'81 - Year Of Events

The Trojan year of 1981 is a year to remember, rich in memories of friends, sports, graduation, and other school events.

Trojan '81 is a collection of these memories. A calendar, located on each division page, helps preserve memorable dates. Placed on it are birthdays, school events, and world events.

Trojan '81 is for you, to look back and recollect the Trojan year of '81.

'80-'81, An Eventful Year

1981 was a year of excitement and near tragedies, a time for Americans to bond together to meet new challenges.

The November election ended the political rivalry for the office of President between President Jimmy Carter and Governor Ronald Reagan. After a close competition, Republican Ronald Reagan was inaugurated the 40th President of the United States, January 20, 1980, with George Bush, second-in-command.

"With all the creative energy at our command, let us begin an era of national renewal," President Reagan said in his inaugural address. "Let us renew our determination our courage and our strength. Let us renew our hope. We have every right to dream heroic dreams."

Americans revised their hope, courage, and determination during the 444 days of Iranian captivity of 52 American hostages. The hostages were seized by Moslem militants November 4, 1979, at the U.S. Embassy in Tehran.

The yellow ribbon became a symbol of American hope. The people tried to spread their hope and courage to the 52 hostages in the thousands of cards and letters sent overseas.

Only after 14 ½ long months of determination and negotiations, in which the U.S. agreed to unfreeze Iranian assets, were the hostages released, January 20.

Citizens of Troy demonstrated their support of the 52 captive Americans with the flying of 12 American flags over the courthouse lawn. The flags, donated by veterans' widows, were unfurled December, 1979, and retired upon the hostages' release.

Top Right: Upon the release of the hostages, Troy lowered the 12 flags flown in their honor.

An attempted assassination, wounding President Reagan on his 70th day in office, March 30, scared and shocked the nation.

The wounded President was rushed to the hospital to have a bullet removed. The bullet had entered his chest under his left arm and was deflected into the lower left lung.

President Reagan kept his sense of humor throughout the "incident" and his recovery. It was reported that as he entered the operating room, Mr Reagan quipped to the surgeons, "Please tell me you're Republicans."

Pope John Paul II was also hit by gunfire in an attempted assassination, May 13. The Pope, wounded by two of the bullets fired, was not seriously injured.

A touch of excitement began April 10, as the space shuttle, actually a "space truck," introduced a new era in space, "revolutionizing the way America operates in space."

The 54½ hour flight of the "Columbia," opened up the possibilities of future colonies, orbiting factories, and flights to other planets.

THS students showed a love for fun, but also had a serious side.

A survey revealed a majority of the students thought inflation was the nation's number one problem. Many students were concerned with the possibility of war.

One student felt the United State's greatest downfall, was the people who fail to support the country and what it stands for.

Students gave President Reagan the "Okay," but felt he will do better and accomplish more, as he becomes more experienced.

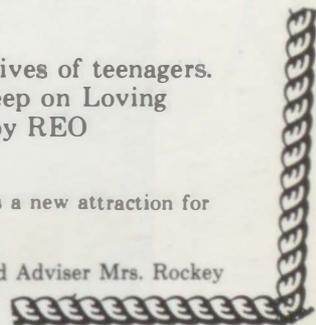

Although the cost of living was high, students enjoyed many outings. Nearly half the students surveyed managed to finance their entertainment with part-time employment.

"Stir Crazy" and "Any Which Way You Can" were popular movies with the teenage crowd. Favorite television shows were "Benny Hill," "Mash," "Dukes of Hazard," and "Facts of Life."

Music played an important role in the lives of teenagers. All-time favorites for the year were "Keep on Loving You" and "Take It on the Run," both by REO Speedwagon, and "Cow Patti."

Class Of 1981 Bids Farewell

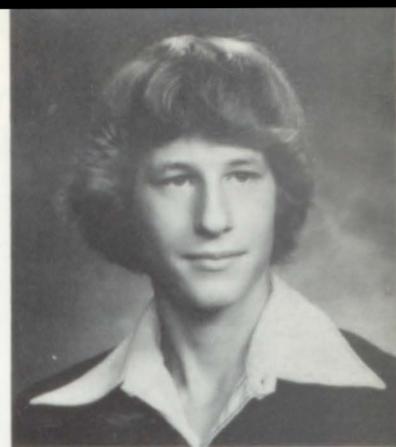

Through time, the seniors of 1981 have traveled, and during that time, they discovered failures and triumph on the road to success. All the memories are neatly tucked inside their hearts to be shared someday in the future.

The class of 1981 selected their colors, flower, and motto for eighth grade graduation, which still remain true in their final year at THS. For their colors the seniors chose the soft hues of blue and pink. The yellow rose was designated as the class flower. Their motto reveals the true feelings of success, "Quitters never win, and winners never quit!"

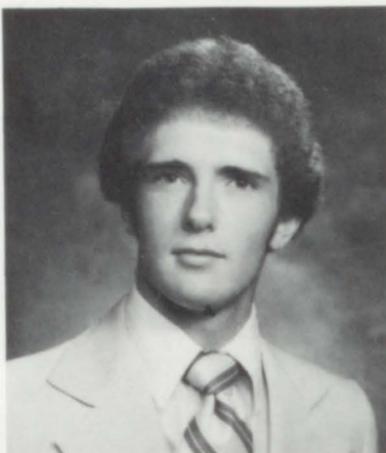

The senior trip was scheduled for the weekend of May 8. The seniors then traveled to Dallas, Texas, where they visited the John F. Kennedy Museum, a rodeo, and Six Flags over Texas.

Traditions Continue

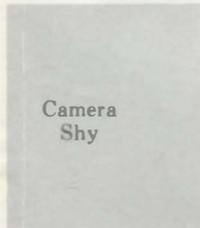

The juniors made prom possible by being in charge of the concession stand with the help of their supervisors, Mr. Art Buhl and Mr. Fred Folsche.

Another tradition that THS juniors seem to go through is the ordering of class rings. They chose Josten's as the company to design their rings, which were of various styles and colors.

Frosh Join THS

The freshmen decided to do something different their first year at THS. Their money-making project featured Tom-Wat merchandise. The total sales were $5,256.31, and the class received one-third of that amount. Top salesperson, Mike Guy, contributed a total of $475.05.

Tops At THS

The school board members, Superintendent Kenneth Pharr, the faculty, and THS students all worked together for a very busy and eventful year.

Right: Pausing during a school board meeting are Mr. Paul Greaser, Mr. William Beaty, Superintendent Kenneth Pharr, Mr. Grant Speaks, Mr. Robert Meng, Mrs. Nell Larzelere, secretary; Mr. Jerry Scholz, Mr. Russell Hoverson, and Mr. Jerral Weber.

Three New Faces Seen At THS

THS had a new counselor, Severt Anderson. Mr. Anderson received his BSE in social sciences and his MS in secondary counseling. He had taught at three other high schools, in which his areas of teaching centered around coaching, government, and counseling.

All three libraries in the school system were organized by the new librarian, Mrs. Margaret Stickelman. She was a graduate of NWMU.

She had previously taught at Jackson Heights. Her hobbies included sewing and listening to music.

She added a large number of new books to the library, and removed several carrels.

The new Vo. Ag. I, II, and III instructor and also the junior class sponsor was Mr. Art Buhl. Mr. Buhl was originally from New Mexico where he received his BS in Ag. Extension.

