology classes were taught by Mr. Kevin McNorton, and the English classes were taught by Mrs. Martha-Jean Rockey and Ms. Rosa Dolven.

"All in all the graduating class of 2015 had a good year. Winning the float competition was a nice highlight," said class president, Braden Grossman.

Junior year, another step closer to senior year! The juniors took part in many activities; some made it to state in journalism contests, while some excelled in sports. Most took the ACT for the first time, while others went to several junior/senior college days.

The juniors were required to take American history with Mr. Jeremy Prudden and English III with Mrs. Martha-Jean Rockey and Ms. Rosa Dolven. The year consisted of earning as much money as possible for Prom.

Seniors

The last year of high school can be a scary, yet great experience.

The seniors spent their time working on two required classes: American government and English IV, deciding where to go on senior trip, and raising money for the trip.

In their English class, the seniors experienced the work field and had to participate in a job-shadowing activity where they had to pick a career, write a research paper, and shadow a person in that career.

To raise money for senior trip, the seniors sold magazines, had a chili/soup supper during basketball, held a Christmas dance, worked concession stands, and sold ice cream at lunch.

For senior trip, they traveled by bus to Dallas, Texas, where they shared many different experiences.

"I really enjoyed both of my art classes and helping with the second graders this year! But I am glad that high school is finally over," said senior Olivia Robinson.

Make the most out of your college years. Study hard, but have fun. We know you can do anything you put your mind to. Keep your faith and be true to yourself and everything will work out for you. God has a special plan for you, so don't be afraid to embrace the future. And remember, we will always be here for you.

Love, Mom and Dad

Kelli Marriott

Thomas, you have been a special young man in our lives. We are so proud of you. We hope you will always succeed in life. You are loved and we will always be here for you. Follow your dreams and you really didn't need "Hooked on Phonics" after all.

Love you, Dad, Mom, Leslie, Johnny, and your old friend Kate

Thomas Hegarty

Chasity,
May you continue striving for never-ending depth relationship that grows and blesses. Going to our Father's house on Sunday with your sisters--not just my children I am proud to claim.

Chasity, you are the baby who I wanted to protect while allowed.

With blessing you conquered, controlled, and succeeded. May your continue to win through life cowgirling up with the Lord.

Know how loved and blessing-counted you are.

God's speed and grace.

Love, Mom Wetmore

Chasity Wetmore

It's hard to believe our little Paigy is grown and ready to start a new chapter in life. We know you will do well at K-State and life! Always remember we love you and will always be there for you. One other thing, remember--you will always be our baby!

Love, Mom and Dad

Paige Fenley

Amanda, Wow, where has the time gone? Just yesterday it seems we sent you to kindergarten in pigtails and now you are graduating from high school. We are so proud of the young woman you have become. Always remember to keep God first and where you come from.

Love always,

Mom, Dad, and Aimee

Amanda Clary

Tanner, From your cute little giggles, to wearing your cheerleading skirt every day, to becoming a beautiful person on the inside and outside, we are proud of your academic achievements and have always enjoyed cheering you on at all your ballgames. Never forget that we are always here for you. Let God's work fill your memory, rule your heart, and guide your life.

We love you bunches!

Mom, Dad, Blair, and Jaya

Tanner Weishaar

Reece, We are so proud of you! You have grown up to be an amazing young man. You have brought so much joy to our family and a lot of excitement and medical bills! Trust in the Lord with all your heart and lean not on your own understanding; in all your ways acknowledge him, and he will make your paths straight. Proverbs 3: 5
Best of luck at KU and throughout your lifetime. We love you!

Love, Dad, Mom, and Hannah

Reece Simpson

Dear Carmen, You have grown into a beautiful young woman. Hope you continue to grow and achieve all of your dreams.
Love, Mom and Dad

Carmen Turpin

Jacob, We are so proud of the young man you have become. I know you will continue to make the most out of every moment God has given you. Remember He has great plans for you. No matter where your future takes you, we will always be here for you.

We love you!

Mom and Bailey

Dear Claire, Always competitive to out-do everyone. Slow down, and we hope you realize what a beautiful person you are.

Love, Mom and Dad

Claire Turpin

Tanna, as you take this next journey in your life know that you are not just ordinary; you are extraordinary. Know that we are very proud of your accomplishments, and we know this is just the beginning for you. You can do whatever you put your mind to; remember to have some fun along the way. Dream big and dare to fail, but always know your family is here to catch you.

