NEVER

As we enter the 1999-2000 school year, we take notice of all of the changes happening in and around Midway. Everyone is entering new classes and trying new things. There are several new faces, students and teachers, among the many old faces at MHS. The newness ties into all of the preparations taking place for the new millennium. The new millennium, as well as the new school year, is a fresh start for everyone.

NEVER BEFORE have we been at this place in our lives, as seniors, juniors, sophomores, or freshmen, and we will NEVER AGAIN be able to come back to these times in our lives, to relive or change them, except in our own minds.

CLASSOF*THE NEW*MILLENNIUM

For this year's seniors, the year 2000 has always seemed like a goal- a promise of the future. They have come a long way together in the halls of Midway. Of the 14 members of the class of 2000, seven have been together since kindergarten. To the rest of the world, the year 2000 is a beginning of a new millennium, but for this year's graduating class, it is the start of a new life. We are the future.

◇ "I believe that choosing the dress up days should be done every year by the senior class. Seniors deserve to get a chance to put the underclassmen through torture. It should just be the privilege of being a senior. After all, the whole purpose of Spirit Week is to support our school."

"I hadn't gotten much sleep throughout the whole week. I decided to take a nap in English. I woke up when the bell rang. Not only did the teacher ask me if I had a nice nap, but when I looked down I realized there was a huge puddle of drool all over my desk."

Erica Herrs

"While at NCYC I found a sign from one of the sessions. It said, 'I Want To Know What Love Is!' I told Luke that if we took the sign we could probably get girls. I was right! Luke couldn't move two feet without girls hanging on him, so I decided to try it. One girl walked by laughing. When I turned around to yell back at her and talk to her and the group of girls she was with I ran into a big sign! I then started to laugh and tripped and ran into another girl! I gave the sign back to Luke and decided to try it again while we were eating. I propped it up where I was sitting and a guy came over and told me he would show me what love was! I threw the sign away and gave up!"