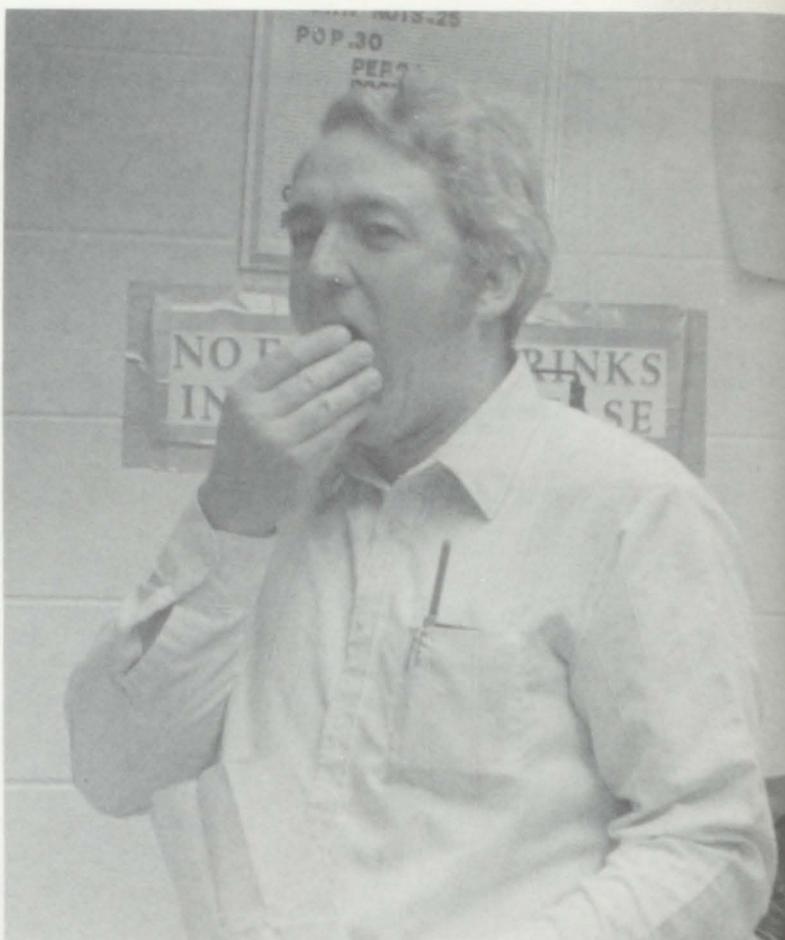

Besides supervising the concession stand, he kept busy with FFA contests. The FFA attended various local and state activities.

He also enjoyed camping, fishing, and bow hunting.

THS had a fine staff of teachers who worked together for another successful year.

The teacher who had been with the staff the longest was the Home Ec. I, II, and III, home living instructor, Mrs. Anna Goss. Throughout her years at THS, she had coordinated style shows and state competitions. She also was the senior class sponsor for nine years. Mrs. Goss and her family reside in Troy.

Mr. Fred Folsche taught Industrial Arts I, II, III, and IV for 17 years. He was the drivers' ed. instructor, and it was his first year for organizing the concession stand. Besides teaching the techniques of woodworking, he had a farm south of Troy.

Mr. Frank Davis taught seventh and eighth grade P.E., and Advanced P.E. He also coached the football team and boys' basketball, both of which had very successful seasons.

Mrs. Marla Olson was assistant coach for the girls' basketball team. Mrs. Olson instructed an aerobic dancing class open to the community while she taught her P.E. classes of sixth, seventh, and eighth graders the same dance steps.

Mr. Kevin Kelley coached the boys' junior varsity basketball team.

Thirteen Teachers Return

The English department consisted of Miss Fran Rupp, Mrs. Babetta Israel, and Mrs. Martha Rockey.

These three teachers had been a team for two years. They organized different projects, such as a trip to a Spanish concert and many successful speech contests.

The law and business courses, including accounting, typing, and government, were taught by Mr. Dale Whiteside and Mr. Bruce Reynolds.

Mr. Whiteside had a team of students, who competed in accounting, business math, and typing contests.

Mr. Reynold's government class also made its annual trip to Topeka and participated in Government Day.

Mathematics, science, and American history are three standard courses that are required to graduate.

American history is a required course, which was taught by Mr. Lyle Rockey, Jr. Mr. Rockey also taught sociology, geography, and world history.

Mr. Bill Foster had chemistry, biology, and earth science. Mr. Foster also coached TMS sports and sponsored FCA. He was a graduate of THS.

The mathematics courses offered were practical math, Algebra I, Algebra II, and an individualized math course for seniors. Mr. Larry Sandy was the instructor.

Cooks Survive Stampede

No clocks were needed this year. Time could be told from the stampede to the lunch line.

The THS food force served an average of 230 students and faculty each day. Lunches cost $.65 per meal, which consisted of a choice between a salad, or main dish, a vegetable, roll, and dessert.

Each lunch period lasted a half hour which gave everyone time to relax before tackling the remaining portion of the day.

Crew Behind THS

The working force behind every wrench, tractor, broom, and steering wheel was the hard-working maintenance crew. Buses, halls, etc. were always in good condition at THS.

A new feature was added to THS busing. Two athletic buses provided transportation for THS athletes. These buses took them home after practice. The buses were driven by Mrs. Jacqueline Chase and Mr. Bernard Clary.

Mr. Charlie Grable occupied the never-ending job of maintenance man. This was his first year with THS.

THS custodians were Mr. Lyle Rockey, Sr., Mrs. Kay Clark, and Mr. Lewis Thomas. Mr. Lyle Rockey, Sr. and Mrs. Kay Clark have worked at THS for two years. Mr. Lewis Thomas has been with the THS staff for eleven years.

Homecoming Is . . .

The week preceding homecoming is known as "Spirit Week." The week's activities included skits, a bonfire at the fairgrounds, and a pep rally on Main Street, where the crowning of the senior football player as "Mr. Legs" took place. This year's honor went to Jim Owens.

The climax of the week's activities was the crowning of Laura Herpich as homecoming queen by head escort Jay Jarrett at pregame ceremonies, September 26. Queen Laura was presented a bouquet of red roses, sash, and a kiss. Her attendants were Terri Clary, escorted by Greg Dannevik; Gina Hanlan with Darrel Marriott; Veronica Paulich with Pat Masters; and Sharon Scholz with Jeff Sandy. Each attendant was presented a single, red rose.

Crown and gift bearers were Tyson Needham, Peter Bond, Marcie Israel and Kimberly Huss.

The Trojans won their homecoming game with a 14-6 victory over the Midway Eagles.

After the THS victory, the pep club sponsored the traditional, homecoming dance at the high school from 10 P.M. until 12:30 A.M. The homecoming theme was "Sailing." Swift Kik provided the music.

Homecoming halftime turned back the pages for many past THS homecoming queens, who were invited back for the big event. Each queen received a corsage and recognition of her year of reign. Mr. Anderson, StuCo Adviser, commented on the homecoming dance, which was open to alumni, "Things went well and possibly future homecomings can be open to alumni."

Those who attended the special ceremony were Mary Dittmore, Mary Elder, Susie Clayton, Kathy Goerlitz, Betty Dannevik, Sharon Kanak, Carol Smith, Becky Bond, Nancy Huss, Donna Waggoner, Barbara Luedke, Denice Franken, Pam Herpich, Debbie Duncan, Debbie Handley, and Debbie Guy.

'Keep On Loving You'

Queen of Courts fell on the day before Valentine's Day, February 13, which set a mood for the event. The evening was filled with affection and excitement.