Love always and forever, your family

Tanna Meng

Eli, there will always be obstacles, speed bumps, hazards, etc. on the road of life, so, please remember to wear your seat belt! We love you and are so proud of you.

All our love, Dad, Mom, Jim & Lacy and kids & Chad & Holly and kids

Eli Whittaker

Austin, we are so proud of the young man you have become. You are so thoughtful and caring and have so much to offer. Just remember to set your goals high and don't be afraid to reach for your goals. There is nothing you can't do if you set your mind to it. Congratulations!

Love Mom, Dad, Danny, Ashley, Allie, and Kynnedi

Austin Weis

Dear Jackie,

We are very proud of you and all of your accomplishments. You are a nice, thoughtful young lady and we look forward to your future. We are blessed to have you.

Love, Mom, Dad, Valerie, and Jacob

Johanna,

Congratulations on making it to your senior year and graduation. We are all very proud of you and your accomplishments. We love you deeply. As one chapter comes to a close, another exciting chapter is just beginning. Great job, Sunshine! Good luck and God bless you as you continue to grow and shine.

Illegitimi non carborundum!

Love you,

Dad, Mom, and Nathan

Hanna King

Ravan,

One day you were getting on the school bus. The next think you are graduating from high school.

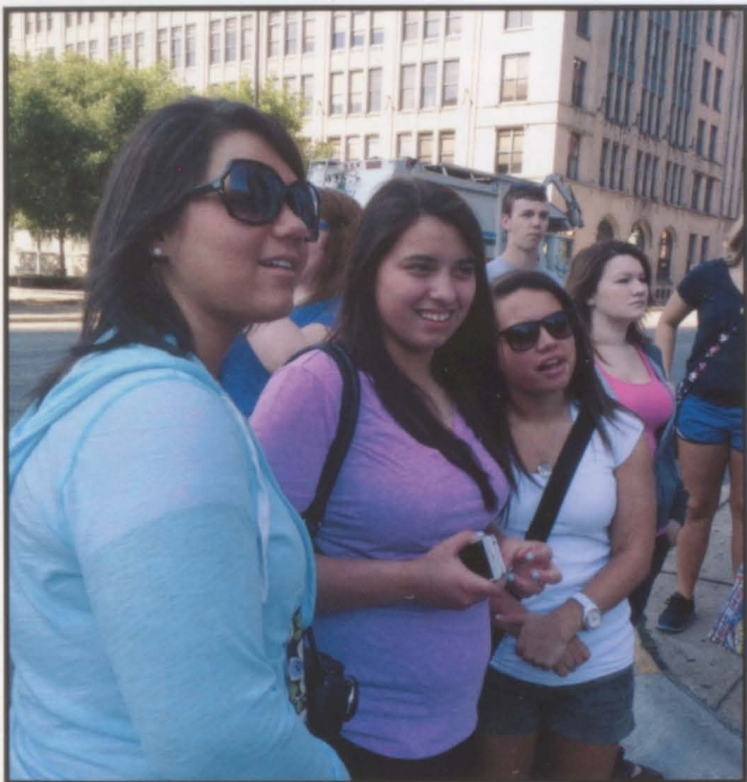

Congratulations and we are proud of you and what a grown up woman you are.

Love, Mom and Dad

"I love it! Band is definitely my favorite class. Everyone has their own individual part, but then it all comes together as one piece, and it's great!" said junior band member Claire Marriott.

"As a freshman I really enjoyed working with the upperclassmen on my first production; they helped me so much and made it so much fun. I can't wait for the next three years to see what's to come!" said freshman drama club member Nathan King.

"I enjoyed being a part of the drama club. It was fun to be able to do people's hair and prep them for the productions," said freshman McKyla Umphenour.

"It was really fun performing. Fine Arts Night is one of my favorite nights." said sophomore Ashley Stock.

Many students made the fine arts program outstanding. The speech team brought home many medals and as a team brought home four plaques, many students earned places for their pieces at DVL Art Day, and many placed in state journalism.

The drama department did well with the fall and spring plays. The spring musical, Into the Woods, brought many challenges for the cast and crew as the Sondheim music was more difficult than students were used to, but they managed to put on a great production.

