Death of Mr. Rankin

Joseph W. Rankin, who has been ill most of the winter and in a serious condition the past two months, died Saturday evening. During the past two weeks he grew gradually weaker and it was known he could not recover. His entire system had suffered a break-down. He was conscious until the last, in fact had been sitting up only a few moments before he died. His heart, which was his weakest organ, suddenly ceased to beat and his life was ended.

For forty-five years Mr. Rankin has been a resident of Highland. His trade was that of a carpenter and he was a good one. He has built many of the homes, churches and store buildings in Highland and erected buildings for farmers for miles around Highland. To him idleness was a thing to be dreaded and he was never satisfied, when well, unless at work. Even last summer he did considerable work.

Born in Dayton, Ohio, May 1836, he became nearly 75 years old. In 1861 he was married to Sarah A. Wilkinson in Illinois. And so, had he lived two months longer, he and his wife could have celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary. Nine children were born, five of whom, and the mother, are living. They are Will whose home is in Wyoming, Ernest who lives in St. Joseph, Clarence, Bert and Bessie who live here. All were present at the funeral. Will Rankin has been here from Wyoming during the past two weeks. Five members of his family are still living. None of his brothers were able to be here. They live in Ohio. A niece, Miss Alkire of Kansas City, a nephew from Forest City and Mr. Meyer of Oregon, Mo., were among relatives present.

Mr. Rankin was a member of the Presbyterian church and was a good man. No one but liked him. He was kind, obliging and considerate. For many years he was a member of the public school board. He was interested in education. His daughter Alice (Mrs. Vinsonhaler) was for many years the primary teacher and when she gave up teaching the youngest daughter, Bessie, became the primary teacher.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at 2:30 at the home. On account of the connection of the family with the public school, it was dismissed after the last recess. The service was in charge of Rev. A. B. Irwin. A male quartet sang. There was a large gathering of friends present at the service.

Udette March 3, 1911

Rankin

Sarah Anne Wilkinson was born in Oxford, Ohio, November 6, 1840. She was the youngest of a family of nine children who moved to Illinois, and on May 12, 1860, she was married to J. W. Rankin. Three years later this couple moved to Highland where the Rankin home has been ever since. To them nine children were born: William M. of Cody, Wyoming; Ernest G. of Forbes, Missouri; Clarence M., Chas. Herbert and Bessie Lyst of Highland. Four of their children have preceeded their parents hence.

While yet a young girl in Ohio she joined the Presbyterian church and was a deeply interested communicant all her life. Throughout her suffering the past eighteen months, six months of which she could not leave her bed, she kept true faith in her Savior and endured her suffering with great courage and patience. She died Tuesday evening, March 3.

Her husband, whose date of death was within one day of exactly three years ago, was a prominent building contractor here and was the overseer of the erection of the Highland Presbyterian church twenty-five years ago.

Mrs. Rankin's long life in Highland has won her many friends, being a highly respected and much beloved character.

During the past six months of her sickness she has been bedfast and has had the undivided care of her daughter Bessie who gave up her school this fall to be at home.

The funeral was held at the home this afternoon, a large body of friends paying their last tribute.

COVENANT WITH GOD.

I take God the Father to be my Father; I take God the Son to be my Savior; I take God the Holy Spirit to be my Comforter, Teacher, Guide and Sanctifier; I take the Word of God to be the rule of my actions; I take the people of God to be my people in all conditions; and this I do deliberately, freely, and forever.