Veronica Paulich replied, "I was so excited I couldn't think," when asked what she was thinking of when she was pronounced the 1981 queen.

As queen she received a crown, sash, bouquet of red roses and a kiss from head escort Pat Masters.

Queen Veronica's attendants were Terri Clary, Gina Hanlan, Sharon Scholz, and Barb Sutherland. Their escorts were Pat Masters, Robert Clary, Greg Dannevik, James Marriott, and Tim Franken.

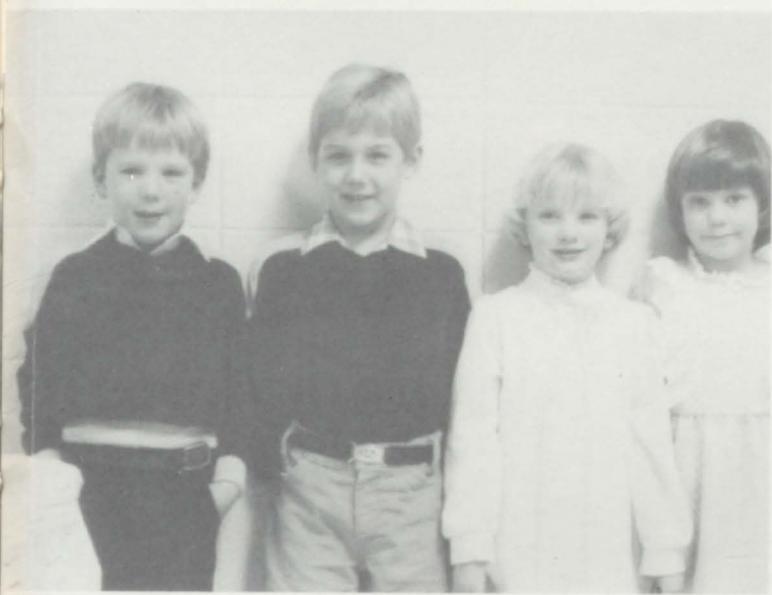

"Astre" provided the music for the dance. All THS alumni were invited to attend.

After a series of grueling events, Debbie Masters was crowned FFA Sweetheart, October 27, by Head Escort Carl Tharman.

Michelle Foley was selected first runner-up and Geri Fenley, second runner-up. The other attendants were Sheila Adkins, Teresa Blanton, and Lorrie Stanley. Their escorts were Pat Masters, Steve Tharman, Terry Whittaker, and Dean Weber.

All five girls wrote a required essay on "Why I'd like to be FFA Sweetheart." They also had a tool test, an interview, and an overall test of farming. The contestants performed manual tasks of climbing a rope, feeding marshmallows to sheep, pounding a nail in wood, threading a bolt, squaring a board, and throwing a bale of hay.

Phoebe Gives Advice

The stage is set. The lights, sound, and performers are ready. As the curtain parts, Maude and Micky are working in a local newspaper office, "the Evening Star." Thus the stage is set for the all-school play, "Dear Phoebe."

The play was performed November 19 and 20, and on one evening, November 20.

Right: The play begins as Bill Hastings comes to the "Evening Star" to gain a job on the newspaper. Bill wants the exciting life, but G.R. Fosdick has different ideas. He has just appointed Bill the paper's new "Dear Phoebe."

Top Left: "Dear Phoebe" is listening to a troubled heart, Rochelle, who says she can break U-football wide open with the insurance she has. As they talk, Olga eagerly listens.

Top Right: After Bill has gone, Olga makes her move to get the paper from Rochelle. Unfortunately for Rochelle, Olga has to get it the hard way, by killing her.

Above Left: After being murdered, Rochelle's body must be disposed of. Bill and Rocky decide to hide it in G.R. Foadick's office until morning.

Above: With Olga gone, Bill must tell Micky that her fiance, Rocky Gilbert, is working for the mob and throwing the football games.

Left: After long deliberation, the mystery is solved. Bill and Micky figure out that Rochelle's paper was blank; therefore she was killed for nothing. Big Joe, Rocky, and the mob are captured, and the plot is unraveled.

Home Ec. Works '9 to 5'

"9 to 5" was theme of the THS style show, April 28. It was combined with open house, and many pieces of furniture were displayed by the industrial arts classes, under the direction of Mr. Fred Folsche. Mrs. Anna Goss was the instructor of the home ec. classes.

Both Home Ec. I and III classes modeled such articles of clothing as blazers and skirts, sportswear, and sleepwear.

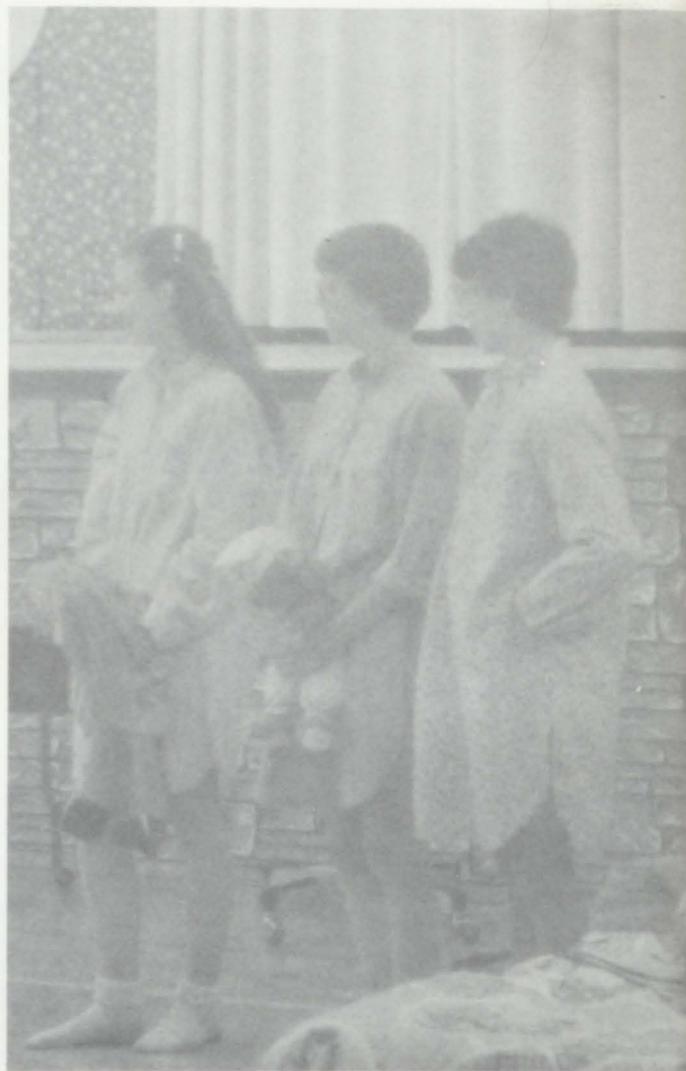

After the style show concluded, the Home Ec. II class served refreshments.

Bob, a senior, has lived in Troy all of his high school years. The class he enjoyed the most in his four years was industrial arts. His favorite teacher was Mr. Rockey. When asked what he thought of THS as a whole, Bobby answered, "Well, there have been some pretty rough times, but as a whole, I really liked it."

Some of Bob's favorite pastimes were listening to the radio or watching television. The singing group he liked the most was Bob Seager and the Silver Bullet Band. Bob spent most of his Friday nights watching, in his opinion, the best show on television, "The Dukes of Hazard."

After graduation, Robert would like to go on and experience the life of working on the "Big Rigs" and become a truck driver.