The Troy Marching Band worked hard to put on the best programs that they could. They also spent some of their time doing numerous fundraisers for the trip they were planning to take in fall 2014 to Orlando, Florida, to perform during the Walt Disney Thanksgiving Day Parade. One highlight of the year was a spring concert combining the band and choir to present music from great musicals.

Art

Mr. Roger Purdy was the art teacher for his third year. He helped students work on the football field for Homecoming and the pink out football game. More artwork was added to the field: the double T, Homecoming field art, and pink cancer ribbon.

The first art contest the students attended was the DVL Art Show, at Doniphan West High School. Many students placed in this contest. There were ten gold medals given: Breanna Smith, "Donuts" torn paper; Alex Stanton (2), "Rich Earth" watercolor and "Golden Bear" oil painting; Nicki Stanton (2), "Red Panda" oil painting and "Saxy Color" watercolor; Olivia Robinson, "Metal Gear Solid Snake" pastels; Ravan Kentzler, "Hibiscus Flower" stippling; Reece Simpson, "Still Life" drawing;

Preston Duncan, "Abe" print; and Braden Grossman, "Medic!" print.

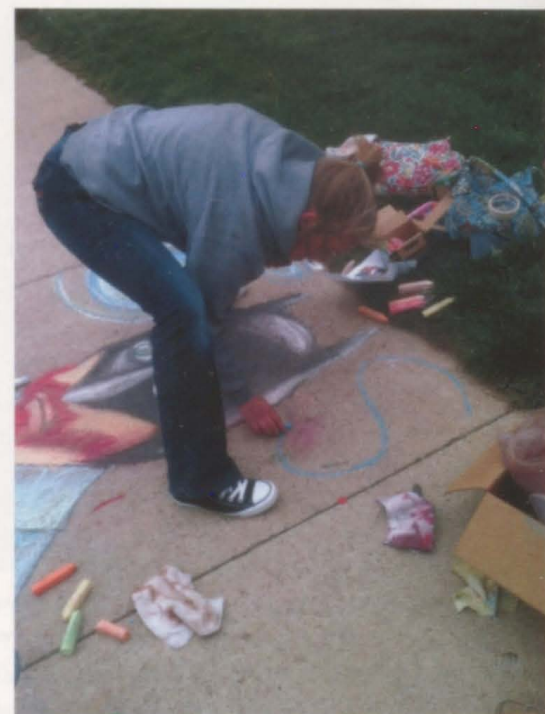

There were 12 certificates of merit awards: Christopher Winkel, "Courthouse" print; Nicki Stanton (2), "The Sight of Music" water color and "The Folded Flag" drawing; Alex Schmile, "Eye of the Tiger" torn paper; Olivia Robinson (2), "The Yak" stippling and "The dead have risen" print; Lauren Wigger, "Giraffe" Print; Claire Turpin (2), "Ladder" photograph and "Truck" photograph; Baileigh Jenkins, "Still life" drawing; Amanda Clary, "Love Birds" torn paper; and Ashley Stock, "Keeping Flight" torn paper.

There were also four honorable mentions: Jackie Mott, "Still Life" drawing; Alex Stanton, "Rose in Color" drawing; Cody Israel, "Broken Dreams" drawing; and Caleb Winkel, "Still Life" drawing.

The final contest the art students attended was the Highland Community College Art Day. Reece Simpson was the only one to receive the Art Excellence Award. He won for his "Still Life" drawing. Alex Stanton and Nicki Stanton each received honorable mention, Alex for "Rich Earth" watercolor and "Golden Bear" oil painting, and Nicki for "Saxy Color" watercolor.

Band and Choir

Mr. Matt Allison inspired new ideas for the Troy High School Choir.

The choir sang at several venues including the Troy Community Building during Christmas time. The choir also utilized a student teacher, Ms. Erin Dorren, from Benedictine College in Atchison during second semester.

The spring concert was the highlight of the year for the choir. They sang a concert inspired by musicals as the band accompanied them. The choir sang several selections ranging from music from Grease to The Sound of Music.

Choir members also traveled to regional music at Atchison High School. The high school choir competed and received a II rating. After that, the girls' choir sang alone and received a III.

Mr. Allison has continued developing the Troy High School band and choir.