Eagles Continue Winning Tradition

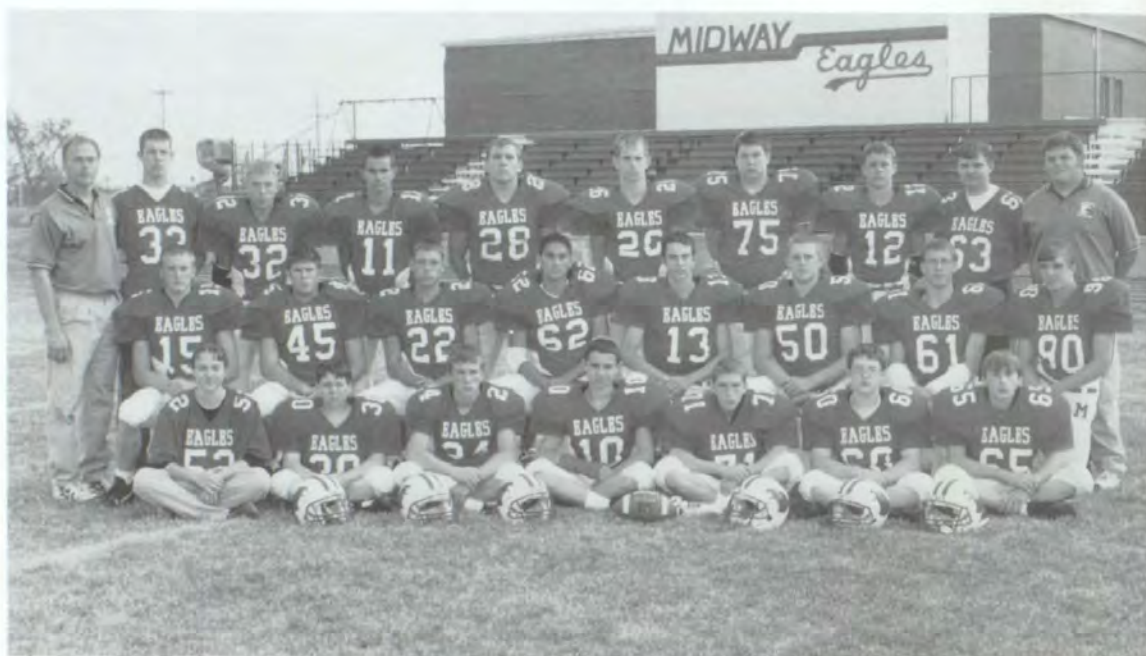

NEVER Say NEVER

Despite the lack of size, Midway once again found ways to win. This season the young Eagles had only one senior. They also came into the season with nine freshmen. Midway knew how to win but it was going to take great teamwork and effort and they did just that with seven straight victories with a margin no less than 18 points. The Eagles soaring high then faced Baileyville for the District championship. Midway went to B&B with a 7-0 record and ranked second in state. B&B carried a 6-1 record and a ranking of fifth in the state. Both teams struggled on offense at the beginning but B&B struck first and never looked back. Midway suffered their first defeat of the season which in turn ended their playoff hopes. The Eagles held their heads high and finished the season with a 72-32 victory over St. Mary's. Despite the lack of size, the team used what they had to win. They played as a team, gave great effort and played with heart. I'll NEVER Forget...

Brett Miner:... "Listening to coach Smith squeak on the sideline."

Team goes to state AGAIN!

NEVER Second Best!

The 1999 girls' cross country team was plagued with injury. Despite being impaired they continued on placing second at regionals, qualifying to compete at state. This would make the team's second consecutive year of going to state. Lots of personal bests were made for the girls, and the hard work that they put in nearly every morning at 6 a.m. paid off in a big way.

The boys had three new-comers to the sport, Dusty McNett, Brandon Winchester, and Luke Lednicky. Coincidentally they were all freshman.

I'll NEVER Forget...

Angela Boos:... "Swimming was probably the best, with lip syncs, dancing, flips off the diving board it was all fun! I love having a coach that makes practices exciting!"

Coach Leatherman:... "I think the girls team did well this season and I think we could make it a third year at state next year. The freshman boys ran well and placed high in their races. I enjoyed the team this year and I'm looking forward to next year.!"

Eagles' Hard Work Pays Off

We ALWAYS Represent

Morning after morning, day after day, week after week, this year's team worked hard and had fun doing it. Through ups and downs they stuck together and defined the word TEAM.

The Eagles went into the season with high expectations, and though not all of their goals were met, their final record of 15-7 certainly was nothing to be ashamed of. They made memories that will not be forgotten, and friendships that will never die.

Eagles finish with third consecutive 20 win season

NEVER give up, NEVER give in

The Eagles stepped on the court this season ready to make a statement and they did. They started the season with three straight wins to take the Bern pre-season tournament. Then came their first and only loss in the regular season to the Sacred Heart Irish. From then on the Eagles never looked back, going on to win 16 straight games including three wins to take first in the Elwood tournament for the fourth straight year. The regular season ended with a 19-1 record that earned them a number one seed for Regionals. The Eagles defeated Baileyville in two overtimes to move on to the Regional championship. Midway then faced the Bern Indians for the second time of the season. Once again the Eagles played another hard fought game and won by a buzzer shot with no time remaining. The Eagles earned a spot in the Marysville Sub-State where they faced the Hanover Wildcats, two-time defending state champs. The almost-perfect season came to end against the Wildcats. The Eagles stayed close with the Wildcats, but fell short of the State tournament, 41-51. The Eagles finished the season at 22-2. Midway made some memories throughout the season that not only the fans, but the players will never forget.

I'll Never forget...

Eric Fuhrman:... "How much running we had to do in practice."

Tim Sanderson:... "The last second buzzer shot Jeff made to beat Bern by one in the Regional championship game. That was nice."

Mark Scholz:... "Being 5'9" and going up for the jump ball."