Prom "We've Got Tonight"

"We've Got Tonight" was the theme for the junior-senior prom held April 25, 1981.

The night began at 6 P.M. with the banquet at the American Legion Hall. The main dish was catered by Kentucky Fried Chicken, and the rest of the meal was prepared by the junior class mothers, and served by sophomores selected by the junior class. Those chosen were Linda Ashworth, Mendi Ashworth, Chris Beaty, Julie Blake, Brenda Boeh, Marty Clary, Bryan Gaither, David Jenkins, Danny King, Mary Middleton, Larry Wilke, and Becky Winkel.

After the feast, Geri Fenley gave the invocation, followed by the welcome by Tim Franken. Senior class president, Gina Hanlan, then gave the response.

Everyone was sitting on the edge of his chair while the speaker, Mr. Donald Harter, told of funny incidents involving the junior and senior classes. Gifts were given at the banquet to Mrs. Goss, senior class sponsor, and to Mr. Buhl and Ms. Stickelman, junior class sponsors.

Following the banquet was a dance in the old gym. The junior class spent numerous hours decorating the gym with the parachute, gazebo, silver stars, and streamers. After the couples had their pictures taken, they danced to the music provided by "Jade."

The juniors arranged for the "Promees" to see "Hollywood Knights."

Kevin Wins Title

Kevin Winkel was named Mr. Ladies' Man, March 27. Kevin received a medallion and a kiss from head escort Laura Herpich.

Kevin's attendants were Robert Clary, Jay Jarrett, Darrel Marriott, and Kevin Sutton. The attendants were escorted by Terri Clary, Lynnette Robinson, Margie Weber and Karen Winzer.

The dance was Sadie Hawkins style, with the girls asking the guys. Jim Ptomey was the disc jockey.

Refreshments of cookies and punch, made by the Kayettes, were served throughout the evening.

Games Split 1-1

The senior girls defeated the women faculty Friday night, March 28, 36-32. The game was cleanly played, and the seniors finally came out on top.

The senior boys lost to the men faculty by the score of 60-41. The game was a hard-fought battle until the fourth quarter, when the faculty finally broke away.

Graduates Face Decisions

Baccalaureate exercises were held at 8 P.M., May 17, in the C.W. Oliver Gymnasium.

The address of the evening was given by the Reverend LeRoy Davis.

"For You Who Face Tomorrow" by Hazel Moseley was read by senior class President Gina Hanlan.

The Invocation and Benediction were given by the Reverend Robert Biggs.

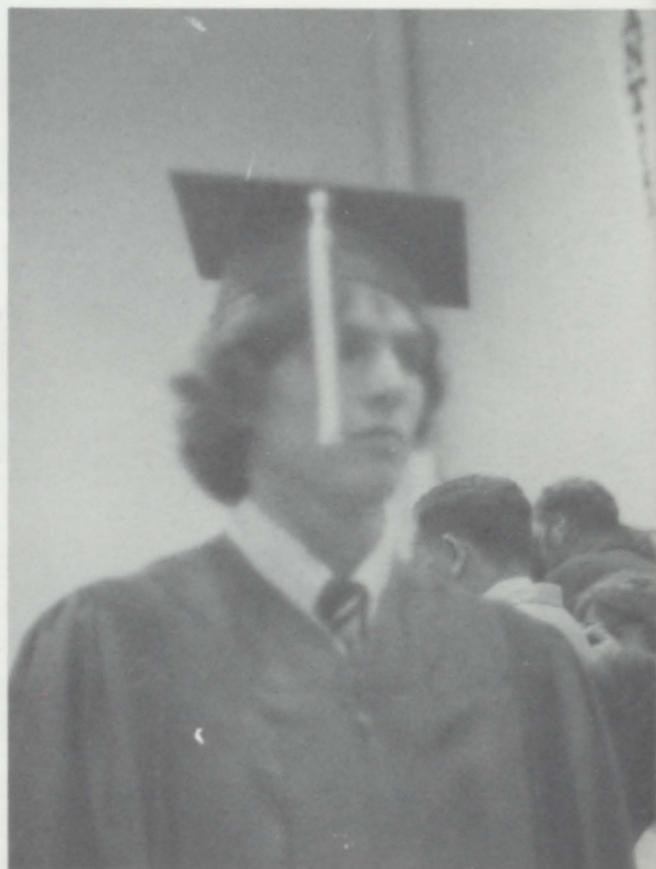

The processional and recessional songs were played by Mrs. Martha Rockey.

Commencement ceremonies were at 8 P.M., May 19, in the gymnasium.

Seniors and parents listened as Dr. Kent Stewart, School Administration professor from Kansas State University, gave the speech.

Salutatorian of the senior class was Laura Herpich.

Valedictorian was Karen Winzer.

Mr. Robert Meng, president of the school board, presented the diplomas.

Students Explore Past And Present

Presenting the "Story of Man" from prehistory to present times was the responsibility of the social science department. Mr. Lyle Rockey, Jr. taught world and American history, geography, and sociology.

Mr. Bruce Reynolds took up where Mr. Rockey left off with current events and American government. Some of the government students attended Doniphan County Government Day at the courthouse.

Center: Mr. Rockey's sociology class discusses a lesson in delinquent subculture.

Bottom: Greg Dannevik, Terri Clary, and Karen Winzer attended Doniphan County Government Day. Each county high school held a mock election to select students to fill their respective county offices for one day. Greg was elected Magistrate Judge; Terri, County Treasurer; and Karen, County Commissioner.

Original Projects Liven Shop Class

The shop classes went beyond the usual run-of-the-mill projects. Some shop projects showed unusual originality.

A large wooden sign for the East Side Estates senior citizen housing development was constructed by the Industrial Arts IV class supervised by Instructor Fred Folsche.

P.E. Program Varied

The P.E. and health classes heard the familiar sounds of "Enough said," and "It doesn't hurt." These are the words of Mr. Frank Davis, who taught freshman boys and advanced P.E., and Mrs. Marla Olson with health and freshman girls' P.E.

Health class studied bodily functions, drugs, disease, and nutrition, out of a new text. New for the girls' P.E. class was the study of two styles of dance: aerobic and square dancing.

Mr. Davis added intramurals to the P.E. classes. This new program consisted of ping pong, volleyball, and basketball.

Israel, Rockey, Rupp At Helm in Department

Mrs. Babetta Israel, Mrs. Martha Rockey, and Ms. Fran Rupp taught the various courses offered by the English department.

Some of the nine-week mini-courses were ethnic literature, vocabulary, folklore, oral interpretation, composition, and children's theater.

Mrs. Rockey's children's theater class presented "Don't Sleep Under the Mapou Tree" for the grade school. The class members acted out a series of fairy-tales, puppet-show style, for the kindergarten classes.

The music department made some changes this year with the addition of new uniforms. Mr. Huff, director of band and chorus, said the new uniforms were one of his Christmas presents.

The number of band members was enlarged with the combination of high school and junior high. They had joint classes and performed as one band.

Band and chorus accomplished many goals this year. Each attended its particular clinic and also went to state contest. Special trips included the mixed chorus ensemble performing for the S.L.K. Club and the band participating in KSU Band Day.

The two music groups performed in the spring and Christmas concerts.

The Pom Pon team was a group of young ladies, who not only did their routines, but made up all their own material. The routines were done to popular songs such as Queen's "Another One Bites the Dust."

The girls performed at most of the home basketball games and at several of the home football games. They attended KSU Band Day with the band, and they went to the NCA POM PON Camp held at Baker University.