World. These fundraisers included a silent auction, biscuit and gravy feed, volleyball tournaments, selling goods, and working concession stands at football and basketball games.

The band also performed a show-stopping rendition of "Party Rock Anthem" at a football game during halftime. In the middle of the show, they put down their instruments and danced.

Another key performance for the band was the honor of playing at the East Hills shopping mall during Christmas.

As well as performances, the band also competed. They marched in the Atchison Christmas Parade and received a I rating, and a near perfect score of 48 out of 50. They also competed at regional and state music. At regionals, Ashley Stock and Holly Stegall both received II ratings on violin and flute, respectively. Braden Grossman competed and received a III on french horn. At state the band received a II rating, and was only four points away from a I.

Due to the time and effort Mr. Allison spent with the choir and band, he was presented the Master Teacher Award during the high school graduation.

Fall Play

The drama club put on Dear Ruth, a romantic comedy by Norman Krasna, as the fall play. The play was set in early summer of 1944 during World War II.

The performance was about the Wilkins family. Miriam (Alex Stanton) starts writing letters to Lt. Seawright (Jacob Winkel) while he is overseas but puts her sister's name on the letters she sent.

Lt. Seawright comes home to marry Ruth Wilkins (Hanna King), thinking from her letters that she is in love with him too, but she is engaged to Albert Kummer (Trae Shelton).

Ultimately two couples find a romantic happy ending, and Miriam learns its best to speak for herself!

Left, top: Ruth and Miriam's parents (Nathan King and Tori King) hope that Ruth is making the correct choice to bring her happiness.

Left, center: Albert (Trae Shelton) is persuaded by Ruth (Hanna King) that she is only keeping the lieutenant happy for the short while he is on leave.

Left, bottom: Albert shows Ruth the plans for the house he is having built for them, not knowing that she is already falling in love with someone else.

The cast found it interesting dealing with a completely different decade of history, although writing letters to servicemen overseas and having a blood drive were still things relevant to today.

Having a troublesome kid sister was also not all that unfamiliar to some.

Other main characters in the small cast of ten were the parents (Nathan King and Tori King), the lieutenant's sister (Nicki Stanton), her boyfriend and his friend (Chris Tharman), the housekeeper (Halli Wigger), and an unexpected caller at the end, another serviceman that Miriam had been writing to (Ben Wardlow).

One challenge was finding uniforms for the servicemen that looked right for the World War II era. Another was convincing the girls that, yes, everyone pretty much wore dresses!

The sound system was run by junior Trevor Bembrick and sophomore Destiny O'Donnell. Lights were run by sophomore Megan Schmilie.

"Working the lights was fun and I really enjoyed being able to help with the play and watch it at the same time," said Schmilie.

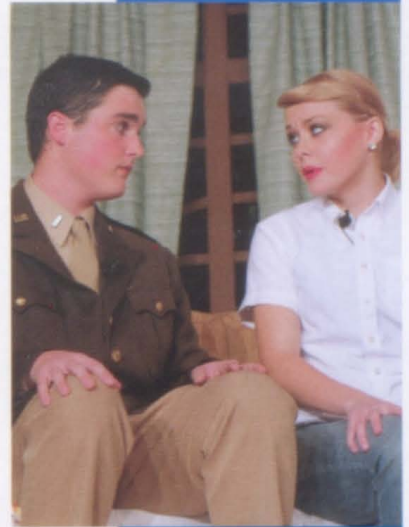

Director Martha-Jean Rockey said, "This has always been a favorite play of mine, and I have done it before. I hesitate to do it because of the small cast, but we had such an ideal group for it this year that it worked perfectly."

Hanna King

"The fall play went really well! We had a talented cast and crew that made it a great success. I'm so sad it was my last one!"

Halli Wigger

"I really enjoyed being in the play this fall. It was the first time I'd done anything like that and I was glad I could just jump in as a new kid."

Spring Musical

For the spring musical, the drama club performed Into The Woods by Stephen Sondheim. The story combines the fairytale stories of Cinderella, Rapunzel, Jack and the Beanstalk, and Little Red Ridinghood with a story of the Baker and His Wife to connect them all together.

Five characters each have a wish. Cinderella (Hanna King) wishes to go to the King's festival. Jack (Trae Shelton) wishes his cow Milky White (Dylan Kitzman) would produce more milk. The Baker (Braden Grossman) and his wife (Tori King) wish they could have a child. And the Witch (Amanda Clary) wishes to be young and beautiful again.