Team and Individual Efforts Successful

NEVER satisfied

The 2000 girls and boys track season was full of enthusiasm, hard work, and desire. It seemed that the boys would not be satisfied unless they walked away from a track meet with a first place trophy, which they accomplished six out of eight times. "I was pretty pleased with the boys' wins because in some of the meets there was excellent competition with bigger schools and it's always nice to be able to beat bigger schools," said coach Jim Leatherman. Although the girls did not win any championships, they still did their best and produced a season that was memorable and fun.

I'll NEVER Forget...

Body piercing and tattooing the latest fad...What is the experience really like?

"I was scared at first because I was sitting there as he was "prepping" me and it hit me, oh my gosh he is actually going to use a needle and poke me with it. After they started it felt like when your foot falls asleep; it was all tingly. It hurt the most when he was coloring the moon in. In my opinion I think that if you want it but everyone else thinks it is bad, don't listen to them because it is your body and your decision. I don't regret it at all."

senior Lisa Collins

"I really wasn't nervous about getting my tongue pierced because I had wanted it done for a long time. I sat in a chair and the lady that pierced it stuck a long needle through my tongue. It hurt the most when she put the barbell in and had to twist it around to make sure it was tight. I think the worst part was my tongue swelling up for about a week after I had it done. I couldn't eat solid food for a few days."

senior Billie Underwood

"At first I was really nervous and scared to death, but Billie reassured me it was okay. The only part that really hurt was when the guy missed the first time and had to do it over and about the third or fourth day after my belly-button was pierced was when it was the sorest. I think everyone should experience some sort of piercing on their body other than their ears."

senior Melissa Helmstetter

"When I pierced my eyebrow and nose all I used was a needle and some ice. It didn't hurt like I thought it would."

STUDENTS SPEND THEIR MONEY

Food, clothes, gasoline, dates, CDs, tanning, hair dye, entertainment, etc., are just a few things that students spend money on. The teenage lifestyle is an expensive one. Many students choose to eat fast food, and to buy snacks during break at school. This adds up fast. Nowadays to get name-brand clothing one can expect to pay between $30-$50 for a pair of jeans and $10-$40 for a shirt. It all depends on the brand; Abercrombie and Lucky are a couple of the most expensive. CDs are between $13-$20 and some students have quite a collection. When it gets close to prom a lot of girls tan and this is really expensive. It is $3 for one tan or $25 for 10 and one can expect to pay between $20-$30 on tanning accelerator lotion. Students spend a great deal of money on gas since the prices are soaring this year. Now it costs up to $1.69 per gallon and is expected to increase to $2 over the summer.

Many guys at Midway are Dyeing to Be Blonde.

The coloring of hair has become a very popular trend this year. Girls may highlight or dye their hair a completely different color and many of the guys have tipped or dyed their hair blonde. Hair color has become a fashion accessory. It gives teens a way to express themselves and be different. Usually guys have a friend dye their hair or do it themselves and girls usually go to the salon. Hair dye costs between $7 and $9 when one buys it and having it done at the salon one would pay between $20-$40, depending on hair length.

Why do we need it?

EXPENSES...

"My pager is handy. It is an easy way for my friends to get a hold of me. It is a good and cheap way to keep in touch."

-junior Tim Sanderson

Senior expenses...

Lisa Collins and Melissa Helmstetter try on their graduation gowns.

I use my phone for a lot of different reasons. If I need to get in touch with someone about an assignment, if I get a flat tire, if I will be late somewhere, if I forget something at a person's house, or just to talk to people.

Pictures...

Dan Earl poses for his Lifetouch senior photo. Seniors may spend as much as $400 or more on their professional pictures. Popular studios this year were Rox's and Ranieri's.

"I like the many opportunities that are on the computer. It is less time consuming and it makes assignments easier."

- junior Jennifer Knudson

"Laptops are great because there are so many options. You can work on them on your own time. You don't have to go to the library; you can just stay at home. I am glad that people that do not have computers at home have the opportunity to use laptops."

-junior Sarah Henry

Prom costs...