The girls are sponsored by Mr. Jerry Huff.

Music Students Vocalists At State

Under the direction of Mr. Jerry Huff, both the mixed ensemble and full chorus received II ratings at the state music contest, April 4.

Two vocal soloists also competed at the contest at Baker University. Brenda Boeh was awarded a II rating, and Bryan Gaither received a III rating.

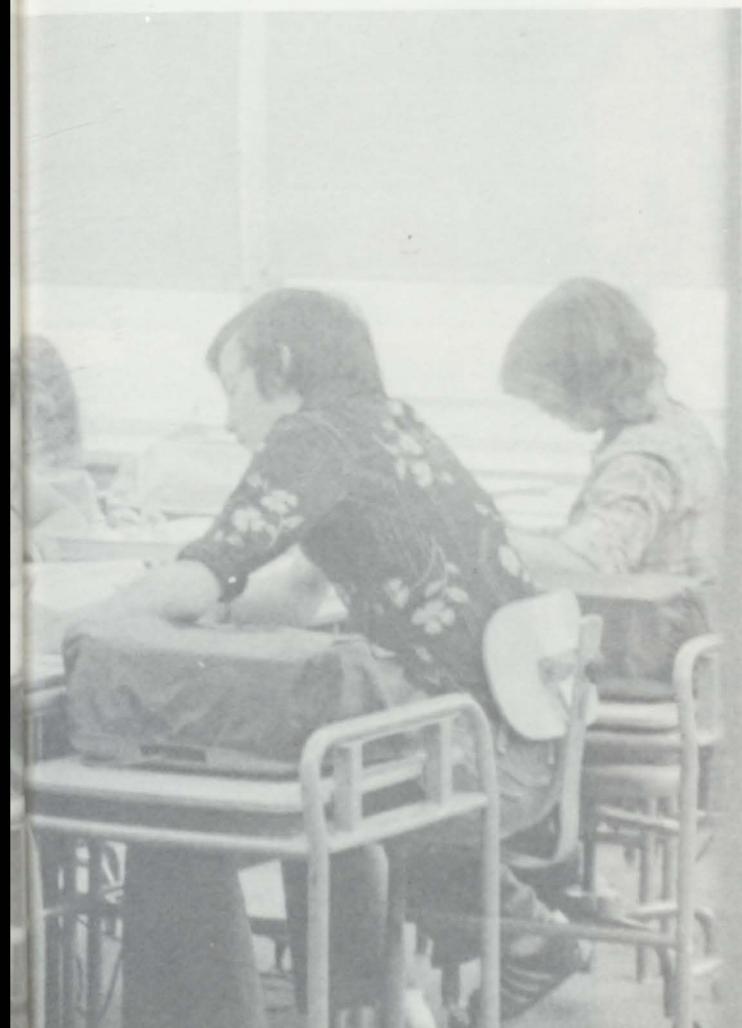

Vocalists Bryan Gaither and Brenda Boeh (Top) and the mixed ensemble (Bottom), as well as the full chorus, competed at state music.

Business Classes Compete At HCC

The business department competed in a contest at Highland Community College, April 27. Students participating in such areas as typing, accounting, and business math were as follows: Greg Ashworth, Michelle Foley, John Michael Marriott, Debbie Masters, Mary Middleton, Lynnette Robinson, Sharon Scholz, Theresa Simpson, Tammy Smith, Margie Weber, and Karen Winzer.

Mr. Bruce Reynolds, with business math, and Mr. Dale Whiteside, with general business, Typing I and II, and Accounting I and II, taught the business classes.

Forensics Team Excels

A five-year tradition of winning the league speech tournament was upheld by the speech and drama team, under the guidance of Mrs. Martha Rockey. This victory was made special by the fact that it was the last year of competition in the K-36 League.

The team made an excellent showing at the state contest, filling its quota of 16 entries. The following students competed at state and received I ratings: Jeff Clary, Carl Tharman, original oration; Tim Franken and Jeff Clary, improvised duet acting; and Lorrie Stanley, poetry. Receiving II ratings were Lisa Anderson, Geri Fenley, dramatic interpretation; Geri Fenley, Cheryl Begesse, prose; Linda Briggs, Cheryl Begesse, poetry; Linda Briggs and Bryan Gaither, duet acting; Sheila Adkins and Gina Hanlan, improvised duet acting; and Jeff Barnthson, humorous interpretation. Laura Herpich received a III rating in informative speech and Steve Tharman, a IV rating in extemporaneous speech. The one-act play was awarded a II rating.

Guys Can Use Home Ec

Mrs. Anna Goss, home ec instructor, maintained that any student, male or female, could benefit from home economics. "People don't get married today as much as they used to," she said. She added that with more people leading a single life, they would do well to have home-ec experience.

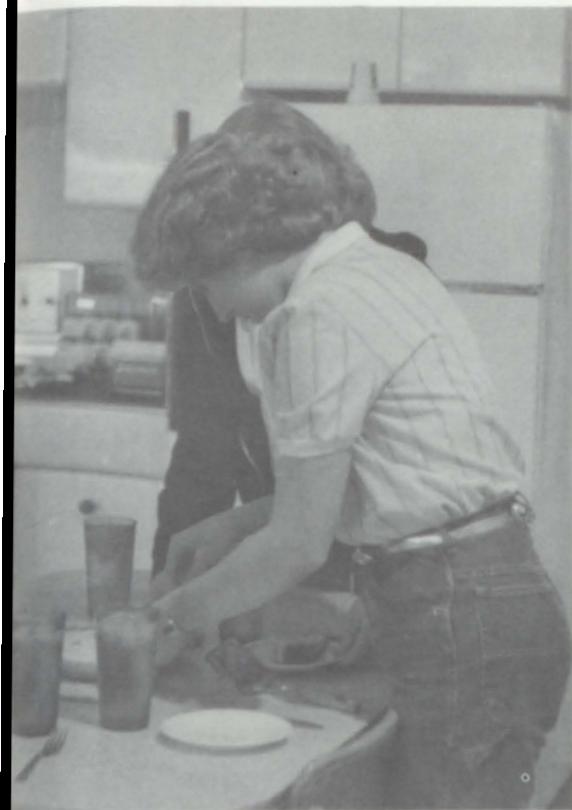

The home ec courses offered were Home Ec I, clothing; Home Ec II, foods; Home Ec III, advanced foods and tailoring; and the senior home living class, which covered such areas as furniture refinishing and child care.

Language, Culture Studied

Cultural activities provided relief from the grammar and vocabulary studies in the Spanish I and II classes, instructed by Miss Fran Rupp.

Spanish students attended a concert by Kantares, a rock group from Madrid. The linguists also learned about various Spanish foods, cooking and eating such foreign dishes as fried bananas and nachos.