#Bottom left: The Witch (Amanda Clary) confronts the Prince (Dillon Rush) as he tries to persuade her to leave Rapunzel (Paige Fenley) alone. The play featured two Prince Charmings; Chris Tharman played the Prince to Cinderella, and later to the Baker's Wife.

The Baker's neighbor is the witch (Amanda Clary) who put a curse on his wife so she is unable to have children. The witch says that she will lift the curse if they find four ingredients for a potion: the cow as white as milk, the cape as red as blood, the hair as yellow as corn, and the slipper as pure as gold.

Act I has a happy ending, with the wishes being granted, but in Act II the characters learn that what a person wishes for isn't always the best thing.

The musical consisted of a cast of 18, with every cast member featured in either a solo or small group number. Although the songs were unfamiliar to the students at first, they soon found they couldn't forget "There Are Giants in the Sky," "Sometimes People Leave You," and many of the other catchy songs.

It was an unofficial farewell to the senior class of 2013. "I felt like the spring musical went very well! I really enjoyed being in it," said senior Amanda Clary.

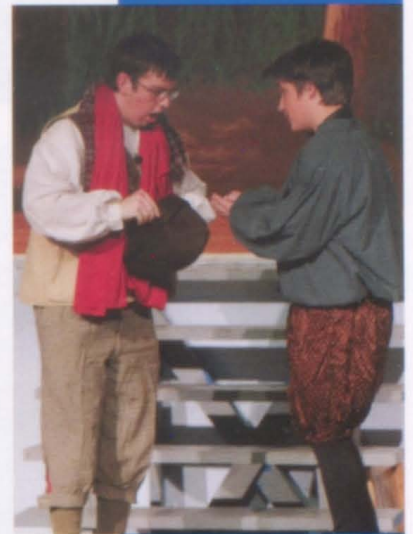

The sound system was operated by sophomores, Destiny O'Donnell and Megan Schmile and lights were run by freshmen, Cole Thornberry and Cailyn Anderson. Travis Grossman installed lights borrowed from Theatre Atchison, so, for the first time, they could be suspended from the gym's ceiling, instead of hung from a pole.

"The musical was intense! Surprisingly I never heard Mrs. Rockey say, 'It is time to panic people,' but that doesn't mean she didn't yell at us."

"One fun thing about being Little Red was being able to scream at the top of my lungs while throwing a temper tantrum!"

"This musical was challenging but I thought it went very well."

"It was really fun. I was glad to be a part of the STUCO," said senior STUCO president Reece Simpson.

"It was an honor being a part of the FFA and I wish everyone in the future program good luck," said FFA President Preston Foley.

"I enjoyed sending Christmas gifts to the children, and our Christmas party was fun. It was a great year and I am looking forward to next!" said junior Kayettes member Harley Huss.

"It was amazing being a part of the spring musical. Playing the role of the prince was the best, and I'll never forget it," said senior drama club member Chris Tharman.

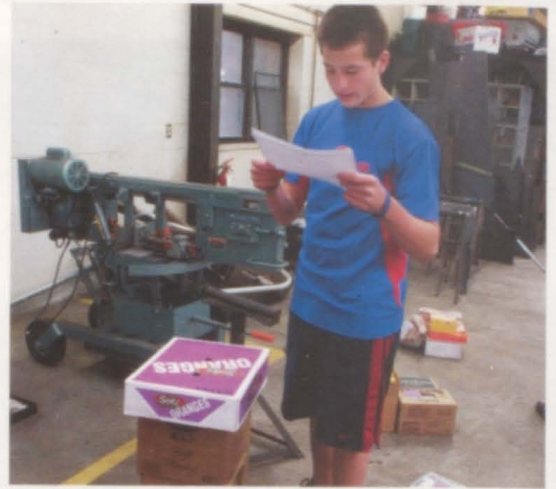

Many clubs continued to show leadership and help the community. Kayettes helped decorate the gazebo for the holidays, and they also sent gifts to children at the Noyes Home. NHS hosted a blood drive, while T-club sponsored the annual men's alumni basketball tournament. The FFA program held an FFA banquet for the members and their families. They also hosted a blood drive, sold fruit, and gave grade school students lessons about different ag-related topics. The SADD organization held a fair for grade school students to teach them the importance of making right decisions. The drama department hosted the annual dinner theater and the speech meet.