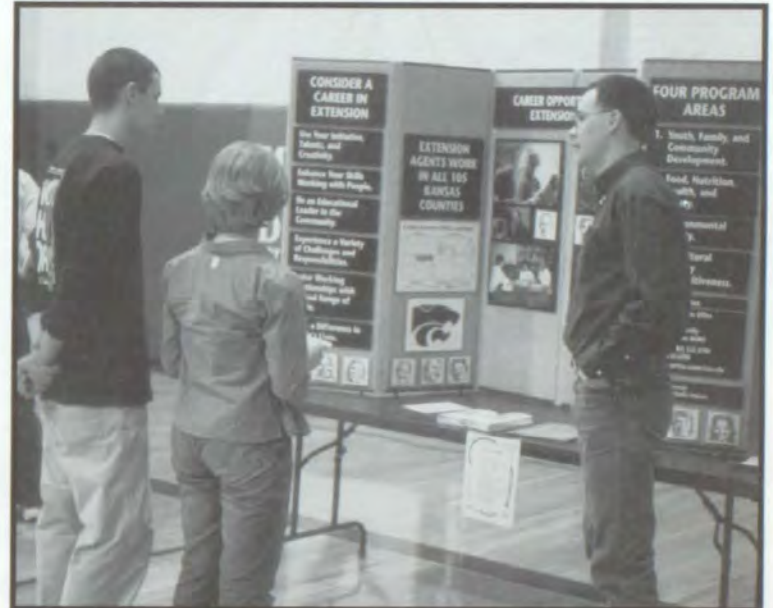

Jenny Boos and Jennifer Walsh at this year's prom. A prom dress can cost from $45-$500 and then there are shoes, undergarments, flowers, hair accessories and styling, jewelry, and tanning.

STRETCHING $$$ FOR SCHOOL STUFF

Andrea Hensley, Becky Martin and Niki Hensley show their need for backpacks. Some students carry their backpacks to each class and others just use them to cart homework back and forth to school. Backpacks can cost from $10-$52.

Students spend a lot for school (or parents in many cases). They have to pay for class rings, prom dresses, letter jackets, school pictures, graduation items, yearbooks, athletic shoes and many other things. Class rings can cost from $100-$160. The most expensive thing to buy is a letter jacket, which can cost about $200-300. Girls buy prom dresses at least two times in high school, if not more. Dresses can cost from $45-$500. School pictures are another mildly expensive item. There are different kinds of pictures to buy, especially if students are involved in multiple sports. And for seniors, graduation items can cost from $100-400.

Computer diskettes, books, scissors, whiteout, paper, pop, Bath and Body Works lotion, gum, candy, and nail polish are just a few of life's "necessities" that add to the costs of being a student.

Students that plan ahead for their futures also have the added expenses of taking college credit classes offered at Midway, or just traveling to the colleges they may be interested in. Jeff Falk and Sarah Henry take a look at one of the career education booths set up in the gym during the Biology II career day expo.

Prom can also be expensive for the guys. Nathan Bevis sported a hat and a cane with his tuxedo for the "gangster" look for prom. A tuxedo can cost about $140.

The price of showing school spirit can be high. People have to drive to where games are being held and pay to get in, and of course, they have to get something from the concession stand. The cost to get in to a game can range from $2-$6.

Being CRAZY and having FUN are ways in which students get through the STRESS of school. These are some of the finer moments at Midway this year. Of course others GOOF-OFF more than others. Notice how Luke Helmstetter is in more than one picture.

"Since Charles Schultz died recently, I thought it would be a good idea to put on the play for a tribute to him."

Dedicated to our Seniors

Our friends are like angels, who brighten our days.
 In all kinds of wonderful,
 magical ways.
 Their thoughtfulness
 comes,
 as a gift from above.
 And we feel we're surrounded,
 by warm, caring love.
 Like upside-down
 rainbows, their smiles
 bring the sun.
 And they fill ho-hum
 moments,
 with laughter and fun.
 Friends are like angels,
 without any wings.
 Blessing our lives,
 with the most precious things.