Students Compete

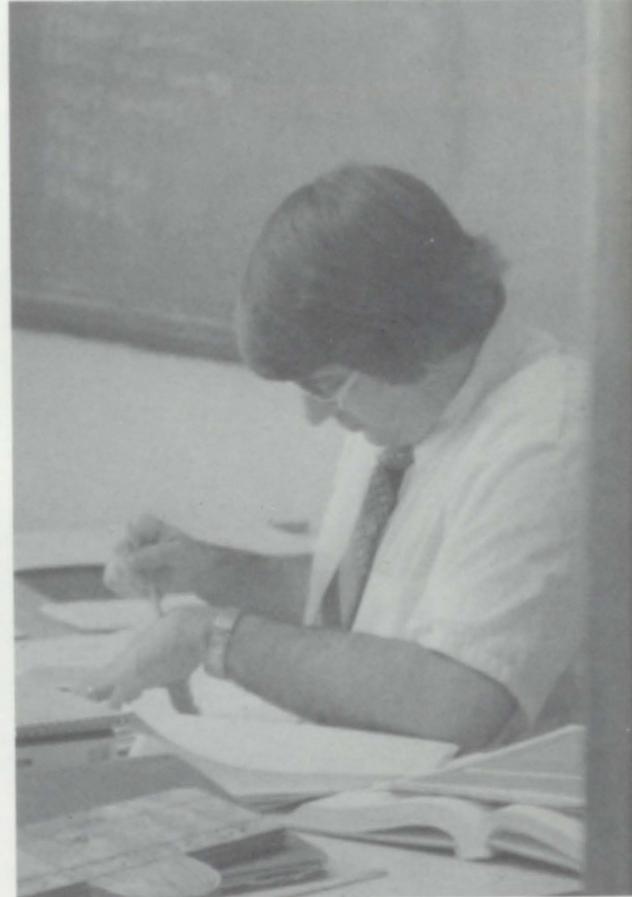

The math staff consisted of Mr. Larry Sandy, who taught Algebra I and II, geometry, and senior math, and of Mr. Bruce Reynolds who instructed business math.

The senior math, algebra, and geometry classes participated in the HCC Math-Science Day contest. The students who participated were Jeff Clary, Tim Franken, Dean Weber, Lisa Anderson, Larry Wilke, Bev Meng, Teresa Blanton, Jay Jarrett, Allen Hillegas, Carl Tharman, Wilma Hoverson, Mary Middleton, and Becky King.

Class Attends Chemathon

Mr. William Foster taught biology, chemistry, earth science, and environmental science. This was his 13th year of teaching.

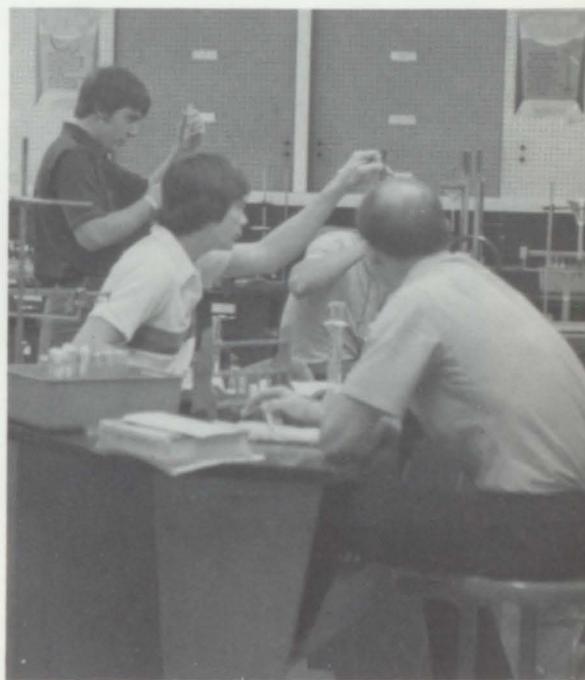

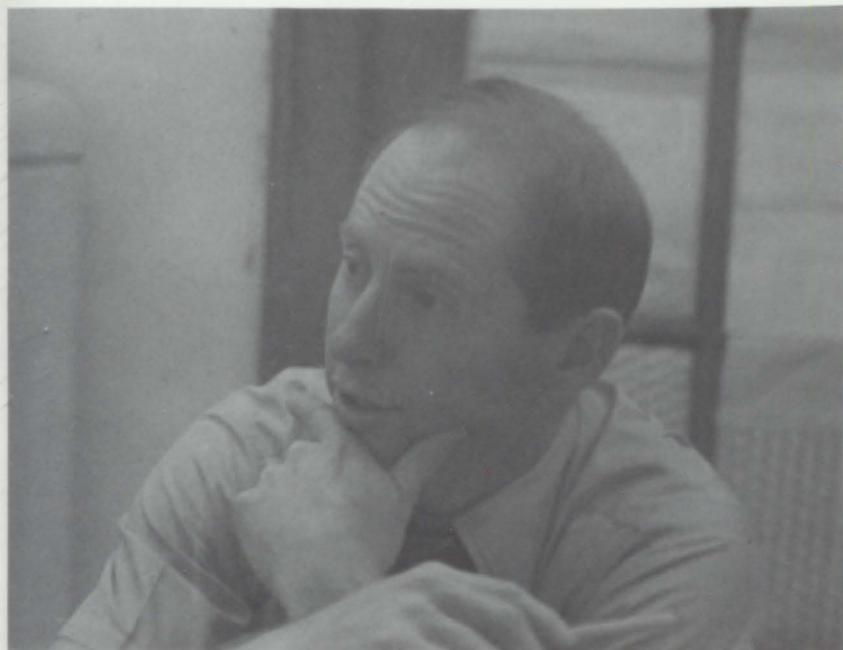

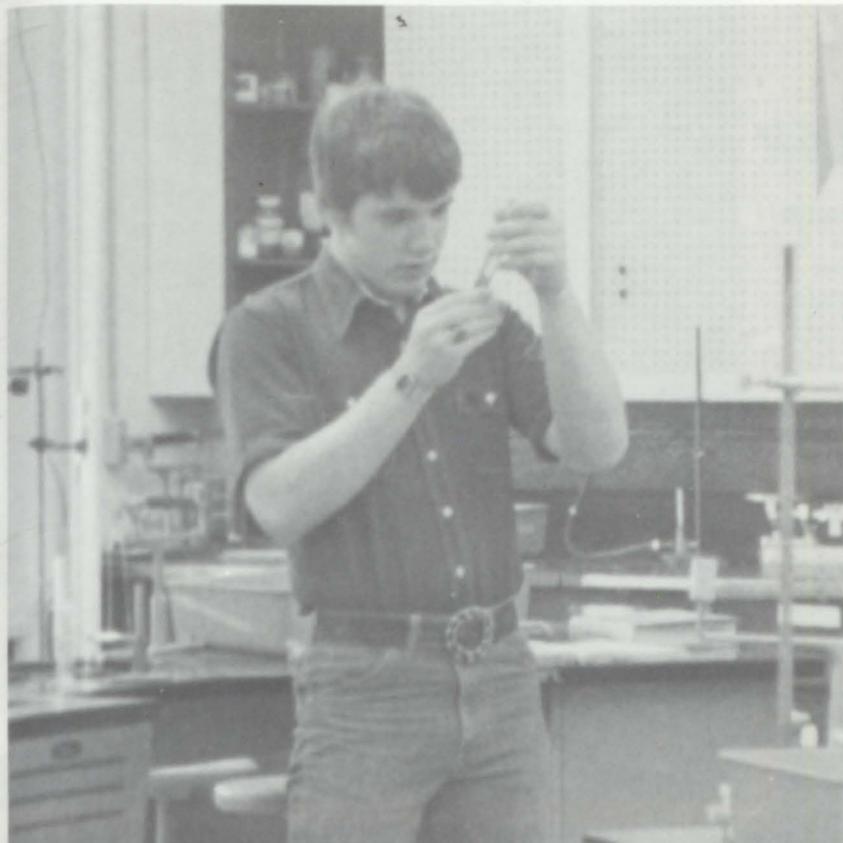

One of the high points of the year was the Math-Science Day at Highland Community College. Participants from the chemistry class were Jeff Clary, Tim Franken, and Dean Weber.