FFA and FBLA

The Troy FFA Chapter conducted many school and community activities, as well as competing at several Career Development Events (CDE's). The Chapter hosted two ag breakfasts for ag students, FFA members, and faculty. They also generated money through their annual Seitz fruit sales. Along with this, the chapter hosted a local Ag in the Classroom Postcard contest with the Kansas Foundation for Ag in the Classroom. The Chapter continued to involve itself with the elementary school students when chapter members constructed a barn bookcase and developed learning kits.

The Troy FBLA Chapter also had a full agenda. They began the year by traveling to a Kansas City Chief's football game, where they also had a tailgating party. Later they participated in the District II Conference in Valley Falls. Trae Shelton, Chris Tharman, Jessica Burton, Bailey Gronniger, Halli Wigger and Megan Schmille attended the contest and competed in everything from taking tests about cyber security to a mock job interview. Later the FBLA Chapter went to state in Topeka.

NHS and SADD/Kayettes

The Troy High School National Honor Society did many things for the community during the school year. NHS helped clean up the park and helped the Kayettes decorate the gazebo at the Doniphan County Court House for Christmas, and also held a Blood Drive.

"The year went well, and we did some good things like decorating the gazebo for the upcoming Christmas season," said junior Cody Israel.

They also conducted an induction ceremony where they inducted 12 new members and installed new officers for the 2013-2014 school year. The sponsor was Jena Tharman.

Students Against Destructive Decisions held the Health Fair which had different stations to teach kids about how drugs and alcohol can badly affect their lives. Amy Schmile was the sponsor during the first semester; then the new nurse Sheila Boos took over.

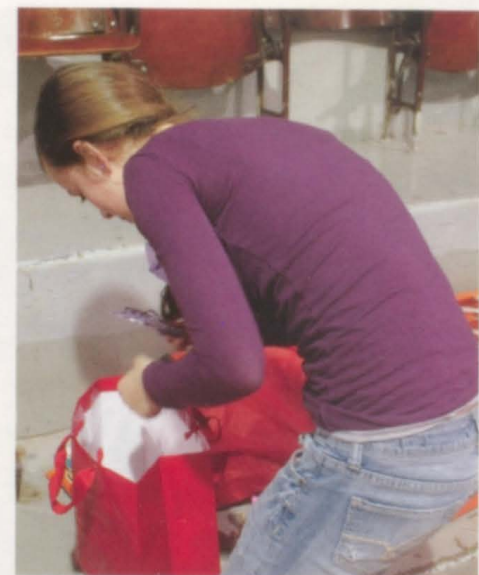

Kayettes was sponsored by Rosa Dolven. The Kayettes did many activities around Christmas time, such as being someone's Secret Santa, decorating the gazebo, and donating gifts to the Noyes Home in St. Joseph.

T-Club and STUCO

T-Club was sponsored by Mrs. Martha-Jean Rockey, and STUCO was sponsored by Mr. Douglas Fisher.

The T-Club officers were Paige Fenley, president; Reece Simpson, vice president; and Hanna King, secretary. Throughout the year T-club did one major thing which was sponsoring the men's alumni basketball tournament that is held every year. There the students kept score and recorded stats in the book. By doing that, members raised money for plaques, T's, pins, and other awards students receive.

The STUCO officers were Reece Simpson, president; Hanna King, vice president; Amanda Clary, secretary. STUCO sponsored a number of things. They sold suckers on Valentine's Day, picked out the different days for the Spirit Weeks, and decorated for the Homecoming and Queen of Courts dances.

"STUCO was fun this year. I wish we could've had the Thanksgiving dinner but hosting the dances and Homecoming was fun," said sophomore Destiny O'Donnell.

Drama/Speech and Quill & Scroll

The Troy Drama Department produced two shows. They performed Dear Ruth in the fall and Into the Woods in the spring. As well as putting on their yearly shows, they also hosted a dinner theatre at the final showing of Into the Woods. In February, drama club members also traveled to Kansas City to the American Heartland Theatre to see an interesting twist of The Hound and the Baskerville.

