Sat - June 16

Dear Aunt Bernice,

It was great hearing from you.

I'm enclosing a map of where the "family" picnic will be. We always have a big turnout; over 100 people last time.

"Family" includes "Crums", "Bentyside/Creters", "Finkemeiers etc", "Porters" + "Theros". I hope you can make it down for it. We stay with MaryAnn + Bill so Mom will have room for you.

I'm glad you have taken on the task of tracing our roots. I too ran into a deadend when I tried to research through the LDS Genealogical Records in Mesa. Basically, what I have is the information from Carl Kelsey's lineage booklet. We visited him once some years ago. At the library in Mesa I even tried to trace marriage licenses but back in the 1800, Missouri changed to counties & even changed boundaries so it became difficult to trace further. Since the Indian heritage didn't surface in the Kelsey lineage, I would surmise that it should be traced through through your grandmothers ² lineage - the Swansons - OR it could be that Lucerdia Jane Hale Kelsey who married James Johnson Kelsey was full blooded. Refer to my chart.

I am including 2 pages on our lineage that Carl Kelsey sent to me before I ordered the booklet. Since there were many mistakes on family names in just Dad's (your) family, I hope there are none earlier.

Other sources that could be traced is the 1880
Census. The Federal Archives and Records Center nearest you is 2306 East Cannister Road
Kansas City, Mo 64131

Telephone 816-926-7271 Hours 8am to 4:30pm.
Mon-Fri. Serves Iowa, Kansas, Mo + Nebraska

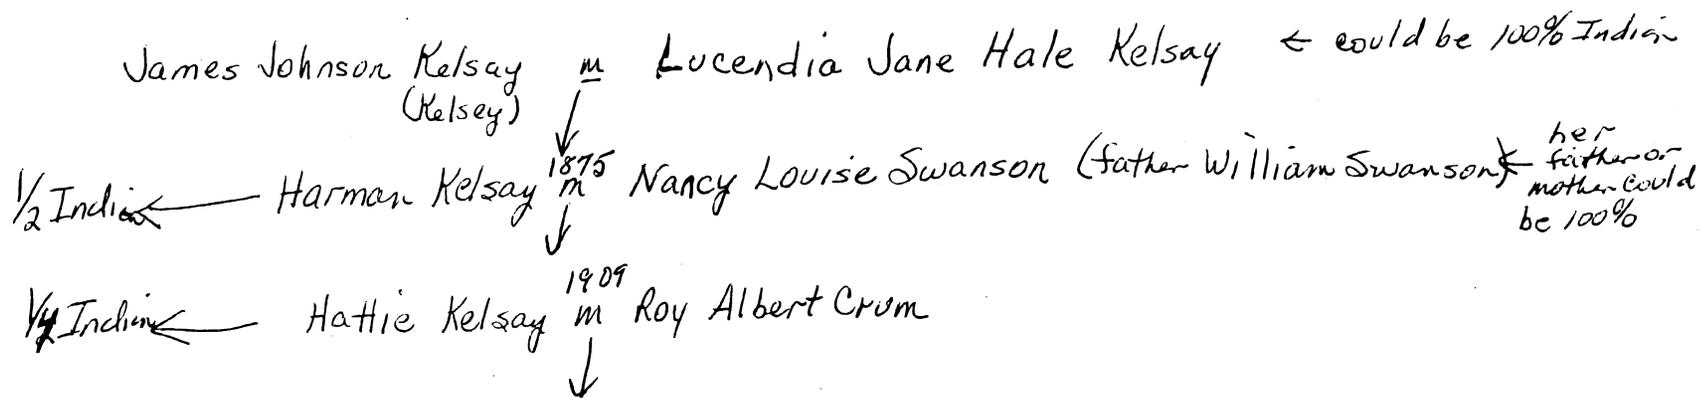

- Also could contact the Cherokee Tribe in

Muskogee, OK or in Tahlequah, OK

Tahlequah is a very small town while Muskogee has about 38,000 population. I don't know which town has the tribal headquarters.

Good luck in your search.

Tom's family will be here soon for a cookout.
They are leaving the girls here this week while

From this chart, the Indian could be from James's wife, Lucendia or from Nancy Swanson's mother or father.

I do not have a name for Nancy's mother but perhaps marriage records could be found.

She was born in Miller County so one could start there to find the mother's name.

Harmon Kelsay born 18 August 1850, in Moniteau County, Missouri, the eldest child of James Johnson "Jaunce" and Lucinda Jane (Hale) Kelsay and on 25 Mar 1875, in Miller County, married Nancy Louise Swanson born 14 Feb 1855 in Miller County, a daughter of William Swanson. They resided for a time on the South Bank of the Osage River then removing to a farm in the Flatwoods Community located in Section 36, Township 41 North, Range 15 West of Miller County and about 7 mile South of Eldon Missouri where they operated an Orchard of considerable size. Apples from their Orchard were stored by the Barrel, in a Cave, on the Stark Farm, which cave is known, today, as the Stark Caverns. In the year of 1902, on Thursday, at 2 O'clock in the afternoon, Harmon made an address before the State Society of Horticulture, in session, at Eldon Missouri regarding the care and grafting of fruit trees. Harmon was a master of penmanship and during the winter months conducted classes in penmanship instruction. Harmon died 1 Jan 1903, of Tuberculosis, and was buried in the Harmon Kelsay Family Cemetery located on his Orchard Farm beside his infant son, James Arthur Kelsay. Nancy was large of stature and of rudy complexion and died the later part of November or the early part of December in 1928, at Kansas City ^{Kansas} Missouri, in the home of her daughter, and she was interred on the Harmon Kelsay Family Cemetery beside her husband, and son.