Activities done during the year included hydrolizing water and studying covalent molecules. Students also attended the Chemathon held at Missouri Western State College. Jeff Clary placed fourth at this event. This was the first time in recent history that a Troy student had placed in this contest. For this honor he received the Handbook of Chemistry and Physics.

Awards Given For Merit

Outstanding students were honored at awards night, May 11. In addition to numerous awards in forensics, journalism, scholastics, and other areas, several special honors were given.

Students chosen for Quill and Scroll were as follows: Jeff Clary, Tim Franken, Laura Herpich, Becky King, Brenda Meng, Lynnette Robinson, and Karen Winzer.

The Kansas State University Dean's Awards went to Allen Hillegas and Carl Tharman. The High School Mathematics Examination Award was given to Jeff Clary. Karen Winzer received an achievement award from Benedictine College.

The "I Dare You Award," honoring leadership, was received by Laura Herpich and Carl Tharman.

CLUBS

'The Best Is Yet To Come'

The Kayettes, under the direction of Mrs. Israel, had a busy year. Following a football game all members were invited to a slumber party in the old gym for initiation of new members, playing games, eating, and talking.

At Thanksgiving, members donated food, and a ham was bought to divide among needy persons in Troy. For Christmas, they went caroling and later returned to the school for games and doughnuts.

The money-making projects for the year were selling candy bars and a car wash. Proceeds helped keep an adopted girl, Renya, and went toward a trophy case made for the C.W. Oliver Gymnasium. Other activities were a Christmas gift exchange and "Secret Sisters" on Valentine's Day. In April, a shopping trip was taken to Kansas City.

April 27, the Kayette Banquet was held with a pot luck supper. Senior Service awards were given, along with the Kayette of the Year to Barb Sutherland. Speaker for the evening was Mrs. Joy Dombrowe, who spoke on the theme "The Best Is Yet To Come."

FFA Major Activities Vary

The FFA members attended several judging contests which consisted of land judging, speech, poultry judging, and livestock judging. They also spent a day at the National Convention in Kansas City. During FFA week, several members broadcast their comments over KARE radio.

Two of the FFA major money-making projects were the selling of grapefruit and oranges, and a blue-rock shoot.

The funding of several members to the state convention in Manhattan and sending three of the past officers to leadership camp were some of the major expenses.

"Although none of the members received trophies or awards, they gained a great deal of experience. With their desire and their adviser's help, they plan on attaining more success next year at the district competition," commented Mr. Buhl.

Above Right: One of the chapter's outstanding members was Carl Tharman. During the past year he was chapter president, district treasurer, and a state officer candidate. He placed fourth in a speaking contest at Marysville, Kansas, making him eligible to compete on the state level. Carl was also announced as a State Farmer.

Students Take Time To Help

Several students received the chance this year to learn what teaching is all about, acting as cadette teachers, and teacher, library, and office aides.

What was done during the hour at the grade school? Some cadette teachers graded papers, put up bulletin boards, and ran off papers. Others ran errands and helped the small students with their work. Every grade school cadette teacher had one thing in common, walking up the hill back to the high school.

Kim Jamvold didn't have to walk up the hill. As an office aide, she sat in the office and answered the telephone.

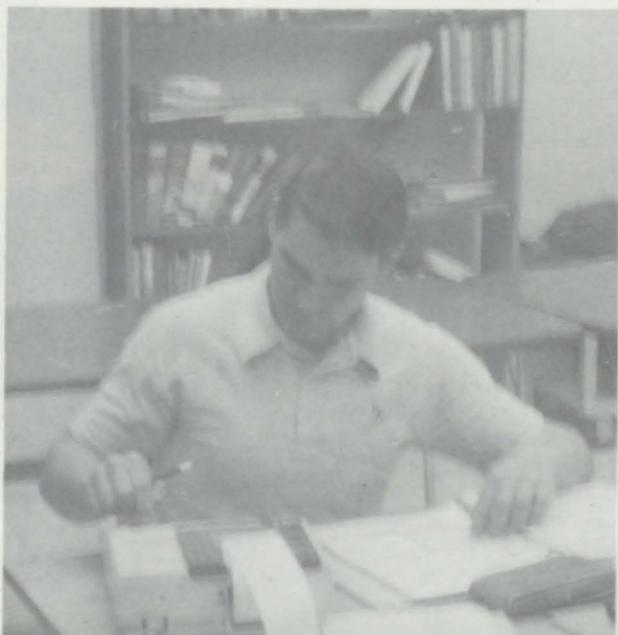

Six students decided to help at the high school library. These aides checked out, shelved, and carded books.

Lynnette Robinson was teacher's aide for the English department, and working with Mr. Buhl was Carl Tharman.

Publications Has Complete Year

The journalists returned to the KSPA State Journalism Contest with eleven competitors, several of whom received individual trophies. The eleven qualified for state competition by placing first, second, or third in a particular event at regional contest.

Publications produced the annual Trojan yearbook. Co-editors were Gina Hanlan, Layout; and Karen Winzer, Copy. Yearbook Section Editors were as follows: Sheila Adkins, Activities; Tim Franken, Sports; Margie Weber, Organizations, Michelle Foley, People; Jeff Barnthson, Academics; Dean Weber, Ads; and Becky King, Index.

The class put together nine issues of the Trojan Trumpet. Some story subjects included the reign of queens, the death of John Lennon, wearing contacts, and the changes and effects of the 1981-82 football season schedule. Lynnette Robinson was Editor-in-Chief of the newspaper. Page Editors were Lynnette Robinson, News; Geri Fenley, Editorial; Jeff Clary, Feature; and Laura Herpich, Sports.

Honor Society members are Laura Herpich, Margie Weber, Karen Winzer, Lynnette Robinson, Gina Hanlan, Sponsor Mr. Fred Folsche, Carl Tharman, and Pat Masters.

Athletic Clubs Select New Officers, Begin Projects

Fellowship of Christian Athletes met once a week. Some of their activities included films, tapes, Bible study, and sport nights.

The group project was selling wood, to purchase national memberships, and to help fund members to regional and national FCA conferences.

The leaders of the group were Captain J. Stock, Co-captain T. Franken, Sec.-Treas. G. Fenley, and Program Chairman L. Herpich.

T-Club officers were Pres. B. Whestine, Vic-Pres. J. Jarrett, Sec. V. Paulich, and Treas. L. Herpich.

Pep Club Boosts Spirits

Spirited voices boosting their athletic representatives through a rough game was the scene from the Pep Club during the football season. The liveliness of the organization declined through the basketball season.

Money-making projects for the club were the collecting of aluminum cans and selling of nachos at the February basketball games.

Ms. Fran Rupp, assistant sponsor, felt the Pep Club is "a great way to share in the excitement of any game, a great way to develop friendships, and to involve yourself in athletic activities."

CC Runs

The two-mile course was run by the Trojan harriers on five different occasions: Maur Hill, Highland, Savior of the World, Centralia, and Horton. David Jenkins broke the sophomore school record this year with the time of 10:35. He and Dennis Winchell were the only two medalists.

JV Wins Two

The junior varsity team, coached by Mr. Bruce Reynolds, ended their three-game season with a 2-1 record and gained the experience they needed.

The main purpose of junior varsity football is to give the underclassmen a chance to experience the excitement of playing for the high school team. It also prepares the players for the varsity team.

Team Is Successful

The THS football team proved to be a success as they achieved two of their three set goals for the 1980-81 football season.