At Kansas Community College, 13 students who qualified for the State Forensics locally competed. Those who received a I rating were Halli Wigger in informative speech; Katrina Tharman and Trae Shelton in duet acting; Ashley Stock in poetry interpretation; Nathan King in humorous solo acting; Dillon Rush in serious solo acting; Hanna King in poetry interpretation and in prose interpretation; and Chris Tharman and Trae Shelton in improvised duet acting.

Halli Wigger, in extemporaneous speech; Alex Stanton, in humorous solo acting; and Ashley Stock, in prose interpretation; each received a II rating. Two improvised duet acting teams, Katrina Tharman and Tori King, and Bailey Winkel and Dillon Rush, received a III rating.

The Troy High School Quill and Scroll Chapter inducted six new members at the end of the year.

"I thought our dance went really swell and brought some pep back into the school," said Jake Ross.

"I'll never forget the night my date and I stole/owned the dance floor!" said Christopher Tharman.

"It was fun to see all of us girls be so good at football. We had a blast doing it," said Kaylee Bennett.

"I had a lot of fun on senior trip. Shenanigans was the best part, but I also liked the Sixth Floor Museum." said Ausitn Weis.

Troy High School was very busy with activities throughout the school year.

Homecoming had many fun-filled activities to keep the students entertained and excited for the rest of the upcoming events. Students were more involved than usual with the various dress-up days, and the powder puff and buff puff games proved to be very popular. The downtown pep rally had the candidates crooning love songs in their contest.

Queen of Courts also kept students involved, but it fell at the end of a week of snow, so a number of the dress-up days had to be skipped.

Pep rallies brought back school pride, dances kept students involved, and senior trip helped the seniors love their classmates even more. For the first time in years, THS had a twirler, Halli Wigger, to perform at games and pep rallies.

The year culminated for the seniors with their trip to Texas and then graduation.

King and Queen

"I think it's cool that my cousin and I both won, but really anyone could have won. The weather was really good that night and I had a lot of fun at the game and dancing with my friends. It was also by far the best dance I have been to!" said King Thomas Hegarty.

"The weather was really nice this year which made for a great night. I thought everyone looked amazing and each girl deserved to be Queen. The football boys even won! So it was an awesome night all around!" said Queen Kelli Marriott.

Bigger celebration for... Homecoming

During Homecoming week, the students had different days to dress up to get excited for Friday. The school had many more activities during the week than they have in the past.

The students selected a King and Queen from the staff. Roger Purdy and Abra Rush took the crown at the pep rally before the game Friday.

Students decorated floats and hallways as a competition. The freshmen won both competitions. Each class also painted windows up town and white-washed Main Street. The junior class won the window-painting contest.

There were also buff puff and powder puff games. There has never been a buff puff game in school history but it was a success. The powder puff game was very competitive. The junior and sophomore class defeated the senior and freshman class.

Thursday night there was a bonfire and movie night. Students also rode around town in a train honking their car horns.

Friday night the Trojan football team defeated the Jackson Heights Cobras, 8-6. King Thomas Hegarty and Queen Kelli Marriott were crowned before the football game.

1. The candidates were Dillon Rush, Paige Fenley, Jacob Winkel, Hanna King, King Reece Simpson, Queen Claire Turpin, Christopher Tharman, Tanna Meng. The escorts were Morgan Morris, Wyatt Wissler, Allison Franken, and Gannon Bowe.

King and Queen

"Queen of Courts was a great experience with my classmates and something I will never forget," said Queen Claire Turpin.

"Although we lost the game, it was a fun week and one I'll remember for a long time, especially the dance at the pep rally, and I'm glad to see I'm not totally hated!" said King Reece Simpson.

Boys' dancing brings excitement to... Queen of Courts

Students dressed up for Spirit Week as favorite team hat day, favorite teacher day, prince and princess day, and blue-and-white day. However due to the weather, students didn't get to have twin day, which had been planned.

The boys' basketball team was the main focus of the pep rally Friday before the game. They danced to "Scream and Shout," "Don't Stop Believing," "Beauty and the Beat," "Gangnam Style," and "OMG." Their dance became the highlight of the day because of their hysterical performance. Also at the pep rally the candidates had an obstacle course for their candidates' game. They had to dribble a basketball down the court and go around a cone and dribble back. Then they had their partner blindfold them while they shot a free throw.

The basketball games weren't a success for Queen of Courts as the Horton Chargers defeated both varsity teams.