Juniors: Front row: Brett Miner, Tim Sanderson. Second row: Erica Herrs, Michelle Walsh, Shelly Becker, Ryann Owens, Sarah Henry, Mark Scholz. After Prom

Jenny Boos and Beth Lednicky show off their newly acquired sumo wrestling skills.

ALWAYS having fun...

"The coolest thing at After Prom was hanging out with my friends and riding the scooters and playing plinko because it was the only way I could win money."

Lisa Collins

"I had the most fun losing all my money at the craps table and winning it all back from Jerry Boos."

Nick Williams

"I had the most fun watching people beat each other up while sumo wrestling. I also had fun watching the people bid on items for the auction at the end of the night."

Niki Hensley

Amanda Stevens and Michelle Walsh fight to get the lead during the tricycle race.

Struggling to reach the finish line, Daren Roberts inches forward on his tricycle.

Shelly Becker stops just long enough during the tricycle race to pose for a picture.

Playing craps for the majority of the night, Kevin Thompson was able to earn close to $36,000.

The class gathers together before heading home, for one last goodbye at Kalfran lodge.

Luke Helmstetter and Jeff Falk prepare themselves for the sling-shot ride.

Heather Frump, Jenny Boos, Lisa Collins and Becky Martin wait to be rescued from their stalled boat.

ALWAYS Remember

"I will never forget our boat breaking down in the middle of the lake, and waiting FOREVER for someone to come rescue us!" Lisa Collins

"I will never forget when my shorts came off while I was tubing! I thought that they would sink, so I was splashing around wildly for them. Then, to top it all off, I had to climb into the boat full of girls, wearing only my tightie-whities!" Luke Helmstetter

"I will never forget when Becky climbed onto our balcony and tapped on our window to scare us." Melissa Helmstetter

Lisa Collins demonstrates a new technique for playing miniature golf!

Senior Sneak

Heather Frump prepares for tubing on the lake.

Niki Hensley enjoys some of Randy's Frozen Custard.

Jeff Falk entertains during some down time at the lodge.

Jenny Boos and Becky Martin.

Memories that will last for the next 2000 years...

Even though the boat he was piloting for the seniors had to be towed in, Mr. Leatherman seems to be taking it well.

The class goes for the 20's gangster look, in the traditional old-time photo.

Billie Underwood drives her go-kart like a pro, as she tries to stay ahead of the people behind her.

"Graduation was an emotional and exciting time for me. Family came that I haven't seen for seventeen years. I was very happy that I was graduating."

Nike Hensley

"I never thought that graduation would be so emotional and hard to get through as it was. It all seemed to hit me at once that it was the end. Thirteen years of building friendships was over. I am happy and sad at the same time."

Becky Martin

"Graduation came up really fast. I didn't feel like I should be up on that stage, but in other ways I was really ready for it. The last thirteen years have been great. I will really miss all my friends, but also look forward to making new ones."

Jenny Boos

Never before have many of us experienced the things that we went through this year. We watched as a new year, decade, century and millennium were ushered in. We took note of the changes that occurred in our own lives this year, and in the lives of those around us. We said hello to the many new people who entered our lives, and goodbye to the many who left. We learned, we grew, we laughed, we cried, and we did it together. It was worth it. And we all know that it will never happen again.

The 1999-2000 Publications class presents volume 41 of The Eagle. Jostens Publishing Company, Topeka, Kansas printed the 72-page yearbook with a total number of 60 copies ordered. The 7 3/4 x 10 1/2" volume was printed on Gloss 209 paper. Two pages were printed in four color. The cover was designed by the class and the design was silkscreened over the maroon cover. The body copy and captions are printed using Palatino and the headlines are printed using Arial. We want to give special recognition and thanks to Paul Roberts for again contributing many excellent pictures, most noticeably for the sports pages. Lifetouch photography also took the group and class pictures.