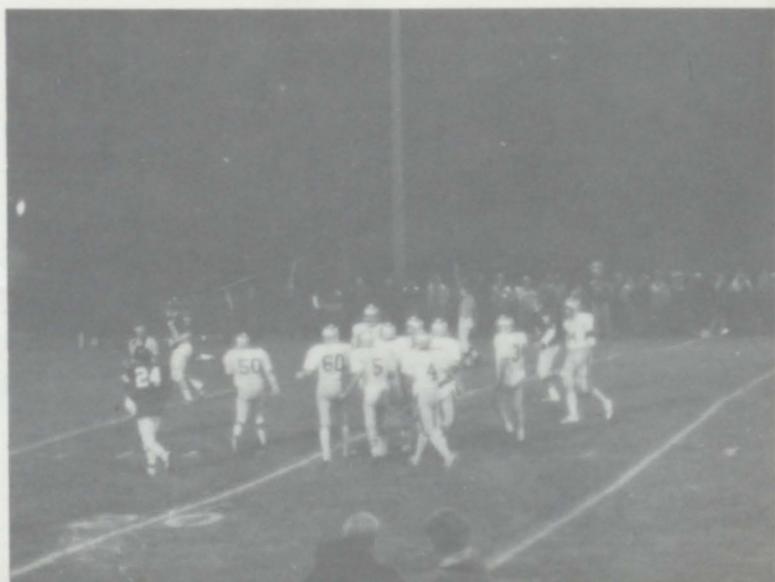

For their first goal the Trojans set out to defeat their arch-rival, Highland Bluestreaks, which they did. Secondly, the team set out to win the league. Though it was not accomplished Troy did make it to the district playoffs, which was the third goal of the season.

THS Girls Play Well

The Troy girls struggled through their basketball season. Although their overall record was 2-15, the girls played most teams very competitively.

In Coach Larry Sandy's second year at Troy, he again had a very large number of girls out. Mr. Sandy was assisted by Mrs. Marla Olson.

Although the girls didn't fare well in tournament play, they probably played their finest game of the season at the regional contest against McLouth.

The Trojans were led by four seniors, Terri Clary, Laura Herpich, Barb Sutherland, and Margie Weber. Laura Herpich also received honorable mention to the K-36 All-League Team.

THS Boys Win First

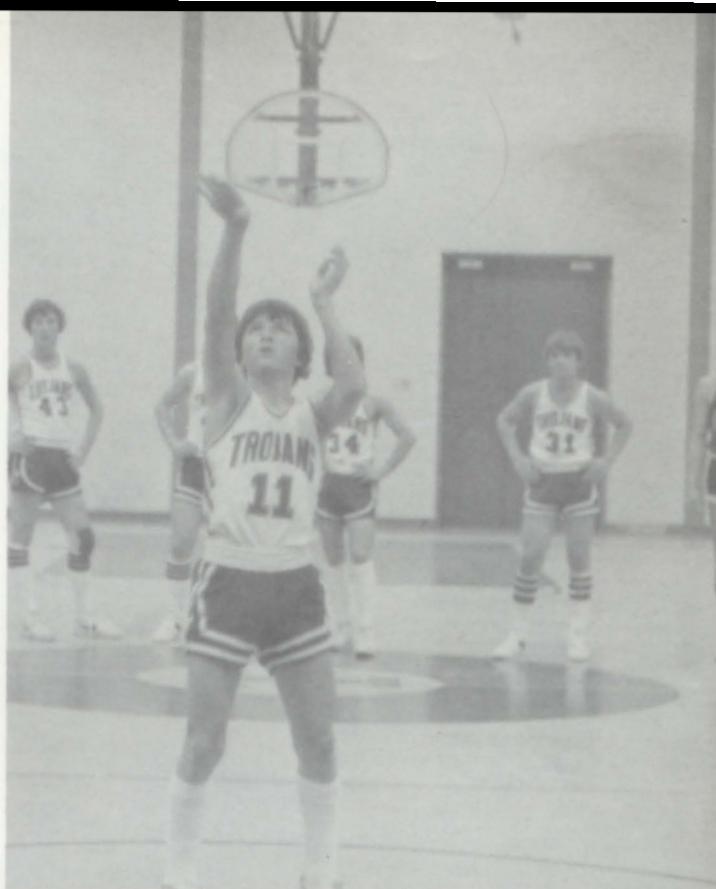

The Troy Trojan boys' basketball team won first place in the Highland Invitational Tournament by defeating Elwood. In the regional tournament THS was victorious in the first round over McLouth, but lost in the second round to Jefferson County North.

THS's varsity team finished the season with a record of 8-9. The junior varsity's record was 3-11.

Mr. Frank Davis was the coach of the varsity for his fourth year. Mr. Kevin Kelley was his assistant and coach of the junior varsity.

The Trojans enjoyed new warmups donated to them by Commerce Savings and Loan.

Greg Dannevik represented THS on the All-League team. James Marriott and Pat Pollock made honorable mention.

Girls Win At First Quad

The Troy girls' track team jumped off to a fine start as they won their first quad of the season. The girls, coached by Mr. Larry Sandy and assisted by Mr. Lyle Rockey, were led by two seniors, Laura Herpich and Brenda Meng.

The rest of the team consisted of two juniors, Debbie Masters, Geri Fenley; four sophomores, Julie Blake, Mary Middleton, Connie Johnson, Mendi Ashworth; and three freshmen, Tammy Clary, Laurie Klaus, and Denise Sutherland, who broke the school record in the 200-meter low hurdles.

The freshmen competing in the freshman league meet were Laralee Sandy, Jill Jarrett, Marilyn Weber, Stacey Blanton, and Roberta Martinez, as well as the original three.

Boys Win Elwood Quad

The Trojan boys' track squad captured first place in their first meet of the season, at the Elwood Quad at Troy. Their win, along with the girls' first place win, gave Troy the overall victory.

They competed in several other meets including the Central Relays. The boys captured first in the 440 relay, and in the long jump at this meet in St. Joe.

THS field event coach was Mr. Frank Davis. Mr. Bill Foster was the running coach.

Volleyball, New Sport

Troy added a new sport, volleyball, to its extra curricular activities. Volleyball became a sport largely due to the persistence and determination of the Trojan girls.

Even though this was Troy's first year, the girls still won 3 games. Head Coach Marla Olson and Assistant Coach Larry Sandy used this year as a learning season.

"I think they really learned a great deal. They improved each game. I'm proud of the way the girls played," said Olson. "Since this year's team didn't have any seniors, maybe next year will be a better one for the young Trojans."

Olson is hoping volleyball will become a league sport next year. It would make much less traveling and keep the Trojans from playing the same teams.

New Style, A Success

The Troy T-Club experimented with a new type of athletic banquet. Instead of the formal banquets of the past, the lettermen decided to have an outdoor barbeque of hamburgers and various other foods. The informal atmosphere, accompanied by beautiful weather, made the cookout at the fairgrounds a complete success.

Since there was no speaker at the banquet, the awards were given directly after the supper. After all the athletes receiving letters were recognized, three special awards were given. Tim Franken was the recipient of the "Tom Keller Award." Also, Greg Dannevik was announced as the "Outstanding Senior Athlete," while Laura Herpich had the prestige of winning the school's highest athletic honor, the "Bill Foster Award."

THE TROJAN ANNUAL STAFF

would like to thank all those who have supported and assisted us in our efforts to produce
this 1980-81 edition
of the
TROJAN yearbook

THANK YOU

The Photography Department would like to thank the CHIEF office and Larry Barnthson for the use of the dark room, and for all the help they have given us.