King Reece Simpson and Queen Claire Turpin were crowned during halftime of the boys varsity basketball game.

Juniors

"Prom was very stressful, but I thought once it was finally here it was amazing. The dance was a little long though," said Kallie Koehler.

"I thought Prom was very fun. The Moila was a very fancy building. After-prom was kind of wild, especially while I was playing lazer tag," said William Boeh.

A Midnight Masquerade Prom

Prom was held by the junior class, sponsored by Mrs. Rosa Dolven, with assistance from the junior class parents. Prom was at the Moila Country Club and after-prom was at the high school.

The meal at Prom consisted of salad, chicken breast, potato wedges, green beans, and a roll.

The dance floor was covered with students dancing the entire night. Dillon Rush and Zach Huff even had a rap battle between them. Jay Whetstine said, "That took a lot of guts to get up there, and it was pretty funny and entertaining."

After-prom had a few activities to keep the students busy. There was a blow-up obstacle course, photo booth, lazer tag, and a dart toss at a balloon to win money.

The prizes given away included of money, gift cards, coupons, and pop.

Preston Foley reflected on the night: "It was enjoyable even though I couldn't dance a lot. I hope everyone else had a great time."

Senior Sponsors

“Senior trip went really well this year. I think everyone had a great time, and we also learned some things at the two museums we visited. Also, I rule at lazer tag,” said Sponsor Kevin McNorton.

“It was the strangest thing to see everyone early and ready to go every day,” said Mrs. Newkirk.

Dallas, TX Senior Trip

The senior class ventured to Dallas, TX along with their sponsors, Mr. Kevin McNorton and Mrs. Michelle Newkirk.

Their first destination was the Dallas Cowboys Stadium. They got to explore the press box, suites, and the locker rooms of the football players and cheerleaders.

That night they then made their way to the Medieval Times Tournament where they got to eat huge portions with only their hands, and cheer on their horse and knight.

The next day they got to explore the Sixth Floor Museum and learn everything about John F.

Kennedy and how he was shot.

Then they went to Dick's Last Resort to eat while being insulted. After laughing and getting full, they then went to the Dallas World Aquarium. They got to see everything from an anteater to a penguin. After the aquarium they shopped at the Galleria.

The next day they went to Six Flags and Shenaniganz.

Monday, the softball and baseball players flew back while the rest of the seniors went to the Oklahoma City Memorial Bombing site.

Valedictorian and Salutatorian

"I have had a great 13 years with my friends and classmates. I'm so proud to have graduated from Troy High," said Salutatorian Jacob Winkel.

"It's been great growing up and graduating from a small town high school, especially Troy. This school is full of pride and I am proud to be a Trojan," said Valedictorian Tanna Meng.

Graduation

Graduation was in the C.W. Oliver Gymnasium, May 19.

Tanna Meng was presented Valedictorian of the graduating class. She gave a speech of eight life-long lessons to her fellow classmates.

Jacob Winkel was presented Salutatorian of the class. His speech also gave lessons, but he also talked about some of the years at Troy High and the difficult endeavors the senior class had to overcome.

The Master Teacher Award went to Mr. Matt Allison for his accomplishments with the high/middle school band and choir. He put a lot of effort into the concerts to make them entertaining and enjoyable to watch.

Tori King reflected on the big day: "A lot of people are so ready for high school to be over, but I was afraid of the change. I enjoyed high school and enjoyed seeing my friends. Now that I'm graduated, I realize it is not a bad change."

"I am extremely honored to be chosen for this award. There are a lot of great teachers in our district and just to be considered is an honor," said Master Teacher Matt Allison.

"State track was slightly overwhelming, scary, and HUGE, but a great experience!" said freshman Holly Whetstine.

Many student athletes received a number of All-League and All-State honors in the sports offered at THS. This was Troy's last year to be a part of the DVL. The school will be competing in the TVL starting in the 2013-2014 school year.

Holly Whetstine, freshman, was the only track athlete to advance to state. She competed in the long jump and tied for 11th.

There were 15 students in 29 different categories who competed in state journalism, and the group ended up fourth in class 2A schools. There were 11 students in 13 events who qualified for state speech.

Many art students earned places at the Delaware Valley League Art Day.

Mr. Matt Allison was awarded the Master Teacher award during high school graduation.
